Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Will Sing at Y. M. C. A.—Miss Martha McClain will sing before the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday afternoon.

Bids For Rock—Bids are being received for stone to be used on the Newhouse buildings. If possible Utah stone will be given the preference.

Rehearsal Tonight—There will be a full rehearsal this evening in the Elks' lodge room, for the minstrel show that is to come off shortly in the theater.

Veteran Volunteer Firemen—The regular meeting of the Veteran Volunteer Firemen's association will be held Monday, April 1, at 8 o'clock p. m. Members of the mortuary fund are particularly requested to be present.

Warm in Chicago—James Shields, the well known Chicago traveling man, and his son are at the Knutsford. Mr. Shields says it is 87 degrees in the shade back in Chicago, with people wearing white shirt waists and in their shirt sleeves.

Committed to the Asylum—Albert E. Chamberlin was examined as to his sanity before Judge Armstrong yesterday afternoon by County Physician Calderwood and Dr. Raley and was committed to the State Mental hospital at Provo. He is 24 years of age.

Applications For Water—John E. Rogers of Monticello has filed application with the state engineer for five second feet of water from the North Montezuma creek for irrigation. The Light and Railway company has filed application for 36½ second feet from the Weber river for power purposes.

Sympathy For Mr. Langton—At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Consolidated Wagon and Machine company held on Thursday, resolutions of sympathy were adopted for Hon. Seth Langton, whose wife passed away in this city on Wednesday. The resolutions were forwarded to Mr. Langton and the sympathy and kindly interest of his business associates in his time of trial are sure to be appreciated.

Jewish Passover—This morning at 11 o'clock the regular Jewish passover services were held in the Temple B'nai Israel, the passover having begun last night to continue for an entire week. At 6:30 o'clock last night an opening song service was held in the temple, which was well attended. The passover is in commemoration of the Israelites' release from Pharoah's bondage, and their exodus from Egypt.

Free Concert Tonight—The second public concert to be given at the Utah Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight, with the Juvenile band as the feature of the occasion. This program will be played: March, "Defenders," Hardy; overture, "Bohemian Girl," Balfe; march, "Rough Riders," Southwell; overture, "Manitou," Althouse; march, "Happy Heine," Lampe; medley, "National Airs," Southwell; march, "Betterment Club," Christenson.

New Salt Lake Composer—C. D. Brown of 518 Third avenue, Salt Lake City, has composed a pretty song entitled "I Have Something I Would Whisper in Your Ear," the inference being that a loving young swain would tell his Dulcinea del Toboso that he has an ice cream soda in cold storage for her. The accompanying musical score is by Horace Grey. Mr. Brown has several more songs in process of composition which will shortly be published by the Popular Music Publishing company of Chicago.

Golden Wedding—Bishop Hiram T. Spencer and wife, of Pleasant Green, this county, celebrated their golden wedding Thursday afternoon and evening. The children of the ward met at the meetinghouse in the afternoon, where songs, recitations and dancing made them merry, and in the evening the older people gathered, and an enjoyable time was had by all present, the number participating including nearly every one in the ward. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer are hale and hearty, and both expect to live to see many returns of the day, and the wish of their host of friends is that such will be the case.

Fell From His Car—Carl Peterson, a motorman on the Murray car line, is confined to his home at Ninth South and State streets, suffering from bruises resulting from a fall from his car yesterday, while going at full speed. Peterson was driving the car north from Murray, and one gate at the side of the front platform was open. The motorman stepped to close it, when a sudden lurch hurled him to the ground. Conductor Hyrum Floyd rushed forward quickly and stopped the car after which he backed up to where Peterson was lying unconscious. The injured man was taken to Murray and after it was found that no bones were broken he was removed to his home.

Concert at Tabernacle—Friday evening, April 5, a concert will be given in the tabernacle, in which the tabernacle choir, the stake singing classes and a number of vocal soloists and instrumentalists will take part. Prof. Evan Stephens and his assistants, Miss Mable Cooper and Noel S. Pratt, will direct the exercises, and Prof. J. J. McClellan will be accompanist. The juvenile singers numbering several hundred, have had a thorough course of training and much is expected of them in the coming event. The assistants will comprise the following well known artists: J. J. McClellan, organist; W. D. Phillips, tenor; Noel S. Pratt, baritone; Miss Millie Williams, soprano; Miss Bessie Bird, soprano; Miss Evangeline Thomas, contralto; Master Charlie Shepherd, pianist; Master Edward Fitzpatrick, violinist; and the Forest Dale Young Ladies' chorus.

FRATERNAL FEAST.

Local Brotherhood Indulges in a Banquet at the Eagles' Hall.

State Deputy Supreme President L. C. Murphy and wife of the Fraternal Brotherhood, were hosts at a very elaborate banquet last night at the Eagle's hall which was attended by 90 members of the order. The banquet was given as the crowning effort of the hosts at the close of a very successful membership campaign during which a large number of members were initiated into the three lodges of the order in this city. During the past year Mr. and Mrs. Murphy have added 135 new members to the order and all of the lodges in this state are now in a very strong condition.

The guests of honor last night were the new members secured during the campaign and also the old members who were instrumental in securing new ones. All were seated at the banquet table at 10 o'clock after which Mr. Murphy made a brief address of welcome. He then introduced Briant S. Young as toastmaster of the evening and, under the latter's guidance, some very witty and enjoyable toasts were given. Each of the speakers before concluding took occasion to call particular attention to the good work done by Mr. and Mrs. Murphy since their arrival here about a year ago.

Among those who responded to toasts were John Eunk, Dr. Smart, W. E. Jenkins, Miss Laura Hadley, H. S. Harper, J. U. Eldredge, Jr., Dr. Glesy, Mrs. L. C. Murphy and W. S. Glesy. The event was voted by all as the most successful and enjoyable affair ever given by the order in this state.

RHEUMATIC PAINS RELIEVED.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieves rheumatic pains and makes sleep and rest possible, which is alone worth many times its cost. B. F. Crocker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and for twenty years justice of the peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good." For sale by all druggists.

EIGHT DIVORCES.

Is the Record in Judge Morse's Court During Yesterday's Session.

The second session of the divorce call yesterday afternoon in Judge Morse's court resulted in six divorces being granted, which, with the two granted at the morning session, made a total of eight for the day.

Perhaps the most sensational case heard in the afternoon was that of Bertha E. O'Donnell against Thos. O'Donnell. The testimony in behalf of plaintiff showed that O'Donnell had been convicted of burglary and after he served asterm in the state prison he called at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Alvina Pratt, in this city, and asked to see his wife. She refused to see him or to have anything to do with him, and he called a second time, armed with a razor and forced his way into the house. He threatened to kill his wife, whereupon Mrs. Pratt grabbed a chair and struck him over the head with it. This dazed him and he left the house without further trouble and has never been seen since. They were married in this city on May 18, 1899. The court took the case under advisement until next week to allow plaintiff to get evidence of defendant's prison career.

Divorces were granted to plaintiffs in the following cases:

Delia Robertson vs Robert Robertson on the ground that defendant was convicted of a felony and is serving time in the state prison.

Grace Sherman vs Robert Sherman on the ground of desertion. Plaintiff was awarded the custody of their two children.

Anna Reed vs William Reed on the ground of desertion. The custody of the minor child was awarded to plaintiff.

Elizabeth Budgett vs Henry H. Budgett on the ground of failure to support.

Annie B. Willis vs Frederick Willis on the ground of cruelty. Mrs. Willis claimed that her husband choked her and threatened to kill her in England.

Ester Revello vs J. F. Revello on the grounds of desertion and failure to support.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IS BOTH AGREEABLE AND EFFECTIVE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it any my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by all druggists.
