HOME MANUFACTURE.—Home manufacture of clothing by farmer's families is a subject which should claim the attention of the people of the South at the present time. By producing what we consume, not only in clothing, but everything else we would soon become an independent people. We have the soil, climate, and all the natural advantages to make us a manufacturing community. The present high price of cotton and woolen fabrics are such, that farmers are more seriously than ever thinking of manufacturing all their cloth in the house, under their own supervision. Some have already commenced growing flax, or getting rolls carded. But few young wives know how to weave and spin in this the Nineteenth Century. Spinning wheels are scarce, and looms are not often to be seen at work among the farmers. Nevertheless, there is no prospect of farmers getting along comfortably for years to come unless they make most of their cloth. It should be the rule of all farmers to produce everything possibly within themselves that the family may need. In a country where this is done there is always prosperity. The Roman Emperor, Augustus, wore no garments but such as the females in his house spun and wove. Jeans, Satinetts, Blankets, Tweeds, Double Plain Linsey, Flax, Cotton Tow, all wool cloth, Toweling, Table Linen, Balmoral Skirts, Linen and Hemp Cloth, Canton and Woolen flannel, can be made at home much cheaper than it can be bought, and will be much better, and last from three to five time as long as any mixed stuff you can buy. The great need for the present is improved machinery for family use. The "Independent Hand Loom," now on exhibition in this city, patented last February and May, by C. Unverzagt, (a young Prussian) and we are credibly informed, will be manufactured in this county. This loom is certainly adapted to families of laboring men and farmers for manufacturing all the goods enumerated above, and worn by them. Intelligent women who are engaged in making cloth exert their minds in a high degree, and have greatly excelled in coloring and planning their pieces for the Loom, and they have turned out some beautiful pieces of Linsey, Table Linen, Blankets, Handkerchiefs, Woolen Shawls, and other fabrics. There is no doubt if our people will go to work and manufacture all the improved machinery necessary for manufacturing and finishing cloth, as well as all other machinery and farm implements for the farmers, and furnish them to our people at prices within their reach, while our women, from their experience and industry in the manufacturing of cloth from the raw material, will in a few years add millions to our wealth, and we shall soon become a prosperous, happy and independent people, and the present condition of things will soon cease to exist among us. Sheep have wool and they multiply fast. One good flannel blanket is worth two bedquilts. Let us all have sheep, let us raise flax, and get wheels and looms, and go back to first principles from whence we have departed, and with the use of improved machinery for family use, cloth can be made with one-half the labor our mothers and grand-mothers bestowed upon it, and by industry and economy we will soon become as happy and prosperous as any people.

CHOLERA IN KNOXVILLE.—We have taken pains to ascertain all the facts relating to Cholera in this city. At the hour of putting our paper to press, there have been twelve cases, all told. Of these six have died, several of whom were very imprudent, if not dissipated. Cholera is not considered epidemic in this city. There has not been a new case for several days. In 1854, when we had cholera in this city, it was epidemic. Then there was a great panic, and eight or ten deaths per day, after our population was reduced from five thousand to three hundred. As soon as it was then ascertained that there was cholera, an exodus of citizens took place which, in a few days, reduced our population to three hundred from five thousand. Now there is no excitement or panic in this city. A few persons are alarmed, and some, we think, have taken their beds from sheer fright. The great mass of our citizens are pursuing their avocations as though there was not a cholera case in East Tennessee.

We hope we may be as fortunate as we have been, and announce in one week that this dreadful disease has entirely abated. Fearfully exaggerated reports have been circulated in the country, such as that there were "twenty to thirty deaths per day in Knoxville from cholera.

HOPE FOR TWO KNOXVILLIANS.—On the 21st of last month, in Roane county, a lady 65 years of age was married to a man 83 years old. Why should not Judge C. W. Jones and S. T. Logan, Esq., take hope from this?

DEATH FROM CHOLERA.—On Thursday last, Thomas C. Houk died in this city with Cholera. He was a brother of Judge L. C. Houk, and served as a private soldier in the Federal army.

GREELEY ON BEECHER.—The New York weekly Tribune, of September 5, contains Henry Ward Beecher's letter indorsing Johnson, and Mr. Greeley's reply.

"DON'T BE FOOLED."—You can make Six Dollars from Fifty Cents. Call and examine an invention urgently needed by everybody. Or a sample sent free by mail for 50c., that retails easily for $6 by R. L. Wolcott, 170 Chatham Square, New York. sept13 6m

PRIVATE MEDICAL ADVICE.—Read Dr. Whittier's advertisement in another column.

Quarterly Meeting.

The second quarterly Meetings for the Jonesboro' District, Holston Conference, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will be held as follows:

Greeneville, Bristol and Abingdon Circuit, at Tenn., October 10th and 11th.
Newtown Circuit, at Pimento Hill, October 13th and 14th.
Jonesboro' Station, October 17th and 18th.
Elizabethton Circuit, at Patton's Chapel, November 3d and 4th.
Taylorsville Circuit at ——, November 10th and 11th.
During the past quarter over one hundred have been added to the Church.

L. F. DRAKE, Presiding Elder.

ANOTHER CIRCUS COMING.—In this paper we publish the advertisement of Stone & Roston's Circus, which is to exhibit in this city Thursday, Oct. 15th. This Company will exhibit here but one day. By the press it is highly complimented, and we think they will give a good entertainment.

MEETING OF CHANCERY COURT.—On Monday morning, 1st inst., the Chancery Court met in this city. We understand many important causes will be brought before this Court. His Honor, Chancellor O. P. Temple, is presiding.

CHARITABLE DONATIONS—GOOD EFFECT OF THE JOHNSON MEETING.—The stockholders of the Tenn. & Ga., and E. T. & Va. Railroads, have subscribed a thousand dollars for the support of the poor and destitute, and for the same purpose President Branner and Calloway have given three hundred dollars each. These donations have been made because of the immense revenue accruing from the sale of tickets to the Johnson Convention.

LOSS OF RAILROADS BY THE LATE JOHNSON CONVENTION.—As announced in our paper last week, the total number of delegates to the Johnson Convention of the 19th, in this city, who came on the different trains, was about eighty. A majority of these came at fare and a fifth per mile. The sum was not sufficient to defray the expense of running "special" trains. It did not pay for the wood and other materials necessary to running the trains.

PHILADELPHIA HOME WEEKLY.—This is the title of one of the best literary and most valuable family journals published in the United States. It is classic and pure in sentiment, and edited with signal ability. This journal is regularly received by M. P. Chapin, news dealer of this city, and we have no doubt its circulation in this division of the State will be increased in the ratio in which our population recover from the impoverishing effects of war.

Democratic Profession of Colored People.

At a Democratic procession in Baltimore the other night, the transparencies displayed the following diabolical inscriptions: "We are in favor of Negro Suffrage—the way they suffered in New Orleans." A coffin was carried and labelled "John L. Thomas's and Thad. Stevens's overcoat." These atrocious sentiments show the feeling of the Democratic party of Maryland toward the negro race, and show what this race may expect if the Democratic-Johnson party is successful.

CHIRIQUI IMAGES.—We have had the pleasure of examining a quantity of gold received by Dr. J. G. Ayer & Co., from Honduras, in payment for their medicines, which are extensive sold throughout Central America. Among massive crosses, bracelets, and chains, are the rude images which have been taken from the graves of the Chiriqui chiefs—birds, turtles, serpents, bugs and reptiles done in solid gold. They carry us back beyond historic time, to periods and places where barbarism reigned supreme. They seem to come here now in mute appeal from the winding sheets of their ancestors, to ask for the simple Indians in the mountains, medical protection from cultivated skill, against disease which gather them up in too early graves. Ignorant and unlettered as they are, they have learned of the white man enough to know where to apply for relief, and what will bring it.—Our well known townsmen, above named, informs us that they require their remittances from foreign countries now to be made in silver and gold.—Lowell Sentinel, Mass.

JUST THE THING.—While disparaging no other article of similar kind, we desire to say a word commendatory of the very excellent soaps manufactured by Colgate & Co., New York, and for sale by their agents throughout the country. These soaps are carefully and skillfully prepared, and every package, whether of ordinary bar soap for family use, or the choicest variety of Toilet Soap, is inspected and branded before going to the public, and may be relied upon to be just as represented.

A Brief Indictment.

In alluding to President Johnson, the Detroit Tribune thus briefly describes his position.

Elevated to his present condition by a most deplorable crime perpetrated in the interest of the rebellion, he disappointed, speedily, all the fair anticipations of his fidelity, patriotism, and firmness, and deserted the Republican party, with which he had professed to be allied. After contending against Congress, in behalf of the immediate admission, without safeguards or guarantees, of the rebel States to full representation in the National Legislature; after launching a most bitter personal controversy, he has finally placed himself at the head of a selfish political movement for the disruption and defeat of the great Union party that suppressed the rebellion, and he is now co-operating with the men, who, at the South, strove by arms to destroy the Government, and at the North cheered on and supported the conspirators. Thus the true Union men of the nation behold the victory they had achieved turned against them by base and unparalleled treachery.

A MASONIC INCIDENT.—A little incident containing some mystical interest transpired in Wayne county, South Carolina, during the late war. It is the following:

It was late at night, the husband was absent, and the wife, alone with her children, had retired. Three or four soldiers rudely knocked at the door of the house, and demanded entrance and something to eat.—The good lady told them that it was too late, that she had nothing cooked, but fearing they would break the door, she got out of bed and opened it to expostulate with them.

They insisted that she should cook something for them, and while she was getting ready, and they were roaming about the house, one of the party who seemed to be the leader, happened to find a copy of Mackey's "Masonic Jurisprudence" lying upon the side-table. Turning it over he found the name of the poor frightened woman's husband written on the fly leaf.

"Is this your husband?" he inquired of the lady.

"Yes, sir," was the timid reply.

"Is he a mason?"

"Yes, sir."

"Come, boys, right about—march!" and immediately the house was cleared and quickly closed.

The Talk of Men and Women.

Some Frenchman of a statistical turn of mind, who evidently has but little to do, publishes in a Havre paper some curious statistics of the average talk of men and women. He has discovered that an ordinary middle aged man spends three hours per day in conversation, calculating at the rate of one hundred words per minute, or twenty-nine octavo pages per hour, which would amount to 600 pages per week, or fifty-two big volumes per year. Having obtained these facts as regards the masculine portion of the human race, the statistician applied his best energies to ascertain the amount of words uttered by an ordinary and middle aged female per minute, and the amount of time spent on the average by that sex in general conversation. After the most patient investigation and abstruse calculation, this able arithmetician was compelled to give up the question and confess the magnitude of the figures produced even at the outset of the inquiry baffled all human calculation.

GEN. JNO. A. LOGAN, one of the chief heroes of Sherman's march to the sea, was, before the outbreak of the war, a Douglas Democrat, and we suppose no man in the West has represented more vigorously, in the hall and in the field, what is known as War Democracy. Gen. Logan, one year ago, stood upon the same platform of hostility to unrepentant and unpolluted treason as Andrew Johnson. Now, when Logan declares, as he did in his speech of the 15th at Chicago, that the President is "A Judas that has kissed the cheeks of loyalty to betray it in the arms of treason," we expect that his language, however strong, will find thousands to applaud it in the party of which he was so popular a leader, and among the brave ranks in which he fought. Who doubts that Mr. Johnson's policy is condemned by the Union soldiers of the country, as the measure of Congress are heartily and even vehemently indorsed? No one is more earnest than Gen. Logan that Congress shall insist inexorably on its ultimatum of admission, and we believe that nine-tenths of the people and nearly every soldier in the army agree with him intelligently.

IMPORTANT TO LIQUOR DEALERS.—It is not generally known that the Act of Congress, approved July 1st, 1866, makes it incumbent on all holders of spirituous liquors in quantities of fifty gallons and over to report the fact to the collector of the district in which the same may be stored or owned, at once. The neglect of this duty on the part of such owners or holders, subjects the party to a heavy fine and two years imprisonment. On being notified, the collector reports to the inspector who proceeds to gauge and brand the vessel containing the liquors.

JOHNSON CONSTITUENCY.—General LOGAN said the other day, at Springfield, that Johnson had but one constituent who made him President, and he had very faithfully carried out the policy of that one. His constituent was BOOTH!

REV. HENRY WARD BEECHER ON CONSERVATIVE YOUNG MEN.—In Henry Ward Beecher's volume of "Life Thoughts," we find the following passage, which deserves profound study: "A conservative young man has wound up his life before it was uncoiled. We expect old men to be conservative, but when a nation's young men are so, its funeral bell is already rung." Mr. Beecher's age is now a matter of unusual interest.

"Do you consider lager beer intoxicating?" "Vell, ash for dat, I gant say. I trink feefty to seexty classes a day, and it tosh not hurt me, I but don't know how it would pe if a man vash to make a hog of hisself."

GOV. BROWNLOW'S LETTERS.—We publish in this paper four letters from Gov. Brownlow. They are worthy the careful perusal and reflection of our subscribers.

GEN. COUCH, who, with Orr, of South Carolina, started the great flood of tears at Philadelphia, has received his price in the appointment of Collector of the Port of Boston; but the Senate will hardly confirm the appointment.

MR. GEORGE JONES, of Greeneville, East Tennessee, and widely known throughout the State, died at home on last Saturday morning.

Dyspepsia.—There is probably no one disease with which mankind are afflicted which is the source of so many ailments as Dyspepsia, or as it is more commonly called sour stomach, and there is no more certain remedy than Roback's Stomach Bitters.

MEDICINES.

FOUTZ'S

CELEBRATED

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate broken-down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventative of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, POUNDERS, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. It now improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and makes the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

THE EXTRA TRIBUNE

FOR THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

A political struggle, rarely surpassed in importance or intensity, has been precipitated on the country by the treachery of Andrew Johnson and some of his official or personal adherents to the great and patriotic party by which they were intrusted with power.

The aim of this treachery is to put the steadfast loyalists of the South under the feet of the "whipped but not subdued" Rebels, and to enable the latter to glut their vengeance on the former, whom they hate and curse as responsible for the most unexpected overthrow of their darling "Confederacy."

The recent wholesale massacres at Memphis and New Orleans were but conspicuous manifestations of the spirit now rampant in the South, whereof the pro-Rebel triumph in Kentucky is a more recent example. The soldiers of Lee, Beauregard, Johnston and Hood are the now the dominant power from the Potomac to the Rio Grande; they elect each other to office in preference even to stay-at-home Rebels (they have supplanted nearly all others as judicious and loyal men) and they are organized and allowed to state militia; and they ruthlessly crush every demonstration of loyal Whites or loyal Blacks in assertion of the EQUAL RIGHTS of AMERICAN FREEMEN. The school-houses of the Blacks are burned and their White teachers subjected to ribald and outrage by unchanged Rebels, who relieve the work of murder and arson by cheers for Andy Johnson and execrations of Congress.

The purpose of forcing representatives of the Rebel States into Congress, in defiance of the loyal oath, by Presidential fiat and Military power, is openly avowed, with threats that those who resist it shall be treated as rebels, and a civil war thus kindled throughout the North and West.

It has thus become imperative that those who stand for LIBERTY and LOYALTY—for the right of the UNION to exist and of MAN to be FREE—should organize and work to strengthen the hands of CONGRESS for the inevitable contest before us.

We must convince the SOUTH and the COPPERHEADS that revolutions go not backward—that Emancipation is an unchangeable fact—that the glorious CIVIL RIGHTS ACT can never be repealed—that the rights of the humblest AMERICAN are henceforth guaranteed and assured by the FEDERAL CONSTITUTION and must be maintained against all gainsayers—that the days wherein BLACKS had no rights which WHITES were bound to respect, have passed away forever.

We hold to-day the power in all the FREE STATES of 1860, in WEST VIRGINIA, and in MISSOURI beside. We must hold these in our spring elections, and add to them MARYLAND and DELAWARE—the former not to be through treachery, neither now nor hereafter. We must rally to the XIth Congress an overwhelming majority devoted to Loyalty, Nationality, and the inalienable Rights of Man.

To this end, let Light and Truth be systematically diffused to every neighborhood, every hamlet, throughout our broad country.

To this end, we propose an extra issue of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE (identical in size and contents with the regular edition), which we will supply on the following terms, the paper to be sent and subscriptions to commence on receipt of the money:
