The M. D. Pease Millinery Show a Triumph.

Yesterday scores of Seattle's society leaders visited the M. D. Pease millinery opening at 1320 Second avenue. The show was remarkable for an extensiveness and beauty seldom seen this side of Chicago, and in addition to the display of fall hats the first shipment of coats, costumes, waists and petticoats was most enthusiastically commented on.

The store is rapidly becoming a rendezvous for "society" on account of its cosiness and general air of hospitality. The show is continued during next week. ***
