SENSATIONS ARE SPRUNG IN BOISE

Charges Made That Bills Passed By House Were Tampered With.

DIETRICH'S SKIRTS CLEARED.

Governor and Speaker Clagstone Say Alterations Were Made to Make Measures Read Intelligently.

Special Correspondence.

BOISE, Idaho, March 25.—Some little commotion was caused at the state house and in political circles last evening by the appearance in a local evening paper of a statement by Representative D. D. Shaw of Ada county in which he declared that certain enrolled bills passed by the recent session of the legislature were changed after they had been delivered to the governor. The bills particularly referred to are H. B. Nos. 273 and 207, relating respectively to the state treasurer's office and the fish and game department.

The claim of Shaw was verified last night by the appearance on the scene of Chief Clerk of the House James H. Wallis, who testified to the same fact. "All changes were sanctioned by the speaker," Mr. Wallis stated, "and were for the purpose of making the measures intelligible and to conform them with the engrossed bills and the journal."

It was shown that the bills in question were delivered over to Clerk Wallis and Speaker Clagstone by the governor's secretary, C. C. Dietrich.

DIETRICH EXHONORATED.

An attempt was made on the part of some to censure Mr. Dietrich for this action; but the governor exonerated his secretary in the following statement: "Although I did not know it at the time, I approve of Mr. Dietrich's action. I do not see how he could refuse the proper officers of the house who desired the bills for comparison."

Regarding bill No. 273, Mr. Wallis stated: "An apparent error in the wording of house bill No. 273 was discovered by Mr. Dietrich. He handed me the bill for the purpose of comparing it with the engrossed bill. I found it had been paged wrong, so that, in order to read it, pages three and five and four and six had to be read together, skipping the intervening pages. It was clearly an error of the engrossing clerk in stapling the sheets of paper together."

CLAGSTONE'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Wallis produced a signed order from Speaker Clogstone, directing changes as follows:

"Corrections in house bill No. 273. The following amendments are authorized: "In section 2, line six, change 'limited state's treasury' to 'United States treasury;' change 'of persons' to 'or persons;' change 'neglect of' to 'neglect on;' change 'part of' to 'proof of.' In section 3, change 'limited states treasury' to 'United States treasury.'—Paul Clagstone, Speaker."

As to changes in the house bill No. 207, Mr. Wallis stated: "House bill No. 207 as enrolled was changed so as to conform with the report of the conference committee of the house and senate. It will be recalled that this bill was amended in the senate and that the house did not accept the amendments."

When Governor Brady was questioned as to whether or not he would institute an investigation on the strength of the charges which have been published relative to changes having been made in bills, after they had been transmitted to him, he replied: "Let them come to me and show me what they have found, if there is any merit in their complaint. Then I will act if the circumstances demand."

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

The citizens of Boise are at present most exercised over the question of election of a new set of municipal officers. The contest will be a hard fought one, based strictly on party lines—Democratic and Republican. The present mayor, John M. Haines, is a candidate for re-election; the Democrats are supporting J. T. Pence, who has already received the nomination for the mayoralty.

Chief of Police Francis, who appeared an apparent block in the wheel of Haines's progress, has now resigned permanently from his position; but this does not leave an unobstructed path for the mayor, yet, by any means. Rev. Dalton of the First Methodist church is at swords points with this official and, it is believed, will lead quite a strong following in opposing him. This bitter feeling was engendered principally through Rev. Dalton's contention that the official head of this city maintained a too flagrant passivity on the important questions of civic righteousness. Especially was stress laid upon the lawless licensing of occupants of the red light district. However, Mr. Dalton is a Republican and he may yet find conditions such that he can fall in line.

An earnest effort was made last week to get ex-Gov. Morrison to accept the nomination of mayor on the Republican ticket; but he declined the honor.

LATTER-DAY SAINTS' CONFERENCE.

On Tuesday evening the quarterly conference of the Boise branch of the Latter-day Saints' Church was convened at their chapel in this city. The occasion was the last official visit of Mission President Nephi Pratt to this city, he having now completed a seven year ministry is president of the Northwestern states. From here he goes to the Montana conference, thence to Salt Lake, where he will receive his honorable release at the April conference. His successor will be Elder Melvin Ballard of Logan.

In his address, which was the principal one of the conference, Prest. Pratt stated that when he came to this mission seven years ago there labored here but eight elders, where now are 39, then there were but 400 Church members, now there are 1,362; then three branches of the Church now nine. During the last year, 117 baptisms were performed in the mission, 35 of which were in Boise, which branch now leads the whole mission. In that year 64,000 tracts were distributed gratuitously.

The Church here tendered the retiring president last night a social at the chapel, where fully 200 people greeted the man who had served them so long and so faithfully and well. An interesting musical program was rendered, after which a delicious luncheon was served.

HADEN OFFERS MANY INDUCEMENTS

Special Correspondence.

HADEN, March 17.—The Relief society of the ward celebrated the anniversary of Relief society day in a very creditable manner. The Relief society is under the able presidency of Mrs. Martha Little, Caroline Rommell and Corile Campbell. The people gathered at 2 p. m. in the ward meetinghouse and an excellent program was rendered, with songs speeches, which were appropriate to the occasion.

At 5 p. m. the entire ward sat down to tables, spread with everything that the society could think of to appeal to the appetite. At 8 p. m. the old and young enjoyed themselves in dancing and a program. The day was spent very pleasantly and will long be remembered. Much credit is due the committee who had the work in charge.

The ward is growing in members but there is plenty of room for a great number of settlers to come and make their homes here. There is good soil, water, timber and coal; in fact this is an ideal valley for anybody with humble means to make a home. The town is well supplied with mercantile houses, and a good line of merchandise is carried. There is a good opening for a man with some musical ability to lead the ward choir, and instruct the children in music, both vocal and instrumental.

EMMETT FARMERS PLANTING BIG CROPS

Special Correspondence.

EMMETT, March 19.—Emmett has been enjoying quite a boom for some time past and is growing very rapidly from the fact that the surrounding country is so well adapted to fruit growing, and the many acres of trees that are being planted this spring. Emmett will soon be one of the leading fruit shipping points in the west. The fruit and melon growers association which was formed a short time ago is in good working order as a beginner the order for cantaloupe seed, alone was over $500.

The contract was let some time ago to J. H. Forbes to construct the water works for the city. The steel tower and tank is nearly completed, and the pipeing is being laid along the stretes.

The farmers are all busy at present putting in their spring crops, and are having ideal weather to work in.

The Emmett ward Relief society spent an enjoyable day March 17. A program and dinner took up the afternoon and a dance was given in the evening.

TILDEN BRIDGE READY FOR USE

Committee of Pocatello Engineers Appointed to Accept Same.

CRAZY NEGRO BITES OFFICER.

Takes Piece of Check Out and is Biting Again When Clubbed Into Insensibility.

Special Correspondence.

POCATELLO, March 25.—The new bridge across the Snake river at Tilden connecting the west side of the Snake river valley with Bannock county by direct wagon route, is ready pending acceptance by an inspection committee appointed for the purpose. The committee is composed of the following gentlemen, who went out to see the bridge Tuesday, and who will report later: W. P. Havenor, supervising engineer; Oscar Sonnenkalb, county surveyor, and representing the county commissioners; J. B. Bistline and George Gasser, representing the Pocatello Commercial club, R. S. Dahlberg contractor, representing M. M. Moulton of Denver.

TO ADVERTISE GATE CITY.

At a meeting held Monday evening by the Pocatello Commercial club, it was decided to carry on a publicity campaign in favor of the Gate city. The monthly dues were raised from 50 cents to $1. Five thousand booklets, advertising Pocatello, were ordered printed and distributed among westbound tourists and visitors to the coming Seattle exposition.

Y. M. C. A. CONCERTS.

The Y. M. C. A. rooms had a special attraction to offer the men Sunday afternoon, when an orchestra of nine pieces under the direction of W. A. Samms, gave an hour's concert, followed by a song service and a short talk by Mr. W. P. Havenor on the subject, "Dreamers."

Plans are being considered toward giving regular sacred concerts at the Y. M. C. A. parlors on Sunday afternoons. J. E. Sturdwant, chairman of the religious work committee, effected a change in the name of the committee, hereafter it will be known as "The Men's Gospel club of Pocatello."

BITTEN BY CRAZED NEGRO.

Patrolman George W. Pugmire was bitten in the cheek Friday afternoon by a drunken negro named Owen White, whom he had arrested on South First avenue and was taking to jail.

A whole mouthful of flesh was bit out and the negro was taking a second bite in the same cheek, when help arrived in the person of Chief of Police Meyers, who clubbed the crazed negro into submission. In all probability Officer Pugmire will be disfigured for life. Dr. O. B. Steely attended the injured man at his office.

The negro was adjudged insane Saturday before Probate Judge Johnston, and was taken to the asylum at Blackfoot.

REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

The Republicans of Pocatello at a meeting held last evening in the Commercial club rooms at the Y. M. C. A. nominated the following ticket for the coming city election next month:

For mayor, D. W. Church; for city clerk, S. F. Molinelli; police judge, Alfred Moyes; treasurer, Mrs. Charles A. Bryan; engineer, W. A. Samms.

Aldermen: First ward, William Bohlschied and J. F. Dodson; Second ward, J. J. Williams and Samuel G. Garbett; Third ward, Harry A. Peterson and Carl A. Valentine; Fourth ward, H. K. Higson and W. W. McCarty.

CREAMERY PLANT OPENS.

The Pocatello branch of the Jensen Creamery company, having a capacity of 10,000 pounds of butter per day, was formally started last Tuesday by Mr. W. P. Jensen, who pressed the button, that started the plant, which is run by electricity furnished from American Falls.

With additional machinery the capacity can be increased to 30,000 pounds of butter per day. The milk and cream used for the plant is purchased within a radius of 200 miles of Pocatello, direct from the farmers. Mr. B. B. Corliss is general manager.

H. H. Keener, the erecting foreman in charge, is making a test run of the plant this week, and so far the results are very satisfactory.

Ludwig Larsen, an expert cheese maker of Christiania, Norway, is acting in the capacity of milk inspector.

BANCROFT BANQUETS THE RELIEF SOCIETY

BANCROFT, March 18.—The anniversary of the Relief society was very fittingly observed in this ward last evening. There were upwards of 125 present at a bounteous repast in the meetinghouse at 7:30 o'clock. The opening ceremonies consisted of invocation and the entire gathering joining in singing the hymn "We Thank Thee, O God, For a Prophet."

The first number on the program after supper was a very thorough and interesting sketch of the organization and development of Relief society work by Louisa Corbett, Pioneer Life in Bancroft, or "Squaw Creek," as it was known by the early settlers, was pictured in a realistic way by Alice Aston. Much laughter was evoked when she told how her gallant young husband made the first trip of their honeymoon with an ox team to Chesterfield, 12 miles away. The lover had said, with a twinkle in his eye, that the team was a little skittish and lively. The truth of the statement was revealed when six hours later the destination was reached, and the thirsty animals dashed into a slough from which it took two additional hours to extricate them.

Christina Johnson talked briefly on the mission of the Relief society teachers. A vocal duet was rendered by the Corbett sisters. Bishop George H. Fisher paid a glowing tribute to St. Patrick and read the impassioned speech, Robert Emmett's vindication. Many who love the little shamrock were present and expressed their appreciation. A comic recitation by J. F. Corbett concluded the program, when dancing was enjoyed for a while.

After a very brief but severe attack of pneumonia, John Thomas Kelley, who was foreman of the Bancroft Lime Co., died at Pebble, eight miles west of here, on the morning of the 21st. The deceased was the son of Charles and Emma Kelley of Brigham City, which was his birthplace and home for many years. He was 48 years old, being the oldest of a family of five boys and one girl, all of whom with the exception of one brother were with him when the end came. A heartbroken widow and five children—four boys and a girl, the youngest of whom is about eight years old, survive him. The remains were taken today to the old home at Brigham City for burial.

John Kelley was a quiet, unassuming man, industrious and a good citizen. He was well liked and respected in the community. He had splendid medical aid and nursing and everything that tender and loving hands could do was done, without avail.

A movement is now on foot with the Commercial club to have a great celebration in Blackfoot on July 3 and 4, in commemoration of the unfolding of the first American flag west of the Rockies. This event happened at Old Fort Hall on the Snake river on July 13, 1834. Blackfoot is the logical point at which such a celebration should take place. There will be many Epworth League members passing through Blackfoot to attend the convention at Seattle during the fair, and the plan is to have them stop off and join in with Blackfoot.

Tuesday evening the telephone girls entertained their friends at a dancing party in Progress hall. The hall was artistically decorated, giving the appearance of a telephone exchange.

R. N. West has been nominated as mayor on the Citizens' Independent ticket in opposition to Judge Molden of the Citizen's Progressive ticket.

A new orchestra has been organized under the leadership of Will Kinney. Some of Blackfoot's best musicians are members.

STABBING AFFRAY IN BURLEY STORE

Special Correspondence.

BURLEY, March 25.—A serious stabbing affray took place last Thursday morning in Taylor & Sons store and as a result Frank Fredericks lies in a serious condition at the Overland lodging house with two wounds in his abdomen one of which penetrated the walls of the stomach. The cutting was done by O. B. Carroll, who was in the store at the time while Fredericks was in purchasing some bread for his lunch counter which he conducts at the rear of the Palace saloon. Some little feeling had existed between the two men over a meal that Corroll had obtained at the lunch counter. Some words had pased between the men when Carroll without a moment's warning plunged his pocket knife into Mr. Frederick's abodmen. The injured man was taken to the Overland house where Dr. Fremstead was called and attended to his injuries. Frederick has a ranch south of town where he resides with his wife and three children.

Carroll is an old grey-haired man unmarried and lives on a ranch south of Burley. He was arrested and taken before the justice of the peace and held in $5,000 bonds, which he could not furnish, so was given in custody of the sheriff who took him to Albion to wait the outcome of Frederick's injuries.

At a meeting of the business men of Burley, held last Saturday, the Commercial club was re-organized with L. W. Robbins president, W. C. Dickey first vice president, T. E. Anderson second vice president, W. D. Kenyon and D. M. Rohrbough secretary. The governing board consists of S. F. Scott, S. D. Burton, H. E. Grothe, W. T. Jack, G. W. Stedman, W. C. Dickey and T. E. Anderson. By unanimous vote it was decided that all settlers on the south side project are eligible to membership.

Heber Austin, a representative of the Utah-Idaho Sugar company, met with a large representation of the settlers last Saturday and addressed them in regard to the method of cultivating and caring for sugar beets and while he did not promise that a factory would be built here he hinted that the company might become interested here if the settlers would do their part. After some discussion it was decided by a large number of the settlers under the first lift be encouraged to plant a few acres as an experiment. Several have promised to do so. A large acreage was also donated to the company for its use.

William E. Wells of Portland, Or., a representative of the Harriman system of the passenger department met with the officers of the Commercial club Wednesday whereby a plan was adopted to advertise Burley and this section. About $1,000 was donated for this purpose. The advertisement will be put on folders of the Oregon Short Line.

TWO MONTPELIER MEN KILLED IN WRECK

Special Correspondence.

MONTPELIER, March 25.—At a meeting of the Latter-day Saints of Montpelier, the 14th inst., the ward was divided, with Henry H. Hoff as bishop and Christoffer F. Burton as his first and Thor S. Nielsen as second counselors of the Second ward. The ward organization was practically made complete, and with an efficient corps of officers in each of the auxiliary organizations. Arrangements are being made for the use of the Relief society hall in which to meet until a wardhouse can be erected.

Yesterday morning the 24th, in the railroad wreck which occurred between here and Granger, Wyoming, two citizens of this place lost their lives—P. J. Layng, the engineer, and George Pearson, a brakeman. The bodies were brought in on the afternoon passenger train. The wreck was caused by the engineer's inability to see the danger signals, warning them to stop prior to crossing the derail. The conductor and rear brakeman assert that it was storming violently and was very dark making it almost impossible to see the warning signals. The engine left the track, turning completely over killing the afore mentioned employes.

Engineer Layng was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife and seven children. Brakeman Pearson was a young man about 21 years of age and unmarried. He leaves a widowed mother and two brothers and two sisters. The heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved.

There is considerable sickness throughout the town, the smallpox having gained a considerable foothold here. It is such a mild form that many do not even regard it as being of sufficient importance to remain indoors let alone call in the physician. The result is that in several instances afflicted patients have been upon the streets and in public places after being completely broken out with the disease. The doctors are trying to again get the disease under control.

Some of the leading politicians have deemed it best to put party tickets in the field for the coming city election. The Democrats and Republicans each have a ticket asking the suffrage of the citizens on April 6, but unfortunately each ticket is headed by a man who is known to be in sympathy with the saloon element, to the utter dislike of the better element and those opposed to the liquor traffic.

RELIEF SOCIETY DAY CELEBRATED AT EGIN

Special Correspondence.

EGIN March 18.—The people of Egin ward had usual social gathering yesterday under the auspicious of the Relief society of the ward. It was a three fold affair consisting of the annual celebration of the Sixty-seventh anniversary of the organization of the Relief society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints the welcome home of one of the Egin sons, George F. Rawson, who had returned two days before, from a three and a half years mission to New Zealand, and also a celebration in honor of St Patrick. The invitation was generaly irrespectiveof creed, and there was a very satisfactory attendance.

A splendid program rendered consisting of songs, speeches, recitations, and toasts, with a bountiful repast for which the ladies of this land can hardly be surpassed. Thanks were returned, by Elder Rawson in the Maori language. Elder Rawson also gave a splendid speech and a song in the Maori tongue.

Everybody enjoyed thimselves and it was a time to be long remembered. The day was fine. Spring has come apparently and the farmers are busy getting ready for spring work.

RIGBY STAKE HOLDS QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Special Correspondence.

RIGBY, March 25. On Saturday and Sunday, March 20 and 21, conference of Rigby stake was held in Peck's opera hall. The attendance was good commencing with about 300 souls on Saturday morning and reaching near 700 Sunday afternoon. Elder H. J. Grant, of the apostles' quorum, was at all the meetings, and Prest S. B. Young was present on Sunday.

Elder E. L. Marler is called on a mission to the central states and expects to leave here on Saturday evening. A farewell reception was tendered him on Tuesday evening at which a pleasant time was held and about $40 contributed to help him. The seventies also gave a party yesterday evening and about $45 was netted in behalf of the missionary. He has been an active worker in the presidency of the One Hundred and Thirteenth quorum of seventy, and while all wish him God speed, he will be greatly missed.

Mrs. M. J. Hammond who is at the hospital at Logan, was operated upon on Monday last and word came on Tuesday that she was in a critical condition.

Among the recent births in Rigby are a daughter to Wm. E. Rhodes and wife on the 19th, a daughter to Wm. J. Chandler and wife on the 20th and a son to Wm. H. Jones and wife on the 21st.

A Commercial club was organized on Tuesday evening the 23rd. F. P. Roberts, president; H. A. Schweitzer, vice president, and S. B. Gouch, secretary. Four other leading citizens were elected directors.

The Rigby Furniture Co., is pushing the erection of its new building, 80x54 feet, the walls will soon be completed.

Material is being put on the ground for new buildings for the Rigby Hardware Co., and the Anderson Bros. Bank of Rigby.
