SECTION 5–PART 1
EIGHT PAGES

THE NEW YORK HERALD

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1922.

Copyright, 1922, Sun-Herald Corporation.

ROTOGRAPHIC SECTION

"Stunt" riding of all kinds is a regular feature of the annual world's championship "roundup" at Pendleton, Ore. And occasionally one of the competitors in the spectacular events comes to grief, as shown in this striking photo of a woman "buster" caught by the camera after being thrown over the head of her unbroken mount. Above is one of the riders in the "bulldogging" contest grappling with a steer.

© W. S. BOWMAN.

Lieuts. John A. Macready and Oakley Kelley, army aviators, who broke all endurance records by remaining in the air more than thirty-five hours at Rockwell Field, California

Pacific & Atlantic.

The "Baden-Baden," a new type of German glider, with wings that flap like those of a bird.

New York Herald Foreign Photo.

"Safety Week" in New York—the parade that opened the celebration, with Boy Scouts carrying their flags and "Safety First" banners.

International.

Miss Constance Bennett, a popular member of the Junior League, snapped while strolling on Park avenue.

Underwood & Underwood.

Judge Elbert H. Gary, in a moment of relaxation, at play with the prize cattle on his beautiful estate at Jericho, L. I.

International.