Popular Sovereignty, in the form of Slavery or Abolitionism, and thereon lost in the democratic ranks, where political demagogues in concession and corruption hold sway, Improvement in Literature, and Democracy is constantly and by honest and well informed minds, Democracy, Democracy, Democracy, is the Democratic party, and is to blame for the political degeneration of the day. That party has nominated every Abolition candidate for President, so far as the country, and with the exception of Hall, and a certain of lying that would make the Devil blush, charged Abolitionism on every candidate who can for the of Clay in the Whigs, from Hannibal down to Douglas.

This paper will unanimously, perseveringly, and boldly fight both Democracy and Republicanism, and insist on the punishment of offenders in HELL, as alone adequate to the deserts of the villainous leaders of both these parties!

W. G. BROWNLOW,
Editor Whig.
