NEW IMPROVEMENTS.

WE MOST RESPECTFULLY CALL the attention of Farmers, Millers and others to our Improved Wheat Fan (patented April 20th, 1858), for cleaning all kinds of Grain and Seed, which we are manufacturing at our shops in Louisville. We have a first rate lot of materials, good workmen, and worked out and a number of Fans ready to deliver for the inspection of intending purchasers. We have spared no pains or expense in the construction of these fans, and are confident they will give satisfaction in every respect. We have made many valuable improvements in the fans this season, and have secured them by Letters Patent. We would also call the attention of Millers to our newly improved Fan Mills, and Rice Mill, patented Sept. 6th, 1859. Our Fan Mills are now in use in many of the best Mills in the country, and we have received from the proprietors of the most extensive Mills in the country, the highest testimonials of their value
