Red Sulphur Springs.

MONROE COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THIS OLD and celebrated watering place, respectfully invite the public that, in order to afford every facility for the easy ingress and egress of the visitors, they have determined to keep their Road open throughout the entire year, and to run a daily stage during the month of May to the first of November. From the 1st of May to the first week after the 10th of June the charges for Board will be $1 25 per day. From the 10th of June until the 17th of September the charges will be the same as heretofore, viz: from that last date until the close of the season, $1 50 per day.

A long experience in, and acquaintance with the Disease which the Waters of this place are so potent of this year more than probable, for this and other reasons that they usually called Indian Summer, isn't generally appearing to the 20th November. The best period is subject to the usual changes of Spring weather, but it requires only ordinary prudence to protect against injury to that the season, which is to recommend to the invalid to visit the advantages of the water to early as possible. As regards the Site and accommodations at this place, we cannot claim but efforts to make them comfortable to the 1 th and number of our guests. They shall be treated with attention courtesy and kindness, and abundantly supplied with all the good things these mountains afford.

As to extended remarks on the peculiar properties of the water, would be somewhat to an advertisement; we must, therefore, confine ourselves to a mere enumeration of the diseases for the cure of which this water is celebrated. Among the various for details to the several Works on the Virginia Springs, and more especially to a Pamphlet by Dr. Wm. Burke, M.D., who for thirty years has been intimately acquainted with this water and its properties, to various diseases. A copy of this pamphlet will be sent free of charge by the Proprietors on application.

The diseases for relief of which this water is most remarkable, chronic pleurisy, laryngitis, bronchitis; functional diseases of the heart, hypertrophy of the heart; nervous disorders, irritability of the nervous system, sleeplessness, hysteria, all the kidneys and bladder affections, including affection of the liver, constipation, menorrhagia, chronic syphilitic, chronic gutt in bronchitis, scrofula, chronic eruptions of the skin.

The public will do well to remember that this is the Red Sulphur Springs of the western counties have never established their identity of composition, yet their claim to public confidence seems to it by an experience of forty years.

The Depot for this place is on the Virginia & Tennessee Road, Newbern (now Dublin), whence hotel or private conveyance will be furnished bi-weekly by daylight. Distance of 20 miles over a fine road, and through most picturesque and beautiful scenery. From the 1st of July to the 1st of September there will be a daily line; and after the 1st of September again a tri-weekly, while one line will remain. This is the shortest, most direct, and best route to the White Sulphur, whether the stages will be followed, via Salt Sulphur, making their right stand at Red Sulphur. There will be omnibus and transfer company at the stages to and from the White and Salt Sulphur, to the Sweet and Red Sweet Springs. Daily mails arrive from North to South.
