AMUSEMENTS.

Carleton the elder, and Carleton the younger, both had handsome receptions at the Theater last night, the former for Auld Lang Syne, the latter for the good work he did both in singing and acting in the part of Johnny in the opera "When Johnny Comes Marching Home." The opera is a patriotic "thriller" from beginning to end. It contains any number of charming songs, choruses, and concerted pieces, mostly new and original, blended with charming suggestions of the old patriotic airs, all designed to key the audience up to a high pitch of enthusiasm. The company, too, affords a refreshing instance of a comic opera organization selected with a view to doing musical work, and some of the lights and shades of the chorus and the concerted numbers were beautifully rendered, shewing unmistakably the guiding hand of Mr. Carleton himself. The finale of the first act had half a dozen recalls and the patriotic bursts were especially enlivening.

Mr. W. T. Carleton, while he nurses his tones, shows the beautiful method of the old days, and his duets with Miss Salisbury were among the most heartily applauded numbers of the night. The younger Carleton, who stands six feet two in his stockings, has a fine baritone voice, and his singing of "My Own United States" as well as his duet with the soprano won the heartiest applause. Miss Vaughn in the part of the heroine, is a charming little singer and actress, and she too won heavily with the audience.

Mr. Francis, the comedian, scored any number of laughs in the little had to do. The chorus of ladies, looking like so many plates from Godey's Lady's book in the early sixties, were amusing and artistic.

The scenery was striking, especially the opening of the second act. While the story is undoubtedly light, the music is full of charm and the general patriotic whirl and active movement with which the whole thing goes, makes an enjoyable evening's entertainment. The same bill runs the remainder of the week with a Saturday matinee.

"The whitecaps is just fellers with flour sacks over their heads and big pistols in their hands," explained a youngster from the gallery to a companion after the performance in the Grand last night. And that's about what the play was, except that the thrilling places refused to work on account of a lack of rehearsals, a fault becoming too common with the stock company.

The play is a "thriller" in which the love of a mountain maid who is loved in turn by a whitecap and a sheriff, figures most loudly. Excitement is made by the whitecaps who are organized to raise a disturbance every five minutes, and show a disposition to work overtime. Frank E. Montgomery is in the leading role, while W. W. Bittner, Zellah Covington, Mrs. Bittner and other well known favorites appear in the cast. With the future performances the play will no doubt run smoothly and please the audiences who like their villainy deep dyed, and loaded down with shooting irons. "The Whitecaps" run till the end of the week, with a Saturday matinee, and will be followed next week with the Britt-Nelson fight pictures as a preface to a short comedy.

The patrons of the Lyric for the week commencing tomorrow afternoon can expect something fine in the "Parisian Belles,' 'a brand new burlesque. It is under the personal direction of Mr. John Grieves the well known New York manager and producer who has spent considerable time in securing a handsome chorus, noted not only for good looks, but for their ability as singers. Among those secured are Clara Cole, one of the handsomest artistes on the burlesque stage. The company will be found to be exceptionally large one, its full strength being displayed in the two musical absurdities entitled "The Sultan's Wives," and "The Girl from Manila." Aside from the burlesque an olio introducing six vaudeville acts will be offered.

* * *

"Way Down East," with its pretty story of New England life, will be seen at the Theater all of next week. The great popularity of the celebrated Parker play does not seem to wane. Season after season it returns to cities where it has been several times, and its receipts increase with each succeeding visit. An explanation is found in the fact that the play appeals not only to the regular class of theatergoers, but its clientelle includes a vast number of people who seldom go to the playhouse. The sale of seats opens today.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Baily, P. O., True, Texas, writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frostbites and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. B

NO EVIDENCE OF GUILT.

Austrians Suspected of Recent Killing Released from County Jail.

The four Austrians who have been confined in the county jail since immediately after the shooting of Mike Francevic at Bingham on Nov. 21, have been released, as evidence connecting them with the crime has not been secured. The men were put through the "sweating" process on several occasions but nothing could be obtained from them which threw any light on the mystery. The men released are John Zoric, Sam Jemich, George Sansch and Mike Melic.

Francevis was attending the wedding reception of his daughter in "Little Austria" at Bingham on the date mentioned above, and, hearing some shooting going on, he went to the door and was shot himself. He was brought to this city to a hospital where he died the day after the shooting. A number of Austrians have been arrested in connection with the crime but as yet the guilty party has not been found.

"I was much afflicted with sciatica," writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons; all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm. 25c 50c, $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. B.

QUORUM NOT PRESENT.

For This Reason Bids for Conduit Were Not Opened.

Owing to the fact that a quorum was not present at the meeting of the board of public works yesterday afternoon, the bids for building a brick conduit in place of the wooden flume along part of the Salt Lake and Jordan Canal were not opened. Bids for the work were opened some time ago, but all of them were too high and were rejected by the board and the work was readvertised. The improvement will cost about $13,000 according to the estimate of the city engineer.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory, and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by all druggists.

TO STOP SMOKE NUISANCE.

Assistant City Attorney D. O. Willey, who has charge of the city cases in Judge Diehl's court, proposes to stop the smoke nuisance. He stated this morning that he was getting up a list of those who are violating the ordinance in this respect, and that complaints would soon be issued for their arrest.
