Those wishing to keep up with the news, and the progress of a civil War, precipitated upon the country by Southern Disunionists, because of the election of Lincoln, would do well to subscribe for our Weekly. It is now plain to be seen that South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, and other Cotton States are going out of the Union. It is too serious a matter for mirth, and we must all look the history of Disunion in the face. This machine of government, so delicate and complex in its structure, and which cost its great Architects so much labor and thought, so much of the spirit of concession and compromise, and our fathers so much of blood and treasure, is now to be broken to pieces, to gratify a set of corrupt, ambitious, and disappointed demagogues, who feel that they can never preside over these United States, and hence they seek to build up one or more contemptible Southern Confederacies, and to place themselves at the head of them. The fiddling and dancing of Nero, while Rome was enveloped in flames, was not more brutal, foolish, stupid and wicked, than is the conduct of these country-destroying, God-defying, and Hell-deserving TRAITORS to their country, who write and talk this flippantly of the most momentous event that the human mind can conceive!

Fighting is to be done, and that at no distant day, and the battle ground is to be along the line of the border States of Maryland, Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Missouri, which States have all declared for the Union. The vile and wicked leaders who have precipitated the condition, will do none of the fighting, but will manage to hold civil and military offices, with large salaries, to pay which, money will be wrung from the masses by a system of direct taxes. And these common people will themselves have to shoulder their bayonets and muskets, and do the fighting. Let those who voted the Disunion ticket, fight for their mad schemes; the Union men, if fight they must, will fight on the side of the General Government, and for the "Union, the Constitution, and the Enforcement of the Laws."

If Lincoln should attempt to inaugurate aggressive and unconstitutional measures, and Congress sanction or adopt these measures, whether in reference to slavery or any other subject, then, in my judgment, we of the South should await the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. And if the President, the Congress, and the Supreme Court—the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments of the Government, sanction any such iniquitous measures, and unite in attempts to carry them out, I advocate resistance at all hazards, and to the last extremity—and I would then join the South in a war of extermination!

Poor old Buchanan, who built up the Republican party, and who caused the nomination and election of Lincoln to the Presidency, by the race he enabled him to make against Douglas, in Illinois, will now favor the secessionists, and hence, what they do towards inaugurating their scheme of Disunion, they will lately do in advance of Lincoln's inauguration into office. What is now wanted, and ought to come into immediate use, is a good article of Hemp, manufactured in the good old Union State of Kentucky, and with this, let every avowed Disunionist be hung by the United States Authorities! I have said this much in my Prospectus, to indicate where I will be in the coming struggle. I want no man to subscribe for this paper under a misapprehension of the course its Editor will pursue. He will be on the side of his country, and against its enemies.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE ABBREVIATION OF LANGUAGE.—There is a growing tendency in this age to appropriate the most expressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Cephalic, which is from the Greek, signifying "the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with the Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many other words, which, then as foreign words, has been worn away by common usage until they seem "native and to the manor born."

Godly Healthed.

HE 'ed 'a certain 'eadache this afternoon, hand I slipped into the Apothecaries hand says 'E to the man, "Can you hease me of 'is 'eadache?" "Has it 'ached 'ard," says 'e. "Horrendiagly," says 'e, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand says 'ee 'ence it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realised I 'ad 'ad an 'eadache.

Dyspepsia is the fruitful sign by which nature shows many destitute whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a religious blessing inspire notice of diseases which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied, and its indications should never be neglected. Headache may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all fevrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathetic of diseases of the stomach constituting also Amaurosis, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of uterus, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Disease of the heart are very frequently attended with Headache; Angina and palpitations are the affections which frequently complain headache. Idiopathic headaches also very commonly, usually distinguished by the causes becoming functional, sometimes owing, or suddenly in a state of apparently good health, and penetrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or nervous of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes preceding vomiting; under this form may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of all the various forms of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes and by its short power eradicating the disease of which Headache is the conveying index.

DEBILITY.—Mission wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Pills, as a bottle of Prepared Pills—but I'm thinking she's not just it neither; but perhaps you'll be after knowing what it is. To my sister's sigh dead and gone with Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as relieved her before.

Druggist.—You mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've said it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills, and don't be all day about it either.

Constipation or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as this trouble. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits, it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which constipation is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of the same nature, while a long train of frightful diseases, such as Malignant Fevers, Abscesses, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, find indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the disease mental originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the case is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as they timely use will repel the insidious approaches of disease and destroy the dangerous foe in its incipient life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Dear Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent saved me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send me a box that I can have them handy.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggists. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

TWENTY MILLIONS OF BOTTLES GONE.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glass, and it is estimated that such bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, time making, an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars claimed from the hand of his valuable invention. Having made his fifty dollars a beneficial word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

Mr. Over exertion, and the mental care and anxiety incident to business or study, are among the authentic causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of body and mind to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relieves the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

EAST WINDSOR ACADEMY.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

Mr. Do you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the frosted brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How joyfully would you wave for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use on occasion requires.

Mr. Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Bilious Headache, Costiveness and General Debility, are the most prominent symptoms of this disease, and all these are speedily relieved by using one of the Cephalic Pills. Give sufferings in carelessness, or sedentary habits, it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which constipation is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Rheumatism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of the same nature, while a long train of frightful diseases, such as Malignant Fevers, Abscesses, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, find indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented, and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail to relieve the Nervous and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels—removing Costiveness.

For Literary men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are invaluable as a Laxative improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a great amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any exchange of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.
