Marriage of Interest Here. Following account of the wedding of Mr. H. Finley Tucker, former Palatka, but now making his home in Jacksonville, to Miss Jane of Lutherville, Md., will be of interest here.

The Virginia Moehring, dressed in pink silk crepe, carried the ring in the heart of a lily. The best man was Mr. Charles Raab.

The house was beautifully decorated in roses and chrysanthemums. The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony for points in New York state, stopping in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Virginia before returning in November to their future home in Palatka, Fla.

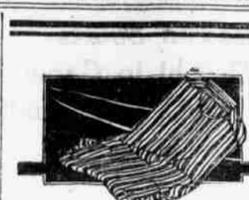

The out of town guests were, in addition to those mentioned, Mr. Lawrence Kitt Tucker, Sr., of Palatka, Fla., father of the groom; Mrs. Joseph H. Durkee and Miss Alison Durkee of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. William Hopkinson, of Philadelphia; Mrs. A. C. Raymond, of New York City, Mrs. James A. Gwin of Athens, Pa., and Mrs. William Burgess Cornell of Albany, Nwe Yor.

After a short stay in New York city Mr. and Mrs. Tucker will go to Jacksonville and motor down the East Coast on their honeymoon as far as Key West, taking in all points of interest, returning to Jacksonville their future home.—Baltimore Sun.

Merwin-Whitsell Wedding. Friends in Palatka of the contracting parties will be interested in the account of their marriage. Mr. Merwin being a resident for many years in this city, and the bride having visited here:

The marriage of Miss Bess L. Whitsell, daughter of Mr. W. T. Whitsell, of Goshen, Va., to Mr. Jay C. Merwin, of Palatka, Fla., which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moehrings, 221 Rhode Island Avenue, Washington, D. C., Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The Rev. G. J. Humphreys performed the double ring ceremony which was witnessed by only a few friends and relatives. During the ceremony Miss Bird Nelson sang "At Dawn- ing." The bride was very becoming in a midnight blue coat suit with hat and accessories to match and wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Mae Baikin, was gowned in blue crepe- de-chine with overdress of gray and carried pink Duchess roses. Little Dorris Brown, flower girl, was dressed in pink and white organdie.
