SHIPPING NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

AMERICAN SHIPS GET BULK OF U. S. MAILS

Payments of $5,493,292 for Year Show $3,851,763 for Domestic Companies.

Payments for carrying United States mails overseas in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1922, totaled $5,493,292, not including $379,000 for transporting closed mails of foreign origin, according to the Department of Commerce. Of the yearly expenditure all was paid on a weight basis except $307,558 to carry out four contracts made under the ocean mail act of 1891, now nearly obsolete, which provided a system of contract payments as specige rates for American ocean steamers of given rates of speed and given tonnage.

Of the total for the year $3,851,763 went to American ships and $1,641,528 to foreign ships, indicating the extent to which the Post Office Department has been able to carry out its policy of giving preference to American liners wherever possible. Payments of transatlantic ever possible. Payments for transatlantic $908,375, and for all others, including South American, $1,232,278.

American lines receiving payments were: United States Lines, $1,036,149; International Mercantile Marine, $426,601; Red Star, $270,751; United American Lines, $149,014; United States Mail Steamship Company, $117,477; A. H. Bull, $31,887; all others, $52,820.

Foreign companies were paid as follows: Cunard, $372,230; White Star, $271,980; French, $200,003; Baltic American, $152,893; Red Star, $100,717; Holland America, $66,797; United American, $29,323; Scandinavian American, $28,921; all others, $145,239.

The principal recipients of mail payments on the Pacific were the Admiral Line, $396,543; Oceanic Mail Steamship Company (contract), $186,384, and Pacific Mail Steamship Company, $144,684. For South America and the West Indies transportation $163,793 was paid to the Munson Line, $156,676 to the United Fruit from New York and $138,263 from New Orleans, $99,942 to the Clyde Line, $99,803 to the Grace Line, $94,848 to the Panama Line and smaller sums to a number of others. The Lamport & Holt Line, the Shipping Board's principal contender in the South American routes, received but $24,172.

GERMANS GET THE ALGERIA.

Cunard-Anchor Liner Taken Off Boston-Glasgow Run for Delivery.

The Algeria, 8,156 gross tons, formerly the German liner Kigoma, has been sold by the Cunard-Anchor lines to a German company and is sailing to-day from New York on her last trip under the Anchor Line flag. It was understood that the ship would be delivered abroad, but the identity of the purchaser was withheld.

The Algeria has been regularly in the Boston-Glasgow service of the line and was scheduled to sail from Boston November 25 with freight and passengers when orders came to divert her to New York immediately preparatory to being turned over to the new owners.

MARINE NEWS NOTES.

The Sunico, 5,280 deadweight tons, has been added by the Transmarine Line, operating for the Submarine Boat Corporation, to its New York-Pensacola service, which will now be maintained on a fortnightly basis, with sailings the 8th and 23d of every month in each direction. A service has been maintained for several months with the Sunelseco and the Sunewco.

The Levant Conference yesterday extended the 30 cents a hundred-pounds rate of flour from December to March, 1923. The $20,000 forfeit plan for the lines in this trade apparently has failed.

Members of the Atlantic Far East Conference, meeting yesterday with the New York Committee of the Transpacific Conference, drew up a schedule involving some minor changes in overland rates for freight destined to the Far East and originating east of Denver. The proposed changes were transmitted to the Transpacific Conference for approval and another meeting of the local interest was arranged for next Friday.

The steamship Maine, 8,800 tons, purchased in 1920 from the Shipping Board by a subsidiary of the Green Star Steamship Corporation, was sold at a United States Marshal's sale in Weehawken, N. J., yesterday for $150,000. The successful bidder gave his name as Barnes, but his identity or connection could not be learned. The Luckenbach Steamship Company bid up to $150,010 for the ship.

Miss Ann Gerecke, for more than ten years connected with the travel service of the American Express Company, has been placed in charge of cruise and tour department of the Pierce Tourist Company.

YUKON FROZEN OVER.

DAWSON, Y. T., Nov. 17.—The Yukon River was frozen over here to-day for the first time this season. For lateness of ice this ties the record date of 1916, when there was an equally retarded winter.
