SALESWOMEN.
In a highly specialized field, only recently opened to women, we are ready to take on—at initial compensation that cannot well fall below $50 a week—three or four young women, preferably over 25 years of age and of at least slightly better than average education, who will be glad to find themselves lifted out of the rut of commonplace employment with little hope of continuous advancement, into professional opportunities that hold very high financial rewards and that are unquestionably both dignified and refined. These opportunities, moreover, are within the range of any self-respecting, ambitious young woman. Experience in selling is not at all essential. Call MISS SNYDER, Murray Hill 4352, for confidential interview.
