THE "KING BUSINESS."

It Promises to Be Very Bad Business in a Few Decades.

[New York World.]

What Artemus Ward called "the king business" does not promise to be thriving enough in twenty or thirty years from now to warrant the attention that is being given at present to the rearing and training of crown princes and other heirs-apparent.

A young lad has just been brutally torn from his mother in Germany in order that he may be fitted to succeed his scapegrace father as king of Servia. The youngster has no more right to rule over Servia than he has to be proclaimed mayor of London or governor of Ohio. He is simply a pawn of Austria played by that power to check the Russian scheme of aggrandizement. The people of Servia are no more considered in the matter than though they were so many sheep.

The infant "king of Spain" has been taken to the seacoast by his mother to finish his teething or tone up his "little insides," with as much fuss and ceremony as though he were destined to prolong a heaven-sent dynasty. And one of the younger English princes is being utilized for "public events" just to show that the reigning class expect to extend their line "to the crack of doom."

Unless the signs of the times fail, none of these royal kids or their successors will be in the "king business" at the end of another generation. The spirit of democracy is marching on.

Call For Republican Convention

BY RESOLUTION OF THE REPUBLICAN Territorial Central Committee at a meeting thereof held at North Yakima on March 7, 1888, its chairman was authorized to name the date of holding the Territorial Republican Convention to be held at Ellensburg. Pursuant thereto said Convention is hereby called to be held at Ellensburg on TUESDAY, THE 11TH DAY OF SEPTEMBER NEXT, AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Delegate to Congress, the nomination of all other Territorial elective officers and such other business as may be presented.

The Republican County Central Committees are requested to hold their primaries on Saturday, August the 25th, and their County Conventions on Saturday, September 1st.

The basis of representation made by the Territorial Central Committee entitles the counties to elect delegates as follows:

Counties.	Basis Vote.	Delegates
Adams	156	2
Asotin	251	4
Chehalis	604	7
Clallam	163	3
Clarke	782	9
Columbia	940	10
Cowlitz	431	5
Douglas	107	2
Franklin	57	1
Garfield	693	8

Jefferson	537	7
King	1,748	20
Kitsap	327	4
Kittitas	567	7
Klickitat	997	11
Lewis	709	9
Lincoln	696	8
Mason	158	3
Okanogan	7	1
Pacific	296	4
Pierce	1,231	17
San Juan	225	3
Skagit	574	8
Skamania	19	1
Snohomish	549	6
Spokane	1,898	20
Stevens	350	4
Thurston	566	7
Wahkiakum	134	2
Walla Walla	1,612	17
Whatcom	449	6
Whitman	2,006	21
Yakima	359	5
Whole number		245

The Central Committee at its meeting at North Yakima had no means of ascertaining the representation that the new county of Okanogan was entitled to, and therefore only gave it one delegate. Since this apportionment was made I am apparently credibly informed that the territory composing said new county cast about one-half of the entire vote of the old county of Stevens, and the County Central Committee of Okanogan County claims to be entitled to one-half the combined representation of the two counties, viz: five delegates. I therefore recommend that the counties of Okanogan and Stevens each elect three delegates, two to be entitled to one vote each and the third to half a vote in the Territorial Convention.

I also desire to call the attention of all County Committees and delegates to the Territorial Convention to the following resolution of the Central Committee adopted at North Yakima:

Resolved, That the Central Committee recommends that hereafter each county be represented by all the duly elected delegates whenever possible for them to attend; that in case of enforced absence of any delegate his proxy shall be given to a duly elected member of his delegation; and this committee further recommends that this resolution shall apply to County Conventions as well as to the Territorial Convention.

S. BAXTER, Chairman.

A. D. ATRIDGE, Secretary.
