Rare Inducements to Subscribers and Agents.

The undersigned, sole Editor and Publisher of the Knoxville Whig, takes pleasure in [illegible] that he has unsuspended publication [illegible] announced in various Southern papers [illegible] The Whig has been suspended [illegible] has not and will not stop its visits to its subscribers. We have a list of 3,000 subscribers, greater than the other six East Tennessee papers all put together. Therefore we require to pocket, and in order to induce the friends of an independent paper to sustain it, we have adopted the following

Club Rates of the Weekly:

[illegible] copy one year, (in advance) [illegible]
[illegible] copies, one year, [illegible]
[illegible] copies, one year, [illegible]
[illegible] copies, one year, [illegible]

And as President Davis remarked to several gentlemen recently, in a conversation relative to this paper, that he would not live under a government that did not tolerate freedom of the Press, he will feel bound to see that it is transmitted by his mails, free of postage, to subscribers paying postage like other men.

Statement of Twenty-eight Years use.

New Castle, Va., Co. Co., Va.
N. Y., August 11, 1856.

Dear Sir—I am now seventy years old, and for twenty-eight years I have been troubled with a very severe cough, which would keep me awake at night. At those times I have almost gone into a state of exhaustion. I tried your Pectoral, and it gave me immediate relief. I consider it the best medicine for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and all diseases of the Lungs, and I have never during the last twenty-eight years been without it in my family. I have recommended it to my children and friends, and they have found it to be the best medicine they ever used. Yours, respectfully, [illegible]

[illegible] Sold by Dr. JOHN JACKSON, Knoxville, Tenn., and by all respectable dealers in medicine.

[illegible]

[illegible] Consumption.—The Advertiser, after being restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dreadful disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, free of charge, with the direction by which they can prepare and use the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, and Throat Affections. The only object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he believes to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the Prescription will please address, REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburgh, Kings County, New York.

[illegible] Who will suffer from Foul Disease, Blotches of Disease of the Skin, when such certain remedies as Mrs. Stringfellow's Compound Syrup of Stillingia and Iodide of Potassium can be obtained. The Syrup will purify the blood thoroughly, and the Iodide of Potassium will cure any sore. See the advertisement.

EAST TENNESSEE

FEMALE INSTITUTE.

KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE.

THE FALL SESSION OF THIS Institute will begin on Thursday the 5th September, and continue [illegible] under the following [illegible]

R. L. KIRKPATRICK, [illegible]
Mrs. M. [illegible]
Miss KATE WHITE, [illegible]
Miss E. [illegible]
Mrs. V. A. WICKS, [illegible]

[illegible] Instrumental and Vocal Music, [illegible] the Institute. [illegible] Department, [illegible] Principal [illegible] in the several Departments, [illegible] of Tennessee, [illegible] in the work of instruction and discipline. They have all been tested and approved by ample experience.

Miss Kate White will have charge of the Primary Department, and will make it a School of very superior interest and advantages for small girls. In addition to the elementary branches usually taught in this department, Miss White will give a polar thread method of plain sewing to those pupils whose parents may desire it. No additional charge will be made for such instruction. Miss Storch will also give to the pupils of this department, without charge, short exercises in French twice a week, thus teaching them the manner and pronunciation of familiar words. We are thus enabled to provide our young friends of the primary department a very pleasant and profitable time of [illegible].

The Academic Department will continue to be under the care of Mrs. R. L. Kirkpatrick, who [illegible] a high and justly deserved degree of satisfaction since her connection with the Institute. The School will include reading, writing, English Grammar, Written Arithmetic, Mental Arithmetic, Geography, History, Webster's Dictionary, &c.

The Principal having under her general superintendence all the departments of the Institute, will give the special attention to the Collegiate Course. These are taught in number embracing the study of Languages, Mathematics, the Natural Sciences and Intellectual and Moral Philosophy.

Miss Storch will continue in charge of the department of Modern Languages and the ornamental branches comprising French, German, Drawing and Painting of the various styles, and the different varieties of embroidery and other ornamental work.

The Department of Music, instrumental and vocal, will be under the care of Mrs. V. A. Wicks, formerly of Athens, Tenn. Mrs. Wicks is an experienced and successful teacher. Her course of instruction will include lessons on the Piano and Guitar and in Vocal Music.

DISCIPLINE.

The system of discipline required throughout the several departments of the Institute, will be uniformly mild and gentle, but of the most thorough and salutary kind. The pupils will be treated with the kind and watchful supervision of the teachers, one or more of whom will always be at the Institute from the opening to the closing hours of school. The social recreation rooms will at all times during school hours be open to visiting friends of the pupils, who are hereby earnestly solicited to visit the school recreations frequently, as we think this will give them a much juster idea of the proficiency of their daughters than can be given by the more formal examination at the close of the Session.

TUITION IN ADVANCE.

The charges for tuition will continue as heretofore, viz:

Primary Department, per Session of 5 months,	$10 00
Academic " " "	15 00
Collegiate " " "	20 00
