The Golden Opportunity of the Season.

Fraser & Wilson

Second Av. and University St.

We place on sale many thousand dollars' worth of entirely new, seasonable and desirable merchandise in all departments at prices that offer shrewd buyers the greatest opportunity of the whole year. The uncertainty connected with tariff legislation has had a depressing effect on the dry goods jobbing business, and we have been able to secure many lots of goods at figures away below their real value.

We propose to wind up the season with a carnival of bargains: Commencing today and during balance of week we offer the following:

IN THE MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

50 cases Children's and Misses' and Ladies' White Leghorn Flats, purchased from a New York importer at half the early season price, and now offered at 50c each.

5 cases Misses' and Children's Leghorn Flats, very finest grade, early season's price $1.00 and $1.50, choice of the entire lot for 75c each.

5 cases Ladies' Rough and Ready Sailors, in black, white, brown and navy, only 10c each.

15 dozen Children's White Embroidered Muslin Hats and Caps, early season's price 50c and 75c each, now 25c each.

50 dozen Misses' Untrimmed Hats in all the latest novelty braids, new shapes, early season's price 50c and 75c, choice of the entire lot, 25c.

Bargains in New Wrappers.

5 dozen Wrappers made of Simpson's best percale, lined to the waist, hand and finished seams, trimmed yoke, extra full skirt, worth $1.50, for 75c each.

5 dozen new Percale Wrappers, beautiful summer styles, new foulard designs in heliotrope, pink and blue, fast colors. Yoke and sleeves trimmed with colored embroidery. The greatest snap we have ever offered, at 39c each.

5 dozen new Indigo Foulard Wrappers, entirely novel style, perfectly made and finished and a decided bargain at $1.25 each.

5 dozen new Organdy Wrappers, waist made with bolero effect, trimmed with narrow Valenciennes edging worth $2.50, for $1.25 each.

Waist Opportunities.

All season long the waist rush has continued and our business in this class of goods has been treble that of any former season. We have secured an immense new stock of fine waists at an enormous reduction from early season prices, and they go on sale today at these prices:

Ladies' Swiss Lappet, Lawn and Percale waists, in new and most desirable patterns, all bust sizes. Early selling price, $1.00 and $1.25 each, now at 75c each.

Ladies' fine Dimity and Organdy waists in beautiful sheer styles, entirely new prints made with double joint yoke back and detachable linen collars and cuffs. Early selling price, $2.25 and $2.50 each, now at $1.00 each.

Ladies' High Grade Sheer Organdy waists in exclusive styles, sold elsewhere at $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 each, here at $1.50 each.

A Lace Hurrah.

Was there ever such a season for lace before. Laces are everywhere and on everything.

50 pieces from a New York importer go on sale today at an immense reduction from early season's price. In this lot you will find Butter and Cream Oriental Laces 4, 5 and 8 inches wide, Irish Point Laces in Cream, Ecru and Butter up to 9 inches wide, Normandy Valenciennes in Butter and White up to 6 inches wide, also insertions in Irish Point and Normandy. Not one piece in the lot worth less than 20c yard, and most of them worth a great deal more. On sale today, the whole 500 pieces, at one price, 10c per yard.

Separate Dress Skirts.

We have been busy for the past ten days making up goods for this sale, and now offer 150 dress skirts in all wool and part wool materials in shepherd checks, in boucle effects in black figured mohair styles, rustle lined throughout, velveteen bound, splendidly made and draped, the greatest bargain we have ever sold, choice of the entire lot $1.98 each.

A Corset Opportunity.

Special today, and all week 50 dozen Women's Corsets, in fast black satine or drab jean, made extra long with six hooks, or medium length with five-hook front. A splendid article and very special value at 50c pair.

Warner's Corsets, in fast black, boned with coraline and rust proof, perfect shape, styles to suit all figures, special today at 75c pair.

Thomson's Glove Fitting Corsets in black or drab, 4, 5 and 6 hooks. Styles to suit any figure, short, medium, medium long and extra long at $1.00 pair.

R. & G. Corsets in all qualities and all styles, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 pair.

Jackson's Favorite Waists in black and drab, any size up to 36, $1.00 pair.

If you have trouble with your corsets let us try to suit you once, and once a customer for corsets here, generally means always a customer for corsets.

Ox-Blood Hosiery.

A new shipment of this fashionable and desirable shade just received, and all sizes for misses and ladies now in stock.

Misses' Oxblood Hose, fine 40-gauge cotton Hermsdorf dye, all sizes from 5 to 8½, spliced heels and toes, 25c pair.

Ladies' Oxblood Hose, extra fine quality, spliced soles, heels and toes, splendid quality, 25c pair.

Club Bows and Ties.

Just received an immense assortment of this popular style of neckwear.

Ladies' Silk String Ties in Persian styles, 10c each.

Ladies' Silk and Satin Club Bows in black and all solid colors, also in endless variety of new fancy styles, only 25c each.

A Climax in Dress Goods Selling.

SPECIAL TODAY.

Cream Shaker Flannel, 5c yard.

Standard Amoskeag Apron Ginghams, 5c yard.

THIS THE FIRST DAY.

Everything in Readiness for the Biggest Fourth of July Celebration Seattle Has Ever Had.

This is the opening day of the Fourth of July celebration. The great events so long anticipated will be realized. Even as this is being read there will be a sound of bursting bombs and rattling crackers, the significant accompaniments of a historic anniversary.

A wonderful transformation makes the city look like a new creation. Fairy hands seem to have been working in the night. Bands of Brownies have been bending their mischievous talents to the prosecution of a good task. Color is in the eye, no matter where it turns—the grand red, white and blue. The sound of hammer on nail is heard. Everybody everywhere seems to have but one idea in mind—a preparation for the greatest Fourth of July demonstration ever known in the Northwest, or, perhaps, on the Pacific coast.

One thing is certain: the pyrotechnic display will be the finest ever seen west of the Rocky mountains. The word of F. R. Squires, the expert sent here by the California Fire Works Company, is given for that.

Many strange faces were seen yesterday in the streets, in the stores and in the cars. They constituted the advance guard of the visiting army which will take possession of the city during the celebration. By boat and by train people have been coming, coming. They walked about the gaily decorated streets and talked of the approaching sports. In this they only copied the old residents, who stood about wondering if this were Seattle. A newness was upon everything, but the stamp of Puget sound, the same old, wet rain, came as a tag of identity. It fell intermittently on bunting and flags and arches. But the men on stepladders went on decorating just the same, and the men with no other assistance to offer prayed for good weather.

It would be useless to attempt a detailed description of the more important decorations. It is only an occasional building which does not show some patriotic emblem, and many of the downtown edifices are decorated in costly style. The heart of the city, Pioneer square, looks especially bright.

The arches on First and Second avenues will be completed by this morning and add incalculably to the appearance of the streets. They are very creditable structures for the haste in which their erection has been completed. Many a wondering glance was cast yesterday at the inscriptions "MDCCCLXXXXVII."—1897, and "MDCCLXXVI."—1776.

The Weather.

The weather is being noted with anxious eyes. It seems to be a standing arrangement for the weather man to drop water on Fourth of July celebrations. Though the people here are used to rain, the fireworks manufactured in a sunny Southern clime are probably not, and they may be expected to fizzle in a heavy shower. The prediction of the weather office is that only very light and occasional showers will occur today, with a prospect of clear days for Friday and Saturday. In that case there will be just enough rain to clear the air without in anyway interfering with the celebration.

Observer Salisbury's local forecast for the thirty-six hours ending this afternoon at 5 o'clock is "occasional light rain, stationary temperature." In his weather synopsis issued yesterday he said:

"Light rains have occurred in scattered and widely separated parts of the country without any apparent reason in the atmospheric conditions, except the irregular distribution of pressure. There is no storm areas on the map, nor is there any anti-cyclonic area; over the central plateau, however, the pressure is a trifle above 30 inches, and the weather is clear and fine. The heaviest rainfall in the last 12 hours has been along the Washington coast, which, with the barometer of 29.98 at Tatoosh and 29.89 at Fort Canby, gives the unwelcome indication of more rain for the Sound country. The lowest pressure on the map is at Calgary in the British provinces."

Seattle's Visitors.

Varying estimates are made as to the number of people who will be in the city by July 5. The most optimistic guessers place the number of probable visitors at about 30,000, while others declare that 10,000 will be a large number. It was said yesterday by officers of the steamer City of Kingston that 2,000 people would come to this side from Victoria alone. Naturally, the attractions planned at all other cities on the Sound in emulation of the Queen City, Seattle, will draw some of these people, but it is safe to assume that between 1,000 and 1,500 of these will find their way to Seattle. Vancouver and Nanaimo will also send large delegations for Friday and Saturday. From Tacoma a number of people will undoubtedly come in the wake of the battleship Oregon, which is expected here Saturday afternoon. Seattle may expect on Saturday a large part of the crowd which will gather there for the carnival of roses. It is known that almost all the coal miners in the surrounding country will be here. They were paid off last Monday and have been saving their money for the Seattle celebration. From other parts of the state it is impossible to estimate the numbers which will be drawn by the gigantic Seattle demonstration. The militia will be accompanied by their hosts of friends, which means several thousands from that source. All things considered, the outside attendance is liable to exceed expectations.

Editors Coming.

The press committee has received generous responses from the newspaper fraternity throughout the state, indicating that there will be a large attendance of the knights of the quill. The committee is arranging to make the visit of this particular delegation of exceptional interest and enjoyment. Their efforts will be largely augmented through courtesies extended by the "Carnival of Madrid," the bicycle meet, theaters, street car companies, etc. The firms of Schwabacher Bros. & Co., Fischer Bros., Webb & Co. and H. W. Hecht & Co. have taken the precaution to see that the editors smoke good cigars while here. Upon their arrival in the city the newspaper men will report at the office of the press committee, 117 Occidental block.

Police Will Enforce Order.

"Notice is hereby given that any persons throwing firecrackers out of windows or into crowds of people, or under or near bicycles, teams or vehicles, will be promptly arrested and prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

"The explosion of fireworks near any mill, warehouse or factory is forbidden.

"The use of fireworks or firecrackers has been entirely forbidden in the district south of King and west of Commercial streets.

"An ample force of regular and special officers will be on duty, and all violators of these orders will be promptly arrested.

"C. S. REED, Chief of Police.

"June 30, 1897."

When They Will Close.

"Notice is hereby given that all city offices will be closed during the afternoons of July 1 and 2 and during all of July 3, except in so far as their keeping open may be necessary for the transaction of business that cannot be transacted at other times.

"And the business men and citizens of Seattle generally are hereby requested, so far as may be possible to close their places of business and set apart the afternoons of July 1 and 2 and all of July 3, as holidays for themselves and their employes.

"Dated Seattle, June 30, 1897.

"W. D. WOOD, Mayor."

"All banks members of the Seattle Clearing House Association will close at 12 m. Friday, July 2, remaining closed Saturday, July 3. By order of Clearing House Committee.

"R. W. PETTIT, Manager."

Headquarters for Insurance Men.

Sherwood Gillespy, general agent of the Mutual Life company, has fitted up a room in the Mutual Life block on Pioneer place with every convenience for transient visitors to the city. Everything necessary for comfort, except for sleeping, has been provided for the temporary comfort of guests, including chairs, lavatories, etc., and all free of charge. Souvenirs of the great Fourth in Seattle will be given out to all visitors.

Brigade Rifle Competition.

The rifle range used by Company B at the end of the Grant street railway will be used for the competitive rifle shoot for the brigade medal.

Commanding officers of companies will hand the names of the men of their companies who will compete, not more than five in number, to Lieut.-Col. John Y. Terry, or to Lieut. Arthur E. Griffin, at as early a date as possible, and must also certify that the men whose names are certified are regularly enlisted members of their companies.

Pieces must not have a trigger pull of less than six pounds.

No two competitors will be permitted to shoot with the same arm.

The cars will leave every twenty minutes, beginning at 7 o'clock a. m., from the corner of Yesler way and South Third street.

The firing will begin promptly at 10 o'clock a. m. on Friday.

Cartridges loaded at United States arsenal will be furnished on the ground, and no others will be allowed.

The men who are to participate in the competitive shoot, but at the same time wish to enter the competitive drill, are required to report at Company B's drill range, at the end of the Grant street railway, immediately after drill while all the others not entering the competitive drill are required to report at the same place not later than 9:30 o'clock a. m.

JOHN Y. TERRY,
Inspector Rifle Practice.

The Calithumpians.

At 8 o'clock this morning there will be a sound of music in several parts of the city. Strange figures will appear in the streets as if by magic, all hurrying toward a common center, Pioneer place. Bands starting from First avenue and Madison street, Third avenue and Columbia street and First avenue south will march to the place, playing as they go and trailing in their rear the strange army, which is to open the celebration. It is not known how many fantastics will move in the line which leaves Pioneer place at 8:30 o'clock this morning, but assuredly the number will be large, probably between 200 and 300. The parade will be swelled by the coming of hobos, who have not announced their intentions. Surprises are to be expected in the make-ups of the plug-uglies, and there will be take-offs on several prominent people. Prizes for the most original make-up will be awarded by Judges Will H. Parry and A. J. Blethen. Grand Marshal Yellow Kid has issued the following general order:

"Headquarters of the Queen City Fantastics, Seattle, Wash., June 30, 1897.

"General Order No. 1.

"All persons, animals and vehicles desiring to participate in the grand parade tomorrow, Thursday, July 1, will assemble in Pioneer square at 8 o'clock a. m. sharp.

"The parade will move at 8:30, rain or shine.

"The line of march will be from Pioneer square, up First avenue to Pike street, thence to Fifth street, countermarch to Second avenue, down Second avenue to Yesler avenue, to Pioneer square, where parade will be dismissed.

"All aids should report to the marshal for instructions at Pioneer square at 8 a. m. He may be distinguished from the other hobos by being arrayed in the costume of the "YELLOW KID.

"Grand Marshal."

The Yacht Races.

Entries for the regatta came in fast yesterday, and before the list closes about thirty yachts will be entered. The yachts expected from Victoria, Vancouver, Port Townsend, Whatcom, Tacoma and Bellingham bay will arrive this morning.

There are already about twenty-five local yachts ready for the races, and between five and ten outsiders are expected. This regatta will unquestionably be the event of the year in yachting circles, as the best boats on the Sound will participate. The other water sports on the Sound this afternoon have been arranged to take place in places easily accessible for spectators. The ship's boat races will be from the Oregon Improvement buoy to the Schwabacher dock and back. The greasy pole will be suspended over the water in front of the Flyer dock, where the climbers can be seen by many people.

During the yacht races an exhibition will be given by the fireboat Snoqualmie.

The Fireworks.

The close of the day will witness a display of pyrotechnic art, gorgeous in all the flaming colors of the rainbow and rich in the myriad beauties of fire formation. No vision that the mind can conceive excels the reality of a carefully planned pyrotechnic display. Some of the single pieces to be shown tonight cost not less than $200. Their inflammable wonders will dazzle the eyes but a few moments, but while they last the spectacle will be incomparable.

The opinion of Expert Squires can certainly be relied upon, and he said yesterday to a member of the celebration committee: "Never has there been a pyrotechnic display on the Pacific coast which could compare with either of the exhibitions arranged for the Seattle celebration. All the latest ideas evolved by artists in the designing of fireworks will be shown, many being novelties never before attempted."

This grand fireworks display will take place tonight in North Seattle, on Harrison street, between Second and Fifth avenues north. The place can be reached by any car lines running north and south, especially the Ballard line, the Front street cable railway, the Second avenue electric lines and the Third street and suburban.

The Bicycle Races.

As the time for the bicycle races draws near, it becomes evident that there is going to be the greatest gathering of crack professionals the Pacific Northwest has ever seen. They are coming from Portland, Hoquiam, Tacoma, Victoria, Vancouver, B. C., Nanaimo, and Wellington, and, last, but not least, Seattle will have one or two representatives. Thirty or more of the fastest professionals meeting on the fastest track in this corner of the United States and each being specially desirous of carrying off the fat money purses, will have a tendency to produce the fastest racing ever seen in Seattle. To make matters more interesting, the professional races will be paced by a tandem team, which will be under instructions to make the gang hustle. This means that the mile open will be ridden under 1:20, perhaps under 1:14. It is so much of an all-star aggregation that no one can make predictions of value as to the winners in any events. Wim Morgan, Miller and Stayer, of Portland; the celebrated "Terrible Swede," of Hoquiam; Wayne Bartholomew, Jimmy Jones, the Shurick brothers, of Tacoma; C. E. Dow, of Seattle, and others who may be dark horses, the only thing that can be said with safety is that it is a mighty hot field, and the trial heats are apt to be as hotly contested as the finals.

The fat men's race, with Gen. E. M. Carr, Col. E. P. Ebben and City Comptroller Parry as contestants, will be worth seeing. Some people think Mr. Parry will win, but there are many ifs in the way and the race is a full half mile. It is doubtful which will prove the greater feature, the fat men's race or the exhibition ride of the two one-legged men, Tom Dupton and ex-County Clerk Puryea, of Whatcom. The leg that is missing on one is all right on the other, so they work in harmony, and according to talk, work fast. It will be a novel sight to see them.

Frank Coombs, Seattle's fast amateur, will attempt to break the track record for a quarter with flying start, 30 flat, and if he succeeds it will stamp him as one of the fastest men in the Northwest, either amateur or professional.

The races will take place at the Y. M. C. A. park Saturday afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the Queen City Good Roads Club, for the benefit of the Lake Washington path. Reserved seats can be had at Albert Hanson's store, on First avenue, between Cherry and Columbia streets, and as the demand is exceptionally large, it will be good policy on the part of those who desire a good location from which to view the races to secure their seats without delay.

Canadian Money Goes.

All the banks of the city have decided and agreed to accept at par during the week's Fourth of July celebration Canadian currency and coin. This agreement is the result of a request from citizens of Victoria, Vancouver, New Westminster and Nanaimo. The agreement was signed by the Seattle National, Boston National, Washington National, First National, National Bank of Commerce, Puget Sound National, People's Savings, Dexter Horton & Co. and the Scandinavian American banks.

Gigantic Women's Float.

The Women's Washington Co-operative Society will have a float in the grand parade on Saturday, and it is requested by the committee that all manufacturers of food products in the city and state should be represented on the float. Application for space can be made to the committee rooms in the Colman block Thursday at 10:30 a. m.

Attention, A. O. U. W.

All members are requested to meet at Columbia lodge hall, Colman building, Saturday at 10 a. m. to participate in the parade, George R. Davis, grand marshal.

Illuminated Bicycle Parade.

All wheelmen are requested to illuminate and decorate their wheels and report to C. H. Teaff at 8:30 p. m. Friday evening at the corner of First avenue south and Washington street, to be assigned places in the parade. Clubs and parties of wheelmen will be grouped, if so desired.

The parade will begin at 9 o'clock sharp. The aides will be J. S. Allen, D. G. Inverarity, George F. Meacham, F. E. Dingley, Gen. E. M. Carr and R. Schoenfeld. It is desired that all wheelmen shall be prompt.

A large number of prizes are offered by the committee, and also by the different firms in the city for the best decorated and illuminated wheels, etc.

This is expected to be the largest illuminated parade ever given in the Northwest, and every wheelman is expected to do his part. By order of the committee.

Supt. of Streets Little and Supt. of Lights Youngs were directing the decorations and temporary constructions yesterday on Pioneer place. Cinders were thrown on Yesler way and First avenue south, to prepare for the bicycle parade. The grass plot in the center of Pioneer place will be inclosed by a fence, which will keep the crowds from trampling down the treasured patch of green.

The Hose Contest.

The date of the contest between the local and visiting hose companies has been changed from Saturday to 1:30 p. m. Friday. Teams from Nanaimo and Victoria will participate.

Militia From Yakima.

The Seattle battalion, N. G. W., will go to Tacoma to take part in the rose carnival parade, returning in time to parade here on Saturday. The military committee was notified yesterday of the intended coming of Troop A from North Yakima. In the troop are two officers and thirty-five men.

No official word of the time when the United States gunboat Adams and the British gunboat White Swan will arrive has been received. Beside these two, another British warship is expected, and the Oregon will probably be here Saturday afternoon.

Veterans Scent Battle.

A rousing meeting of the G. A. R. was held last night in G. A. R. hall by the veterans intending to take part in Saturday's sham battle. The old boys had fire in their eyes as they discussed plans for the defense of the fort. Committees were appointed from both the Miller and Stevens posts to confer as to preparations for the battle as follows:

From Miller Post—C. W. P. Osgood, D. H. Legate and E. Cookson.

From Stevens Post—William Fox, T. W. Warner and R. E. Pickerell.

Another meeting is called for tonight at 8 o'clock, when a commander will be chosen, a firing squad arranged and seventy-five stands of arms distributed. Beside the veterans, the fort under command of Gen. J. B. Metcalfe will be defended by two companies of infantry and sixteen cannoniers.

The programme for the three days' celebration will be found on page 6.

Christian Endeavor Conventions.

The Northern Pacific and Southern Pacific railways have been designated as the OFFICIAL ROUTE for the Christian Endeavorers attending the International Convention at San Francisco, Cal., July 9th to 12th. Special train will leave Tacoma on July 8th, at 6 p. m. Rate of fare will be $20.00 for the round trip from either Seattle or Tacoma. Special rates for sleeping cars have been made. All parties who contemplate going should notify the undersigned at once, so that space in this special train may be reserved for them. Limit of tickets July 11th, with privilege of extension to July 31st, on payment of $1 additional in San Francisco. There will be a large number from Eastern Washington and other points to join this special train excursion, therefore send in your names at once that you may be listed as one of the party. Those wishing to attend the State Convention at Tacoma will be given one fare for the round trip over all lines, and will be given stop-over at Tacoma to attend the State Convention and limit enough to return after attending the San Francisco Convention. H. C. Ewing, State President, Y. P. S. C. E. John P. Hartman, Jr., Chairman Transportation Committee.
