FOR SALE.—A second hand Rockaway Carriage and Harness, all in good order. Apply at this office.

RETURNED HOME.—Hon. Horace Maynard and Gov. Brownlow returned to this city on Sunday morning, after an absence of seven weeks. They are both in good health, and elated with the result of the recent elections and the prospects ahead.

CHOLERA.—There is not a cholera patient in this city or county, and has not been in ten or twelve days. There was never less sickness in this city or county than at this time.

DEATH OF A WELL KNOWN CITIZEN.—Several days since, Iredell D. Wright, of Blount county, died at his home near the mouth of Little River.—Mr. Wright was an old man, and several years a member of the Legislature.

COL. JOHN H. JAMES, of this section, well known to the people of East Tennessee as Chief Quartermaster of Tennessee troops, has been appointed by the President, Indian Agent for Mountain Territory.

CAPTURED CORRESPONDENCE.—The letters we publish from the Rebel Gen. Vaughn and others have never been in print. They were found among the private papers of Ex-Gov. Harris. We have the original of all of them.

GOOD HEALTH is paramount to wealth, if the system is in bad order purge out the vile humors and distempers with Roback's Blood Pills, and get the internal organs performing their regular functions and once in order, keep them so with Roback's Stomach Bitters.

NOTHING HURTFUL ABOUT THEM.—While so many articles of daily use have become so adulterated that one hardly dares believe anything pure, it is satisfactory to know that the Soaps with which we purify ourselves or our clothing may be relied upon as being perfectly free from hurtful substances. Colgate & Co. employ none but the most healthful ingredients in their many kinds of soap, and rigidly exclude whatever might harm skin or cloth.

PRIVATE MEDICAL ADVICE.—Read Dr. Whittier's advertisement in another column.

"DON'T BE FOOLISH."—You can make Six Dollars from Fifty Cents. Call and examine an invention urgently needed by everybody. Or a sample sent free by mail for 50c, that retails easily for $6 by R. L. Wolcott, 170 Chetham Square, New York. sept13-6m

JOHNSON CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN KNOXVILLE.—The citizens of Knoxville and East Tennessee are familiar with the perfect failure of the Copper-Johnson party to have a respectable meeting in this city last month. The Jonesboro Union Flag ridiculed it in fine style. Referring to the occasion (in a horn!) revenue accruing from the sale of tickets, it says

"Now, we will soon have superb sleeping cars and champaign furnished our passengers free! The sale of tickets in Jonesborough equalled anything ever occurred on the American continent, (in a horn!)"

A LOYAL SISTER'S APPEAL.—The ardor of patriotic women often puts men to shame. One writes from West Liberty, W. Va.:

We cannot expect that a miracle will be wrought to save the country while we sleep. Are we to learn nothing from experience? Shall we persistently shut our eyes against threatening danger?—Are we yet blind to the fact that there exist in this country two opposing principles, that never can front each other but to grapple in a death struggle? The enemies of the country, learning prudence from disaster and defeat, are preparing to strike a better-directed blow. Portentious signs appear in the political heavens!

From the Toledo Blade.

NASBY.

Mr. Nasby Appeals to the People.

POEY OAYUM, COMFEDERIT X ROADS, (which is in the State of Kentucky,) October 1, 1866.

President Johnson, who hez bin likened to Androo Jakson, and wich, since my appointment, I consoed him to be in many partickelers his sooperior, requested me and William H. Seward (his secretary and chaplain) to draw up and publish to the Democracy of the various States holdin' eleckshuns this fall, an address, or rather an appeal, firmly believin that hed he extended his tour to St. Louis, and issued an address to em, that that sinit would hev gone ez it did. William refoosed to take part in the appeal, sayin that it warnt uv no yoose, and so the duty devolved upon me.

DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVES OF THE NORTH: Appreshetin the gravity uv the occiso I address you. The signs uv the times is ominous. A Radikle Congress, elected durin the time when the Southin States, wich comprises reely all the intelick uv this people, didn't take no part in the elekshun, ben so bizzy gettin out uv Sherman's way to open polls, a Congress, I repeat, in wich there aint no Southern man, and wich conseenty kant by any stretch uv the hooman imagineshen, be considered Constitooshnel, hez dared to thwart the President uv the United States, and set up its will agin his'n! I need skarcely recount its high handed acts ez treurpashen. It passed a bill givin niggers, which accordin to Scripter (see Onesimus, Ham and Hager, the only three texts in Scripter uv any partikular account,) and the yoonages uv the Democracy, aint got no rites, and the President exercisin the high prerogatives put into his hands by the Constitooshen, vetoed it. Here the matter should hev endid. He hed expressed, in a manner strikly Constitooshnel, his objecshens to the measure, and a proper regard for his feelins and just deference for his opinions, ought to hev indicated the right course. Here wuz peece offered this Congress. Here wuz the tender uv a olive branch. The President didn't want a quarrel with Congress—he didn't desire a continyoonance uv the agitation wich hed shook the country like a Illinois ager, but he desired peece.—Congress good hev bed it, hed they only withdrawed their crood noshens uv what wuz rite and what wuz wrong—ratified, ez they shood hev done, sich laws ez the President saw fit to make—in short, hed they followed the correct rule when we hev a Democratic President, and put the Government in his hands, with an abidin trust in his rectitood and wisdom, we mite hev avoided this struggle, and this wood hev been peaceful. But this reckless Congress, bent upon consentratin power in its hands instid uv dividin it between him and Seward passed the bill over his hed! regardless uv his feelins! The responsibility for the dissension rests, therefore, with Congress.

But these questions are altogether too lofty for the Demokratic intellek, and I fling em out for the consideration uv the few Postmasters we get from the Union ranks. To the Dimokrisy I address myself more partickularly.

DO YOU WANT TO MARRY A NIGGER?—This question is again before yoo. Are yoo in favor of elevatin the Afrikin to a position where he kin be your chal or perhaps your superior? That niggers are again before you in your decision, only the danger to you is increased. The matter has become threatening—for disgise it as we may, thousands uv em kin read, and they are akkumulatin property and wearin good clothes to a extent prooly alarmin to the Dimokratic mind. We hev allus consoled ourselves with the enothin reflection that there was a rate low down in the scale of humanity that we ones. Shall we continue to enjoy that comfort? That's the question for every Dimokrat to consider when he votes this fall. Remove the weight uv legal disability, and ten to one if they don't outstrip us even, and then where are we goin to look for a race to look down upon. Its a close thing atween us now, and ez we uv this generation can't elevate ourselves, why for our own peace uv mind we must, I repeat it—MUST pull them down.

Agin then I repeat. DO YOU WANT TO MARRY A NIGGER? Your daughters wunst carried banners onto wich was inskribed that prooly Dimokratic motto, "White husbands or none," and in consequence they've bin mostly livin in the calojment uv none—are they to go back on that holy determinashen to preserve the Angio Saxson race on this continent in its purity? Doo you want the nigger—the big buck nigger—the flat footed nigger—the wooly headed nigger—the bow legged nigger—the NIGGER—to step up aside uv yoo and exercise the prerogatives uv freemen in this country? Do you want the nigger aforesed to be mayors uv your towns with all the hatred they hev towards us? Wut chance, oh Dimokratic dweller in cities, think yoo, yoo'd hev if hauled up afore a nigger mayor on a charge of disorderly conduct? Wut chance wood your children hev in a skool uv which all the teechers wuz niggers? Wut chance wood yoo hev wen arrestid for small misdemeanors afore nigger judges?

"But," say some uv yoo who, set ravin by drum and flags and sich, went off violently into the war and wuz, perhaps, saved from starvin by niggers—" these niggers wuz our friends in the late war—they fought agin the South?"

O wut a deloosion! O! wut blindnis! Troo they did, and that shows the danger that's afore us—that lifts the fog from the precipice onto which we are standin and shows us our danger. Wut does this fact prove? It proves the curseonableness uv the Nigger—his discontentednis with the posishen to wich nacher assigned him, and his cussed disposition to upset the normal condition. The Bible makes him a servant unto his brethren, (see Ham, Hager and Onesimus, three blessed texts.) Science proves him to be not a man but a beast, and so take him ez we may, either ez our brother or ez a beast, and Dimocrisy, with that liberality wich hez allus distinguished it, gives every man his choice wich theory to take, his condition is servitood. But he, with a cussidness, a perversity wich I never cood understand, flies into the face uv the Divine decree, flies into the face uv science and asserts his independence. He turned agin them ez hed fostered him—turned agin, in many instances, his own parents—(in these instances, for convenience, the parents adopted the brethren theory)—and, for an abstract idea fought agin em. That restlessness under bonds alarmed the Dimocratic mind. We who owned em under the skripter (see Onesimus, Hager and Ham) and under the eternal laws uv scientific trooth, wuz content with the arrangement, and why shood they not hev bin? Things wuz normal. They worked and we eat, and of they had been content with this ekitable division uv the labor uv life all wood hev bin smooth to-day.

Their takin part agin us at the South and in favor uv the Federals, is, instead uv a cos uv feelin good toward em a source uv oneasiness—instid uv bein a reason for elevatin uv em, its my principal reason for depressin uv em. Sich unsettled minds shood be quieted—this itchin to raise theirselves shood be crushed out uv em, that Science and Holy Writ (see Onesimus, Hager and Ham) may be vindicated.

Shel we desert Androo Johnson after all the trouble he hez bin to in gettin back to us? Shel we elect a Congress this fall so soaked in Ablishin—so filled with objeckshuns to our Southern brethren ez to refoose to receive em back into the seats which they vacated? Consider! The Southern Dimokracy hevn't and don't lay up nuthin agin you. They are willing to forgive and forget. They failed, but they are willin to forgive the cause uv the failyoor. They hevn't got the government they wanted, but they find no fault with that, but are willin to take charge of the wun they hev bin compelled to live under. Kin they offer fairer? The fate of war wun agin em, buryin all hard feelins they extend to us Crischen charity, and say here we are, take us, give us our old places. They hev bin chastened—their household gods have bin destroyed, and their temples torn down. Wun neighbor uv mine lost two sons in the Confedrit army; another son wich he hed refooced $1,500 for, in 1863, he was compelled to shoot, coz he wuz bound to runaway into the Fedral army, and two octoroons which he hed a dozen times refooced $2,500 for, each, in Noo Orleans, he saw layin dead on the steps uv a skool house in Memphis. Hez he suffered nothin? And yet he is willin to take a seat in Congress—forgettin all hes suffered, and forgivin the cause thereof. What wickedness it is, wich would further bruise sich a broken reed.

Therefore, ez yoo love yourselves and hate the nigger I implore yoo to act. Take yoor choice uv the platforms uv the different States—vote ez a Johnson Union or ez a Democratic Johnsonian—but vote.

Kentucky holds out her hands appealingly! Kentucky implores yoo to bild up a bulwark North of the Ohio river to save what little is left uv pure Dimocracy there! Kentucky will back yoo in yoor endeavors. Will yoo heed her cry? Shel she appeel in vain? Forbid it hevin!

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.,
(wich is Postmaster.)

Mr. Seward's Disappointment.

Secretary Seward said to a Union Colonel, after witnessing the popular sentiment of the West: "I would give my right arm, if I could be placed back to the 22d of February." It was on that day, that he came to New York, as the champion of the President against Congress. It was on the evening of the day, that he telegraphed his approval of the violence and denunciation of Mr. Johnson in his serenade speech to the rebels and rioters gathered in the grounds of the Executive mansion. More than six months have elapsed. Mr. Seward has witnessed the effect both upon Mr. Johnson and upon the country at large. If the diplomatic Secretary calculated by flattering the President to control and restrain him, and to hold him back from a close alliance with the copperheads, the result of the effort is now patent. Many assert that Mr. Seward deliberately sacrificed himself, with this benevolent purpose. If this was his aim, he can now see how gravely he has erred. Plain people thought on the 22d of February, that if the Secretary said anything, have should he deprecated the tone of Mr. Johnson's course and speech. They felt that it was the part of friendship to warn and admonish, as it was the duty of patriotism to raise the alarm, and to devise checks against the violence and the arbitrary measures then foreshadowed. If Mr. Seward hoped to place bits in the mouth of the arrogant and despotic man, and by supple flattery to subdue his official master, his disappointment must be poignant in the extreme.—So far as words go, Mr. Johnson has reached the utter limit. He has spoken of himself as Dictator; he has breathed bloodshed and civil war; he has wheeled every disorderly passion, every partizan prejudice, and if the knife is not plunged into the nation's heart, the credit does not belong to him.

Possibly Mr. Seward counted by the weight of his personal influence to induce the whole country to favor and support the President in any course he might pursue. In his tour to the West the Secretary has been able to see that no arguments can win toleration for Mr. Johnson. The great West distrusts him. With the earnestness characteristic of its people, it despises and hates him. While it does not fear him, the practical sense of the West concludes that an official who openly indulges in such diatribes, requires to be girt around with every constitutional check. This is also the language of the elections. Vermont and Maine protest in the face of all the Federal patronage, that no public man occupying a national position ever before so repelled the people, so arrayed the intellect and conscience and heart of the nation against him. So strong is this feeling that it includes those who are regarded as the advisers of this course. Mr. Seward felt its force when the Senate of the State which has delighted to honor him, refused to welcome him to the Capital. He has felt keenly how everywhere his old friends stand aloof, and seek as great him at all, with fear of his blunder, and refuse to follow him to retraction and disgrace. It has not been an isolated case. Town was crowds followed his counsel and answered to his rallying cry. Then he stood for human rights, and against the aspirations of loyal people. Now he beckons, and no one responds; now he appeals, and those who have trusted him take alarm and regretfully assume position against him. He goes with Andrew Johnson, and the indignant censure of the millions who have lifted him up, fall, however unwillingly, on the Secretary as well as his Chief.—Exchange.

THE infant daughter of General Tom Thumb died from inflammation of the brain at Norwich on the 20th of September.

REWARD.

WILLIAM G. BROWNLOW, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE.—So all who shall see these presents—Greeting:

WHEREAS, It has been made known to me that a certain Cicero Williams and a certain Lem. Now, therefore, I, William G. Brownlow, Governor aforesaid, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby offer a reward of Five Hundred Dollars to any person or persons who will apprehend the said Cicero Williams and Lem Carroll, alias Williams alias Roberts, and deliver them to the Sheriff or Jailor of our county of Putnam, or $250 for either of them, in order that justice in that behalf may be had and executed.

Lem. Carroll, alias Williams, alias Roberts, is about 18 or 19 years old, slender form, thin face, flat or dish mouth, bluish grey eyes, but little beard, speaks slowly, and but seldom, light hair and swarthy complexion. They sometimes pass themselves as brothers, and by different names.

If arrested they must be held until witnesses are brought from Indiana.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the Great Seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed at Nashville, on the 20th day of September, 1866.

By the Governor: W. G. BROWNLOW.
A. J. FLETCHER, Sec'y of State.

$50 REWARD.

I will give Fifty Dollars Reward for the recovery of my two horses, taken from my stable at the time the murder and robbery was committed, as specified in the above proclamation of Governor Brownlow. A bay mare, rather small, with a blaze in her face and nose; is not straight, but inclines to one side, back rises just before her loins, or what is termed hog-backed, one eye a little glassy. I will give both horses for the apprehension of the murderers of my son. WILEY V. TINCH.

It is a sure preventative of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, ROUNDERS, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine looking and spirited horse.

To Owners of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent, and make the butter firm and sweet. To fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much better.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific.
