GEN. DIAZ GUEST AT LEGION DINNER

Hopes Visit Will Tend to Strengthen Friendship With Italy.

REVIEW AT WEST POINT

Receives at Ritz-Carlton This Morning, Then Tours The Bronx.

Gen. Armando Diaz of the Italian army, was the guest of honor at a dinner given last night at the Waldorf by the American Legion and the officers of the staff of the Governor of New York. There were 150 guests.

Adj.-Gen. J. Leslie Kincaid was toastmaster. The speakers were Lieut.-Gov. Jeremiah A. Wood, Col. Alton T. Roberts, chairman of the American Legion reception committee, and Grover A. Whalen, representing Mayor Hylan and the city administration. In a brief speech Gen. Diaz said:

"I hope my visit will help to bring about the same feeling here which my country has toward the United States. I can see nothing but friendship and cordiality between Italy and the United States. Their ideals are the same, and all their relations should tend to strengthen their friendship. I hope more Americans will visit Italy. That should make for better understanding."

Gen. Diaz returned from West Point just before the dinner and was very tired. At West Point he reviewed the cadets and with the members of his party made an inspection tour of the academy buildings. As he disembarked from the destroyer Detroit a field battery gave the General's salute. He was then escorted to the parade ground and received by Brig.-Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commandant. Accompanying Gen. Diaz to West Point were Col. Mervyn C. Buckey, Lieutenant-Commander James, Col. Frank H. Hines, Col. Frank A. Spencer, Jr., and Logan Metcalf.

Gen. Diaz will receive friends this morning at the Ritz-Carlton. In the afternoon he will make an automobile tour of the Italian section of The Bronx.

BELGIAN COMMANDER WILL ARRIVE TO-DAY

Gen. Jacques to Be Welcomed by Lieut.-Gov. and Mayor.

Lieut.-Gen. Baron Jacques, commander of the Third Division of the Belgian Army, will arrive this morning on the steamship Lapland, the third in the procession of distinguished guests of the American Legion, Gen. Diaz having been the first and Lord Beatty the second. The quartet will be complete when Marshal Foch of France arrives next Saturday.

Ceremonies of welcome will be had in honor of Gen. Jacques to-day very similar to the honors accorded to Gen. Diaz and Admiral Beatty. The Belgian soldier will be met at Quarantine by naval and military representatives and by spokesmen for the State and city governments. He will be landed at Pier A at about 11 A. M. and will then be welcomed at the City Hall by Lieut.-Gov. Wood and by the Mayor.

On Sunday morning Gen. Jacques will accompany Gen. Diaz and Admiral Lord Beatty to Washington.

SCHWAB SEES PERIL IN FORCED ADJUSTMENT

Economic Laws Will Bring Relief, He Says.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Charles M. Schwab told the American Mining Congress at its twenty-fourth annual banquet here tonight that to his mind there was nothing in the business situation which time and the laws of trade and economics would not straighten out. The danger, he said, lay in the effort to force an adjustment through legislation.

Legislators must give American industry an opportunity to adjust itself, Mr. Schwab said.

"We are in difficulties. There is no doubt about that," he said. "Prices have dropped irregularly. Wages have gone down in some lines and are maintained in others.

"The products of the farms have dropped to about pre-war levels, and the high cost of transportation invades deeply the farmers' narrow margin.

"Yet the railroad workers resent any reduction in wages which will make a lowering of freight rates possible.

"Everywhere the process of readjustment is creating discord and discontent. Everywhere people want to hold on to what the war brought in the matter of increase of income and want to lay the sacrifice involved in deflation on some other back."

Legislation is not the panacea when "after an orgy of prosperity economic laws insist on reasserting themselves," Mr. Schwab said in referring to remedies for the present condition.

POISONER OF NURSES MAY BE IMMUNE FROM LAW

Status of Love Philter Problem to Officials.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—With three tests of the candy with which six nurses at the West End Hospital were poisoned still in progress to-day Federal authorities were divided over the question of possible prosecution.

Reports of the hospital authorities convinced the chemists that a so-called "love philter" had been the active ingredient of the poison. United States District Attorney Clyne expressed an opinion that if such were the case he might find it difficult to find grounds for prosecution. Whether such potions are poisonous is a point which he says must be cleared up before he can proceed.

William and Ben Zimmerman, admirers of Miss Helen Rosenfeld, one of the poisoned nurses, are still in custody for questioning.

ANOTHER WOMAN FREE IN CLEVELAND MURDER

Mrs. Colavito Acquitted of Slaying of Kaber.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 21.—A verdict of not guilty was returned to-night in the trial of Mrs. Emma Colavito for her alleged connection with the death of Daniel F. Kaber, a publisher, two years ago.

Mrs. Colavito is the fourth person to face a jury in the case. The others were Kaber's widow, Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber, now serving a life sentence at Marysville (Ohio) Reformatory; Salvatore Cala, recently found guilty on a first degree charge and sentenced to life imprisonment, and Marian McArdle, the daughter of Mrs. Kaber, acquitted.
