THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Now Will Can Fish—Janitor William Graham of the Lafayette school resigns Friday and the teachers have presented him with a fishing outfit, as a token of their appreciation.

Remembered by Children—The Junior choir children of St. Mary's cathedral celebrated the twenty-third anniversary of Bishop Scanlan's consecration Wednesday, by presenting him with a large bouquet of carnations.

"Foot Social"—The C. E. society of the Westminster Presbyterian church will hold a "Foot Social" at the new church building, corner Fifth South and First West, Friday night at 8:15. A good time is promised to all attending.

File on State Waters—Ernest Anderson and Wayne Johnson of Price filed application with the state engineer for 10 second feet of water from Soldier creek to irrigate 640 acres of land. John M. Griffiths of Minersville asks for 100 second feet from a spring, for irrigating.

Fire in Anderson Barn—Fire starting in the barn of S. W. Anderson, 824 Fourth avenue last night, damaged the building to the extent of $75, and the contents to the amount of $25 before it was extinguished by the fire department. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Thoughts of Home—Nearly 60 bland and smiling scions of the Old Sod, traveling men, tourists and others, held an impromptu Irish jollification Wednesday night, the occasion being "Thoughts of Home," suggested by the flying of an Irish flag from the Kearns building on Main street.

But Took Their Time—Fred Douglas Watkins and Beulah McNeill, both colored, took out a license to marry July 20, 1908. After thinking the matter over for two years, they concluded they really intended to share their joys and sorrows, and were unostentatiously united June 20, 1910.

Young Woman Their Victim—Breaking into the residence of B. Shurtliff, 134 east Fifth South street, burglars last night optained jewelry belonging to Miss Edith Bryant to the value of $150. Motorcycle Patrolman Dan Grundvig was detailed on the case, but was unable to obtain a clue to the thieves.

Funeral of John Haggerty—The funeral services of John Haggerty were held Wednesday afternoon from St. Mary's cathedral, with interment in Mt. Calvary cemetery. The deceased came here two weeks ago from Montpelier to visit with his daughter, Mrs. C. N. Petersen, 208 west Second South street, and died Tuesday from pneumonia, aged 69.

Robbed on Resort Train—John Sutton, residing near Mt. Olivet, reported to the police last night that he had been the victim of light fingered gentry while returning from Saltair, and had lost $10 in cash. He thought his pocket had been picked while he was leaving the train at the Saltair depot, and remembered having been jostled about by a group of three or four men.

Inspect Davis County Road—Gov. William Spry, Caleb Tanner, state engineer, and R. R. Lyman, chairman of the state road commission, and others went over the roads of Davis county yesterday, examining especially the stretch at the north end of the county three miles long over "the sand ridge" built at a cost of $1,000 per mile. Much satisfaction was expressed as the road now is one of the finest in the state instead of the poorest.

No Autos in City Creek—At the present time automobiles are not permitted in City creek canyon on account of the narrowness of the road and the danger that would result; and it looks as if the resolution that was introduced in the city council two weeks ago asking that they be permitted to go up the canyon as far as the meeting of the roads will fail for there are few members of the council that can see any advantage to be derived from such a freedom.

Harris Wins Prize—The Breeden prize, consisting of a polished mahogany case containing a draftsman's outfit, annually awarded to the best man in the Y. M. C. A. drafting class, was awarded Wednesday evening to Courtenay B. Harris. Honorable mention was given to T. H. Hays and J. M. Grier. This year's class, under the direction of Harlow M. Kimball, has been one of the best in point of enrollment and general efficiency of work in the history of the association.

ALFRED BEST, TENOR, REGAINS HIS VOICE

Well Known Utah Singer Back in Berlin—Medical Experts Say Has Not Chronic Bronchitis.

In a letter receiver today by Prof. J. J. McClellan, the gratifying news comes that Alfred Best, who recently went to the famous Salzbrunn baths in an endeavor to be cured of what eminent physicians thought to be a serious condition of chronic bronchitis, has returned to Berlin to his musical work, greatly benefited and assured by the Salzbrunn medical experts that he has not the ban of chronic bronchitis beclouding his musical career.

Mr. McClellan, with many others of Mr. Best's friends were very much relieved and pleased to get the news, as it means that now it is only a matter of time until Alfred Best will make good, in fact he has already done so, being most thoroughly advertised by the Norbert Salter Musical agency, a leading one of Europe.

Mr. Best adds in his letter that he will shortly appear in Antwerp and Brussels with big orchestra and that the future looms up as bright now as it was discouraging a month ago.

DEATH OF HANS C. HANSEN.

Hard Struggle for Life Against Heavy Odds Ended This Morning.

After a hard struggle for two weeks against a complication of diseases, Hans Chris Hansen, a local architect, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole C. Hansen, died at the home of his parents, 232 G street, at 3:20 o'clock this morning. Death was due to pericarditis and pleurisy.

Early in the month he returned from a business trip to Idaho. At that time he complained of having a sore throat and some pain in his chest. Believing that it was only a slight ailment, he endeavored to continue at his business. A week ago Sunday he was compelled to take to his bed, which he was never again able to leave. The rheumatism of the heart developed alarmingly last Friday night, and his life was despaired of.

Saturday morning he seemed to revive and for a time it was believed he would recover. Yesterday his friends were most hopeful, but the pleurisy which had been under control broke out on the other side of the pleural cavity. He continued to grow worse during the night. On account of the high fever he was in a semi-conscious condition during most of his illness.

Mr. Hansen was born March 20, 1884, at Drammen, Norway, and on the conversion of his father and mother in the Mormon Church, was brought to Utah when but six months old. He has always made his home here, arriving in this state Nov. 9, 1884.

In his school boy days he was one of the leaders in athletics in the Lowell school, from which he graduated. During the years he spent in the Salt Lake high school he was captain of the football team, a track man of some note and also one of the members of the baseball team.

In 1907 Mr. Hansen completed a two years' course in architecture in the Armour institute of technology, and shortly after returned home to start in his chosen profession. For a time he was connected with the engineering department of the Oregon Short Line.

At the time of his death Mr. Hansen had an office at 429 Judge building, and was also associated with D. C. McIntyre in the real estate and townsite business. He was also secretary of the Western Townsite company, owning property at Contact, Nev. His business had just reached a most promising stage, and on account of his popularity, large acquaintance and genial manner, his future looked extremely bright.

Funeral services will probably be held Saturday afternoon at the family residence, 232 G street. Those who will probably act as pallbearers are Earl McIntyre, Arthur Lewis, William F. Rosenberg, Charles Rieger, Creighton Brown and Mark G. Groesbeck. Interment will take place in the city cemetery.

Mr. Hansen was unmarried, but some time before his death was preparing to announce his engagement to a young woman from Chicago. He had made arrangements for his marriage to Miss Sadie Landsberg in September.

Besides a father and mother, Mr. Hansen leaves five sisters and a brother, as follows: Mrs. Louis R. Wells, Mrs. Joseph Coulam, Mrs. George H. Slocum, Mrs. Percy M. Cropper, Miss Agnes Hansen and Charles Hansen.
