THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Australian Mission—Whitney hall, Eighteenth ward, Tuesday evening April 6, at 7:30.

Pardon Board Holds no Session—The state board of pardons had no quorum at Saturday's meeting, so it was postponed until next Saturday.

Rumor of Timber Deal—It is stated that David Eccles of Ogden, and Salt Lake capitalists are negotiating for the purchase of the properties of the El Dorado Lumber company, near Pino Grande, California.

To Contain Prize Chorus—The next issue of the Improvement Era will contain the mixed chorus which won the prize at the Elsteddfod held in this city last fall. The winner is George Marks Evans of Shamokin, Pa.

To Talk on Liquor Question—Rev. Dr. H. W. Gilchrist of San Francisco who is now conducting special services at the Third Presbyterian church, has been asked to preach on the liquor question, and he will do so before the close of the meetings.

Two Sunday Drunks—Yesterday afternoon Patrolman Tom Griffiths made a record for arrests. He landed at the city jail two "drunks" within two minutes. One of the victims was a soldier and as he was too drunk to remember his name he was booked as "Soldier Boy."

Debate on Socialism—John B. Barnhill an Illinois politician, is in the city to engage in debates on Socialism. He will be accommodated by W. S. Dalton and Murray King. Mr. Barnhill has been debating in the Chautauqua series, his theme being "The fallacies and weaknesses of Socialism."

Is a Coal Man Again—John S. Critchlow has resigned his position as manager of the Salt Lake Herald, which he has held for the last three years, and is now manager of the Western Fuel company. Mr. Critchlow was manager of the Bamberger coal company for some time before his connection with the Herald, and is therefore well equipped for his new duties.

Miss Phelps' Reading—Miss Mary Phelps of Pasadena occupied the Unitarian pulpit yesterday morning, where she read Ibsen's "Character Builders." In the afternoon, Miss. Phelps went to Ogden where she repeated the reading in the evening, at the Unitarian church there. Rev. W. T. Brown is in Montana on church business.

Dinner at Y. M. C. A.—The Student's Council of the Y. M. C. A. will give the employed boys of the night school a Highland dinner tomorrow evening, with the following program; C. R. Bradford, toastmaster; C. P. Overfield, short talk; Oscar Powell, cartoonist; Samuel Williams, piano solo; J. G. White, short talk; L. O. Saal, monologue; Kendall and Webber, German comedy.

Mack Writes a Play—The play which was written some time ago by Willard Mack, as a vehicle for the talents of James J. Corbett, the actor-pugilist, has been favorably received by him. Word to this effect has been received by Mr. Mack from Corbett's manager. The name of the play is "Harley of Harvard." Mr. Mack has written several plays which have received a measure of success, among them being "Sagebrush," which was produced in Chicago three years ago.

Sheridan Held in Frisco—It is reported that Frank Sheridan has been arrested in San Francisco at the instigation of the Merchant's Protective association of this city. If possible they will hold him there on the charge of being an absconding debtor, in the effort to collect an old judgment of $1,700 held by Oscar F. Peterson. Sheridan's departure from this City after playing here with the Lillian Russell company was a spectacular affair.

Brother Against Brother—Arrested at the instigation of his brother, Dean Sigburn, a youth 20 years of age, occupies a cell at the city jail with the charge of petit larceny hanging over him. He was arrested yesterday by Special Patrolman C. C. Riley while in the act of trying to sell a stick pin which it is alleged he stole from his brother. The youth denies he stole the pin but declares his brother gave it to him. The matter will be settled in Judge Bowman's court.

Seventh Child Called—John Byron and wife of Murray were called upon to part with another of their children yesterday afternoon, when their little 4-year-old girl was taken. The case was peculiarly sad because of the fact that the grim reaper had entered their abode three times since the beginning of the year. In January they suffered the loss of two little boys, and on Thursday last the little baby died after a short illness. The family have lost seven children in all in the fourteen years they have resided at Murray.

Sunday Prison Service—The religious services held in Judge Bowman's court room yesterday afternoon for the prisoners by ladies of the W. C. T. U. were largely attended, there being about forty present, and the services were listened to with marked attention. Those in charge of the services feel greatly encouraged as they have labored for weeks without much success until yesterday. The services consisted of hyms, in which the prisoners joined, and short talks and Scriptural readings.

Interest in Contest—Great interest is being manifested in the coming high school oratorical contest, which will be held in the university on the evenings of April 5 and 6. The high schools of Salt Lake, Ogden, Manti, Granite, Park City, Springville, Fillmore and Wasatch academy, Weber academy and Gordon academy will participate. The prizes will be a gold medal for the best original oration and a silver medal for the best declamation of some literary masterpiece. The manuscripts will be judged by Professors G. M. Marshall and E. W. Reynolds of the university and Professor Maude May Babcock will pass on the delivery, assisted by two others.
