ASTOR THEATRE MAT. TO-DAY AT 2. Broadway & 45th St. - TWICE DAILY
LAST WEEK AT THIS THEATRE
GOLDWYN'S Sensational Screen Spectacle
THEODORA
Produced by the Unione Cinematografica Italiana
SHE GAVE UP EVERYTHING FOR THE MAN SHE LOVED
He was a Commoner, she an Empress, yet when Love called she did not hesitate. The Mistress of a Thousand Light o' Loves in days gone by—the Plaything of Cupid in a Garden of Pleasure—raised to high estate through the adoration of an Emperor whom she did not love—the beautiful Theodora at last fell the victim of her own folly when she sacrificed her throne for the one great hopeless passion that came into her checkered life.
THEIR LOVE WAS THE MEETING OF TWIN VOLCANOES
An Earthquake brought them together—only death could separate them.
PRICES: Eves., Sat. and Sun., Mats. 50c, $1, $1.50, $2. Daily Mats. 50c, $1, $1.50.

You'll Like the Theatre BETTER After Seeing
CHARLES DICKENS'
"Our Mutual Friend"
The New York Newspapers Are Unanimous

"'Our Mutual Friend' makes hit at Lyric....an achievement seldom seen on the screen."—Evening Telegram.

"Dickens atmosphere excellently brought to the silver sheet."—Evening Mail.

"Exceptionally good..... actors excellent....you can go to a good many photoplays without finding as much to enjoy as you'll find in 'Our Mutual Friend'."—Times.

"It is surprising that no one thought of 'Our Mutual Friend' for the screen before....more melodramatic action than anything Dickens wrote.... In its comedy scenes the picture is delicious."—Evening Sun.

"The charm of Dickens in 'Our Mutual Friend'..... filming of literary masterpiece."—Globe.

"Entire picture had a quaint charm....books on screen rarely so truthfully characterized as this 'Our Mutual Friend'."—Evening Post.

"We will guarantee satisfaction. The characterizations are marvelous and the applause attested that they were duly appreciated."—Tribune.
