Wonderful Stop in Ninth Breaks Pp a Yankee Counter Attack.

New York, Oct. 13.—Federal grand jury, commissioner of baseball, in a statement tonight said that he would recommend that a seven game series instead of nine be played next season.

(By Associated Press.)
New York, Oct. 13.—World champions 1921—the New York National League Giants won the title which they had held for the past year by defeating the Yankees in the eighth game of the world series at the Polo grounds today. The American league champions died fighting hard in a classic twirling duel between their pitching aces, Waite Hoyt and Art Nehf, the Giant's star left hander. However, they lacked the necessary punch to win the National League championship taking the game by the score of 1 to 0, and the series five games to three.

The Giants' victory gives Manager John J. McGraw his second world championship team. The New York Nationals even times pennant winners under McGraw's management, captured the world's title against the Athletics of the American League in 1905, but although winning the title five times since they have been defeated every time until this year in their quest for world honors, twice by the Athletics, once to the Red Sox and once to the White Sox in similar combats.

Made Brilliant Finish
This year, with a National League pennant that had shown its high-class character by coming from behind late in the season and beating the Pittsburgh Pirates to the flag, the world series told a different story. Off to a poor start through their loss of the first two games of the series the Giants gamely came back.

As for the underlying reason for the success of the McGraw men the sports may differ but there seems little cause to doubt that the most widely propounded opinion will be that it was because of a preponderance of high class pitching ability. The series showed but two of the best pitchers in the game, both of them better than single men of their time. Mays and Hoyt, while the Giants put forward a trio of master workmen in Douglass, Barnes and Nehf.

As for the final and decisive game of the series the winning of it was due to the superb pitching of Nehf against a moundsman to whom it had twice lost the decision earlier in the series. Allowing the American league batsmen but four hits, some of them better than single men of their time coming with an and at, the crafty southpaw in organized turned the Yankees' defense or baffled their ordinary run-ners to put across the winning run which they were struggling all through the contest.
Hoyt was creditable was hardly a whit Hoyt, the Yankee performance was in trouble the youngster, but in the fatal several inn-

IMPERIAL WIZARD FAINTS WHILE IN A WITNESS CHAIR

Had Just Called on God To Forgive His Persecutors

HEARING IS DEFERRED

Senator Watson Takes a Hand to Ask About Federal Salaries

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 13.—Closing an all day defense of the Ku Klux Klan, William J. Simmons, its Imperial Wizard, toppled over in a chair today while the chairman of a house committee investigating the order was attempting to stop the applause which broke before the crowd knew the Wizard had collapsed.

Friends of Mr. Simmons rushed to his side and supplied stimulants, but as it was evident that he was in no condition to continue the examination, the hearing, filled with many dramatic incidents during the day, was adjourned until tomorrow. Physicians later reported that Mr. Simmons' condition was not serious.

Simmons returned to the afternoon session unsteady of feet, his voice hoarse but apparently eager to denounce what he characterized as outrageous charges against the organization he founded in Georgia five years ago.

Suffered From Treason Within
A solemn stillness prevailed at times while the Wizard, holding aloft the ritual of the Klan, read parts of the oath taken by Klansmen. And when in husky tones he told the committee that while Julius Caesar had his Brutus and Washington his Benedict Arnold, he too, as Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, could not suffer from the treasonable conduct of those within.

"If this organization is unworthy then let me know and I will destroy it," he exclaimed, "but if it is not then let it stand."
Turning to the crowd Simmons declared:

London, Oct. 13.—England's unemployment crisis was responsible for notable demonstrations today in London, Sheffield and Manchester. More than 20,000 unemployed participated in the London demonstration which lasted from mid-afternoon until after dark but which, owing to exceptional preparatory measures by the police passed off with only a few heads broken and some window smashing.

ROTE PRINCIPLES EXPOUNDED BY GOV. TURNER LAST NIGHT

District Governor Is a Guest of the Local Club

SPIRIT INTERNATIONAL

Old World Is Being Converted to the New Aristocracy

John Turner, district governor of the Eighth District of Rotary, comprising the states of Alabama, Florida and Georgia, was a guest of the Palatka Rotary Club last night in an official capacity and spoke for more than an hour, most entertainingly on Rotary principles, during which he pictured the wonderful growth of this "new aristocracy," the aristocracy of service.

The banquet was held at the James Hotel and forty-seven of the fifty members of the local club were present, the other three being out of the city. Secretary H. F. Leeks, of the Kiwanis Club, Jim Hart, of the Chamber of Commerce and J. C. Hudson were guests of the club.

Bill Crissell was in charge of the program last night and in opening stated that education in Rotary would be the theme of the evening, with Governor John Turner as chief instructor.

New Aristocracy in Old World
Governor Turner devoted his opening remarks to incidents of the rotary-international convention of Rotary at Edinburgh. Recently, he said, a ship sailed out of New York harbor with 1,500 Americans aboard, going to foreign lands with a mission such as the world had never known before. Fifteen hundred leading business men of this country going to Europe without a political thought, with no church difference or territorial ambitions, and imbued only with the spirit of friendship and service. It was an epoch, he said, in the world's history.

Governor Turner devoted a considerable portion of his talk to entertaining incidents of the convention at Edinburgh, explained how Rotary had seized hold upon France, Spain and other countries, and how it is fast becoming world wide, extending into Japan and China.

The world is fast learning that the greatest thing in the world is service, declared the Governor, and when the principles of Rotary have become entrenched in every land force will no longer be necessary in adjusting the world's affairs.

He emphasized the importance of boy's work, which is one of the chief objectives of Rotary, for the boys of today are the men of tomorrow. For the present year, however, he said that the foremost objective is the educating of the Rotarian into Rotary, making students of all in the universal service.

Kiwanis Will Help Serve
Secretary Leeks, of the Kiwanis Club said that the organization of which he is a member also stands for service, its motto being "We Build," and that it would go hand in glove with the Rotarians in any undertaking for the building of character, friendship and community. "I would no longer be a member of our club if there developed within it opposition and differences with any other force that was working for the good of the community," Mr. Leeks declared.

Educated on Palatka
Secretary Jim Hart, of the Chamber of Commerce, said that while the educational program was in progress he would like to educate the Governor on Palatka so that he could know what a wonderful town it is in potential possibilities. He recited

Albert Korfanty, "director" of Upper Silesia, who has been trying to drive the Germans out of that region.

HARDING LAUDS KNOX IN PROCLAMATION TO NATION TO MOURN HIM

Asks That Flags Be Put At Half Mast In His Memory

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 13.—President Harding in a proclamation addressed to the people of the United States tonight formally announced the death of Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, and directed that the national flag be displayed at half staff as an expression of the national sorrow at his death.

"In his death his state has lost a most valuable and faithful servant and his country one of its greatest statesmen," the proclamation said. "His good judgment, wise discrimination and keen perception eminently fitted him for the legal profession. Admitted to the bar in 1875 he early became recognized as one of the foremost lawyers of his state. Twice honored by the commonwealth of Pennsylvania by election to the senate of the United States he took by his wise counsel a prominent part in the framing of our laws and in the directing of our foreign policy. As attorney general of the United States he rendered opinions noted for their legal ability. As secretary of state justly guided by the principle to deal justly with all nations, his conduct of our foreign relations was ever marked by a devotion to the best interests of his country."

Irish-British Peace Conference Talks But Nothing Doing

London, Oct. 13.—The Irish conference sat for an hour and a half today, this being the third session since the representatives of the Dail Eavrin arrived in London, and adjourned until 11 o'clock Friday morning, Premier Lloyd George and the members of the cabinet requiring the afternoon to consider the question of unemployment which is uppermost in their minds.

Michael Collins, head of the Irish Republican army and Sinn Fein minister of finance, by a seemingly unconsidered remark, that they were not returning to Downing street, gave rise to a report that a crisis had been reached, but Arthur Griffith head of the Irish delegation, quickly corrected this by informing newspaper men that the conference had been merely adjourned and that they were coming back in the morning.

The many enterprises that are in operation here and the opportunities for the successful operation of other. The club received an invitation to attend a district meeting at Orlando on October 28 and will send a delegate down to compete in some of the stunt events and participate in the all day program.

BUYING AT HOME WILL JUSTIFY MERCHANTS IN CARRYING LARGER AND VARIED STOCKS OF GOODS

The merchants of Palatka accept and profess the doctrine that merchandising originated in the homes of the first settlers, who being far from markets that met their needs, practiced economy and sought conveniences by laying in, at fixed intervals, supplies of food, clothing, drugs, hardware, etc. As the sections became more populous these settlers saw the advantages of cooperative buying and general stores came into existence. With the advent of the general stores the funds previously set aside or used by the settler for the purchase of home stocks were devoted to other needs. As an outgrowth of the general store and as population continued to increase, along came the specialized tradesman with greater variety of special lines; so that for the old store carrying a little of everything, we have the store with large stocks of each item that formerly comprised the general store. Our department stores in the large cities are nothing more than the old general store on a larger scale. This brings us to the fact therefore, that a merchant is nothing more nor less than one who employs his capital in providing the stocks formerly purchased in quantities by the settler and on which he expects a fair return on his investment of cash and labor.

SELECTION OF A JURY WORLD SERIES SET A OCCUPIES FIRST DAY NEW ATTENDANCE AND OF RAWLINGS' TRIAL FINANCIAL STANDING

Seven Men in Box After Nearly a Million Dollars Paid to See the Giants Win

(By Associated Press.)
Jacksonville, Oct. 13.—Selection of a jury occupied today's trial of Frank Rawlings on a charge of murder, growing out of the robbery of the Palace theatre here the night of September 4, and the killing of George H. Hickman, its manager.

Seven men were in the box when court recessed for the day. Of the venire of 200 men drawn for prospective jury duty 124 were served and of these 27 were exhausted today. It is expected the jury will be completed tomorrow.

Rawlings was the principal witness against John H. Pope who was sentenced to life imprisonment last week upon conviction of having planned and aided in the robbery which resulted in Rawlings killing Hickman. Pope is in the county jail awaiting hearing on his request for a new trial which will be heard after Rawlings case has been disposed of. Rawlings is being defended by two attorneys appointed by the court.

Veterans Desire No Honors From Thankless Nation

(By Associated Press.)
Fort Pierce, Oct. 13.—A resolution questioning the "sincerity and appropriateness" of the Armistice day program to be carried out at Washington, November 11, in honor of the country's unknown dead has been adopted by the local post of the American Legion. The resolution calls on Legion posts throughout the country former service men, and "the public at large" to voice similar sentiments. The nation has not "kept faith with those whom it seeks to honor," the resolution says.

The resolution says many thousands of "disabled are not yet adequately provided for," that "900,000 able bodied former service men are denied employment and are denied adjustment compensation while other interests are provided for on a profuse scale."

PROPOSAL IS TO BE MADE EXECUTIVES AT CHICAGO

Railroad Officials to Pass All Reductions Along to the Public

THINK ONLY SOLUTION

Declare Impossible to Lower Rates at Present Labor Costs

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Oct. 13.—A proposal to meet all future reductions in the wages to railroad employes with corresponding decreases in railroad freight rates is to be presented to the association of Railway Executives at its meeting here tomorrow it was announced tonight.

The proposition is to be submitted by a special committee of railroad officials which last week conferred with government officials in Washington it was stated.

This announcement was made by a railroad official here for the conference. He stated that the committee had prepared a report embodying the plan.

Pass 'Em On to Public
The proposition to pass all future decreases in operating cost along to the public, it was stated, was in line with the policy of the railroads to make freight rate reductions and at the same time allow the railroads to operate at a profit. Freight rate reductions are impossible so long as operating cost remains unchanged, this official asserted.

Railroad executives, according to the official, have realized the desirability of a reduction in freight rates because of the decrease in the prices of other commodities.

Executives of the conductors, engineers' and firemen's brotherhoods met behind closed doors again today in a continuation of conferences to determine what action shall be taken on the membership vote favoring a strike. According to brotherhood heads it appeared likely that no action calling for a walk out would be taken.

Woman Files Deed Giving Her Little Boy as a Chattel

(By Associated Press.)
Tampa, Oct. 13.—For the first time in the history of this county a warranty deed was placed on record here today formally transferring ownership of a small boy from one woman to another. According to the deed the transaction took place last January in Texas when Mrs. Nettie Davis deeded her three months old son to Mrs. Norma L. Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson recently removed here bringing her new possession with her and has had the deed proving her ownership recorded. Court house officials state that the deed is illegal in that it is unfair to the child and deprives him of the rights of heritage as provided in papers of adoption. In the event of Mrs. Wilson's death before the boy becomes of age officials state, he would pass as a chattel and become part of the estate.
