COTTON MARKET IS NARROWLY LOWER

Buying Power Poor and Close Is Around Bottom Levels of Another Dull Session.

Extremely narrow fluctuations marked yesterday's dealings in cotton futures, business being limited to idle give and take by Wall Street operators and scalping by room traders. Buying power was poor and hardly enough to take care of the small offerings thrown on the market at times, which was reflected in a distinctly sagging tendency, prices showing a loss of approximately ¼ cent a pound at one time and closing around the low. Local spot was off 20 points to 11.60 cents. The market's heaviness was due in part to the decline in stock prices, poor Liverpool cables and a somewhat easier technical position. The majority of larger operators did nothing pending new developments in the political situation abroad.

Following a steady opening of 3 to 9 points net loss, the list met increased pressure and before the end of the first hour prices were off about 20 points. Three March notices were in circulation, but had no effect on values. Near options were evidently feeling the weight of increased stocks here, the premium of July over May widening gradually. Immediate sentiment on the floor was mixed, shrewd operators finding little in favor of either side.

The market moved quietly at a level of about 10 to 18 points net decline during much of the afternoon and ruled barely steady in undertone. Reports from the cotton belt, telling of the renewed determination on the part of Southern growers to curtail production, and the better demand for spots, particularly low grades, seemed without power to move values. Interior markets wired local houses that buying for investment and export account was considerably improved. Near the close pressure increased slightly and consequently final prices were at the bottom, off 22 to 28 points.

PHILIPPINES SHORT OF GOLD.

Unable to Meet Demand for Yellow Metal Exchange.

MANILA, March 10.—The Philippine Government is unable to meet further demand for the sale of gold exchange because it has only approximately $1,500,000 of gold in the United States, it was officially announced here to-day.

Alberto Barretto, Secretary of Finance, said that the action of the Government in stopping the sale of exchange for the present was taken mainly to reduce importations so that imported products accumulated here might be disposed of easier and faster. Mr. Barretto said that the time of resumption of the sale of exchange by the Government and the rate to apply could only be determined by circumstances.

GRAIN.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Strained industrial conditions had a bearish effect today on the wheat market. Prices closed heavy at 1¼c. to 2½c. net lower, with March $1.66½ and May $1.57½@1.57¾. Corn lost ½@⅝c. to ⅞c., and oats ⅜@½c. to ¾@⅞c. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 10c. lower.

Despite temporary bulges, due to revival of talk about crop damage by green bugs and to word of some new export business, the market displayed no sustained buying power, and there was active selling pressure from some recent best buyers. Confidence by the bulls seemed to be especially impaired by the evident prospect of wage difficulties on a large scale. In addition to a threatened strike in the meat packing industry, notice was taken of a walkout of boatmen in New York and of possible labor trouble among flour mills in Minneapolis.

Lowest prices of the day, however, came only after announcement that another of the largest railway systems in the country had taken decisive steps toward a downward revision of wages. No important rally ensued, and the market closed at virtually the bottom figures of the day.

Corn and oats declined in sympathy with wheat, notwithstanding continued export call for corn.

Packers' selling more than counterbalanced in the provision market the stimulus of higher quotations on hogs.

The Continent bought 400,000 bushels of Gulf wheat in yesterday's cash market. France, reported inquiring here on Wednesday, purchased in Argentina for 15 cents less than American prices, according to reports. The Argentine market was 5¾ to 8¾ cents a bushel less than the markets in this country, and the difference in prices probably will attract further European buying to South America. Sales of flour were estimated at 200,000 barrels, largely to Greece and for sharp concessions from mill prices on a cost basis. The domestic flour market remains dull. There were also sales of 175,000 bushels of corn.

WORTHINGTON PUMP PROFITS DROP IN 1920

Report Shows Substantial Gain in Value of Orders.

Notwithstanding a substantial increase in the value of orders taken during 1920, the Worthington Pump and Machinery Corporation showed a very decided decline in profits as a result of the year's operations, according to figures made public yesterday in connection with its annual report. The company's net profits for the year, after all interest charges and taxes, the report showed, amounted to $2,030,923, in contrast to $3,237,064 in 1919. The following table gives a comparison of the salient features of the company's income account for the two years:

	1920.	1919.
Net income	$2,026,502	$4,905,471
Federal taxes	500,000	2,000,000
Other income	329,559	318,631
Interest	24,835	27,041
Net profits	2,030,902	3,237,064

The balance sheet as of December 31, 1920, showed total current assets of $24,254,559 and current liabilities of $5,088,144, leaving at the close of the year net working capital of $19,166,415. Inventories amounted to $13,249,518 and accounts receivable to $6,723,256, against $12,850,224 and $4,700,310 respectively at the end of 1919. Cash stood at $2,367,116 for 1920, against $2,087,974 for 1919.

Total bookings of the company for 1920, the report showed, were $27,478,019, against $19,760,556 in 1919, and billings aggregated $27,924,745 in 1920, against $43,074,592 in 1919. Unfilled orders on hand at the close of 1920 were of the value of $8,721,011, against $8,784,542 a year earlier.
