Those wishing to keep up with the news, and the progress of a world's War, precipitated upon the country by Southern Disunionists, consequent on the election of Lincoln, would do well to subscribe for our Weekly. It is sent out to be seen first South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, and other Cotton States are going out of the Union. It is too serious a matter to trifle with, and we must all look the Hobgoblin in the face. This machine of government, so delicate and complex in its parts, and which cost its great Architects such labor and thought, so much of the best of Revolution and compromise, and our country so much of blood and treasure, is now broken to pieces, to gratify a set of conceited politicians, and disappointed demagogues, who find that they can rather preside over Slave States, and hence they seek a Southern Confederacy. The folding and dancing of Cotton States, while Rome was enveloped in Saxon, and more brutal, selfish, stupid and wicked than is the conduct of these country-destroying and Hell-deserting TRAITORS to their country, who write and act frequently of the most momentous things, as if they were playing at ninepins, or cutting a dog's tail off by inches, to gratify a set of conceited politicians, and disappointed demagogues, who find that they can rather preside over a United
