Drs. P. H. CARDWELL & E. G. MILES

HAVE THIS DAY EFFECTED AN arrangement by which they will be able in the future to supply all persons who may desire, from a single to a full set of teeth, on the

VULCANIZED RUBBER BASE.

Being the latest improvement in our profession, and having been sufficiently tested to warrant its utility, we take pleasure in recommending it as being far preferable in many respects to any other base heretofore used. It can be used in many instances where all other materials fail. No one need, therefore, despair. Call on us, give us your work and we will demonstrate these facts.

Remember that a full set of teeth on this method cost only half what they would on gold, and yet preferable in all respects.

Respectfully, P. H. CARDWELL, E. G. MILES.

SALES.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH A DECREE of the Chancery Court at Knoxville, made at the January term, 1865, in the case of D. S. Barnes & Co. vs. John Jackson, I will sell at the Court House door in Knoxville on Monday, the 27th day of March, 1865, the house and lot in Knoxville, belonging to respondent, on the east side of Prince street, adjoining the property of John S. Van Gieder and the house and lot now occupied by G. W. McClanahan, containing one-fourth of an acre more or less, on a credit of six months without the right of redemption, taking bond, bearing interest, with approved security and retaining a lien till paid.

IN OBEDIENCE TO A DECREE OF said Court, made at its January term, 1865, in the case of Wilkins & Freeze, Adm'rs, &c., vs Ninian P. Wallace, I will sell at the Court House door in Knoxville on Monday, the 27th day of March next, so much of the land of respondent, lying in the 10th civil district of Knox county, adjoining the lands of H. Dodin, Wayne Wallace and others, as will be necessary to pay the decree in favor of complainants and costs of the cause, (about $140,) on a credit of 6 months, without the right to redeem, taking bond, bearing interest, with approved security, and retaining a lien till paid.

feb15 D. A. DEADERICK, C. & M.

IN OBEDIENCE TO A DECREE MADE at the October term, 1864, of said Court, in the case of Nathaniel Byrd vs. James and Robert W. Hardin, I will sell on the premises, on Saturday, the 25th day of March, 1865, so much of the tracts of land of 420 acres, owned by said James Hardin, lying in the 9th civil district of Knox county, on which the family of said Hardin now lives, as will be sufficient to pay the decree in gold rendered in this case, for $254 63 and costs of the cause. The sale will be made on a credit of six months, without the equity of redemption, taking bond, bearing interest, with approved security, and retaining a lien till paid.

UNIVERSAL FREEDOM!

THIS "CRUEL CIVIL WAR" IS ALMOST over—the rebellion is nearly down—Charleston is in the hands of that greatest of Military Chieftains, GENERAL SHERMAN, and all the world, and "the rest of mankind," has reached the rational conclusion that South Carolina was, to say the least of it, "a little hasty" in her attempt to break up this great Government of ours. This, however, is a very small matter, compared with the fact that

If any has any doubt of this, give me a call, on Gay street, opposite the Custom House, at the sign of Barry & McDannel, and you shall see nothing by the experiment.

EWING AND JEFFERSON COLLEGE.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES TAKE GREAT pleasure in announcing to the public that Ewing and Jefferson College will open its spring and summer session on the first Monday of March, under the Presidency and Professorship of John W. Boyd, A. M. Owing to influences introduced by the present war, the operations of the College have been suspended for some time. Boarding facilities, and other considerations, induce the Board of Trustees to open the school for the present at Concord, a very pleasant and healthful location, situated on the Railroad, midway between Knoxville and Loudon.

Boarding can be had in good families on the most favorable terms.

From the well-earned and well-established, as well as wide-spread reputation of this institution, won under the Presidency of John W. Boyd, its present Principal, the Board deem it only necessary to announce to the public that the College is open for the reception of students, in order to secure a liberal patronage.

Such other information as may be desirable will hereafter be given.

Young men, do you hear it?

Persons desiring special information in relation to boarding, &c., are referred to S. A. Rodgers, Attorey at Law, Knoxville, or J. W. Boyd, Concord.
