Those wishing to keep up with the news, and the progress of a war the like precipitated upon this country by Southern Disunionists, because of the election of Lincoln, would do well to subscribe for our Whig.

If Lincoln's inaugural be an indication of the policy he intends to pursue, it promises to be conservative and peace loving. It is eminently fair in its nationality of sentiment, and it is not and can not be a bone adhere, worthy of the enlightenment of all good men North and South. We are willing to try Mr. Lincoln under the pledges of this Address, pronouncing to rebel when he attempts to inaugurate aggressive and unconstitutional measures, whether in reference to slavery or any other subject.

I believe that the zeal of the anti-slavery party at the North, has not yet subsided, and that the Border States ..... a course to guard against the manner policy of abolitionists. I shall battle against the Greeley, Garrison, Sumners, Chases, Hales, Brookers, and Fessenddens, and with equal freedom, I shall denounce all who are hand and glove with the Yancys, Rhetts, Toombs, Toombs and Wigfalls, and other Disunionists South, who seek to destroy this Government, from equally base motives.
