Those wishing to keep up with the news, and the progress of a novel War, precipitated upon the country by Southern Disunionists, because of the election of Lincoln, would do well to subscribe for our Whig. It is now safe to be seen that South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, and other Cotton States are going out of the Union. It is too serious a matter for mirth, and we must all look the horror of Disunion in the face. This machine of government, so delicate and complex in its structure, and which cost its great Architects a much labor and thought, so much of the spirit of concession and compromise, and our fathers so much of blood and treasure, is now unknown to process, to gratify a set of corrupt, ambitious, and disappointed demagogues, who find that they can never preside over these United States, and hence they seek to build up one or more contemptible Southern Confederacies, and to place themselves at the head of them. The fiddling and dancing of Nero, while Rome was enveloped in flames, was not more brutal, hellish, stupid and wicked, than the conduct of these country-destroying, God-defying, and Hell-deserving TRAITORS to their country, who write and talk as flippantly of the most momentous crisis that the human mind can conceive!

Fighting is to be done, and that at no distant day, and the battle ground is to be along the line of the border States of Maryland, Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky and Missouri, and these States have all declared for the Union. The old and wicked leaders who have precipitated the revolution, will do none of the fighting, but will manage to hold civil and military offices, with large salaries, to pay which, many will be wrung from the masses by a price of direct taxes. And these common sons will themselves have to shoulder their muskets and knapsacks, and do the fighting. In time who voted the Disunion ticket, fight to their mad schemes; the Union men, if fight they must, will fight on the side of the Federal Government, and for the Union, the Constitution, and the Enforcement of the Laws.

If Lincoln should attempt to inaugurate aggressive and unconstitutional measures, and Congress sanction or adopt these measures, whether in reference to slavery or any other subject, then, in my judgment, we of the South should await the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. And if the President, the Congress, and the Supreme Court—the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments of the Government, sanction any unconstitutional measures, and unite in attempting to carry them out, I advocate resistance at all hazards, and to the last extremity—and I would then join the South in a war of extermination!

Poor old Buchanan, who built up the Republican party, and who caused the nomination and election of Lincoln to the Presidency, (the race he enabled him to make against Douglas in Illinois, will now favor the secession, and hence, what they do towards inaugurating their scheme of Disunion, they will likely do in advance of Lincoln's inauguration into office. What is now wanted, and ought to come into immediate use, is a good article of Hemp, manufactured in the good old Union State of Kentucky, and with this, let every avowed Disunionist be hung by the United States Authorities! I have said the book in my Prospectus, to indicate where I will be in the coming struggle. I want no one to subscribe for this paper under a misapprehension of the course its Editor will pursue. He will be on the side of his country, and against its enemies.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE ADVERTISER IS ASHAMED—Tired to a great degree of the nauseating and sickening recitals of the most shocking forms of other behaviour, and feels a desire to inform persons thus into error; that the Spalding's Cephalic Pills, which is from this Book, specifying "bad the book," it may be entirely prejudiced in connection with Dr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will then be said to a more general way, and the Spalding Cephalic will become in estimate as Electricity and many others whose dislike, this as foreign words has long been away by common usage until they seem "naturalized to the manor born."

"Scarcely Realized.

He had a terrible headache this afternoon, and I stopped into the Apothecaries and says he to the man, "Can you home me of an headache?" "Does it ache bad," says a. "Horrendously," says he, and upon that a gave me a Cephalic Pill, and you see now it never ere so quick that I scarcely realized I had an an headache.

☞ Headache is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a signal intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its infection should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two causes, viz: Sympathetic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. In its mildest form it is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting gastric headache, of hepatic disease constituting bilious headache, of worms, constipation and other disorders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headaches; Anemia and plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic headaches also are numerous, being usually distinguished by the name nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health, and protracting at one the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or acerbity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes preceding vomiting; under this class may also be named Hemicrania.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the disease of which headache is the startling hint.

Dyspepsia—Minus words you to send me a box of Cephalic Pills, so, a bottle of Prepared Pills—but I'm thinking that's not just it neither; but perhaps you'll be of the knowing what it is. Yes sir-ee's sigh dead and gone with Sick Headache, and wants some more of that same as related her before.

Druggist—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Pills.

Druggist—Ah! now now and you're sell it, here's the quantity and get me the Pills, and don't be all day about it either.

Constipation or Costiveness.

Name of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so much neglected as constipation. Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which constipation is the usual attendant are Headache, Colic, Gleanoidness, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature, while a train of frightful diseases, such as Malignant Fever, Abscess, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first not taste their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the disease owned originate in Constipation, but take on an indescription existence before the case is realized in its early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Cephalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will arrest the insidious approaches of disease and destroy the dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician—Well, Mrs. Jones, how is that headache?

Mrs. Jones—Good Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more, as that I can have them ready.

Physician—You can get them at any Druggists. Call for Cephalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I recommend them in all cases of Headache.

Mrs. Jones—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real blessing.

Twenty Millions of Dollars Saved.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus making an aggregate of twenty millions of dollars clear total total saved by this valuable invention. Having made his Glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Glue, Headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

☞ Over sufferers, and the special care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headache. The disordered state of body and mind to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalic Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

Facts worth knowing.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

Great Discovery.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vaccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinine for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoveries are forgotten.

☞ Did you ever have the Sick Headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study. One of the Cephalic Pills would have relieved you from all the sufferings which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use on occasion requires.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any exchange of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.
