U. S. THREATENS TO CUT OFF SHIPS TO ARGENTINA

Ambassador Sends Vigorous Note to Foreign Office.

BUENOS AIRES, April 15.—Frederic J. Stimson, United States Ambassador to Argentina, to-day sent what is described as a vigorous note to the Argentine Foreign Office, again insisting that action be taken to release the Munson line steamship Martha Washington from the boycott of port workers, and reiterating the verbal representations he made to Foreign Minister Pueyrredon on Wednesday.

It is known to be the viewpoint of American Government officials here that unless the Martha Washington is released there will be no other recourse but to cut off all Shipping Board vessels plying between the United States and Argentina, numbering more than three score, inasmuch as they believe the precedent that will be established in the present case will endanger the free movement of other ships in the same way and require the American Consulate to accept the intervention of the foreign labor union in the settlement of difficulties between crews and captains of American ships.

Munson line officials said to-day the boycott was costing the line $5,000 daily in port charges and other expenses.

Following conversations between Finance Minister Salaberry and United States Consul General Robertson yesterday, officials of the Port Workers Union were called in by the Finance Minister and the whole subject again discussed. The labor leaders refused to lift the boycott unless their demands were conceded.

The Argentine Government was asked to insist that the union unload the ship or give protection to non-union labor engaged in removing her cargo.

The Epocha, the Government organ, made its first reference to the Martha Washington case, saying the real cause of the boycott was not the single incident in which a fireman on board the Martha Washington was shot by the master at arms, but alleging that bad treatment had been received by the firemen at the hands of the ship's chief engineer.

The corrected reading of the barometer (reduced to sea level) at New York, on Friday, April 15, 1921, at 8 AM, as reported by the United States Weather Bureau, was thirty and nine hundredths (30.09) inches. This closely approximates seven hundred and sixty-four and three-tenths (764.3) millimeters. Captains of all vessels now lying in or near the ports of New York and Brooklyn can advantageously use the above official data for observing whether their own barometers require any considerable correction or adjustment.

Wind at Sandy Hook, 8 PM, SW, 8 miles; partly cloudy; moderate sea.

FOREIGN WEATHER CABLEGRAMS.

CAPE RACE, NF, April 15—Barometer at noon, 30.28 inches; wind, NE, brisk breeze; weather, fine; temperature, 40 deg Fahr.

MARITIME MISCELLANY.

BREST, April 11—Str West Compo, bound to Savannah from Stettin and this port, returned here to-day in tow of a U S Shipping Board tug, disabled.

BUENOS AIRES, April 15—All port activities have been suspended by the Port Workers' Union until 1 o'clock this afternoon as a result of the death of two stevedores on board str Terre Haute yesterday. The men were killed by an explosion, probably of gasolene. Upwards of a hundred vessels were affected by the union's order.

HALIFAX, NS, April 15—Str Castlepoint, from Christiania for New York, before reported having damaged propeller by ice, 250 miles southeast of St Johns, NF, is being taken south, clear of ice fields, by the U S revenue cutter Seneca and will be turned over to the first Shipping Board steamer sighted, to be towed, probably to New York.

KEY WEST, Fla, April 15—Str Hulsaco, from Baltimore for Mobile, has arrived here with damaged machinery.

NORFOLK, April 15—Tug Barstow, bound to Wilmington from this port, towing two barges, lost the stern barge, Smith & Terry No 1, approximately 15 miles SW Diamond Shoal. The Barstow will anchor her barge and proceed in search of the drifting barge. The Coast Guard cutter Seminole has been ordered from Wilmington to search for the barge.

QUARANTINE, April 15—Schr Amos Briggs, reported capsized, is passing in here in tow of cutter Gresham; the schooner is reported to have been in collision with some scows in tow of tug O L Halenbeck.

SANDY HOOK, April 15—Tug O L Halenbeck anchored in Ambrose Channel, near No 4 buoy, with hawser in propeller this forenoon. She was later towed to New York by tug Artisan.

Dangers to Navigation.

BOSTON, April 15—Str Oxonian (Br), which arrived to-day from Liverpool, reports April 11, in lat 41, lon 50, sighted an iceberg 200 feet long and 50 feet high.

[Reported to the Hydrographic Office.]

Cities Seneca reported April 15: "No bergs reported near tracks to-day; icefield along Banks ends in lat 44."

April 6, lat 39 00, lon 73 58, a light and whistle buoy in working order, showing a red flashing light every 5 seconds, thus: Light 2 seconds, eclipse 3 seconds.

April 13, lat 55 45, lon 73 34, a pile 50 feet long.

April 13, about 12 miles 206 deg from Rebecca Shoal light, a spar projecting about 8 feet out of water, evidently attached to submerged wreckage.
