

Terms of Publication.

THE WAYNESBURG REPUBLICAN, Office in... published every Wednesday morning...

The Waynesburg Republican.

JAS. E. SAYERS, FIRMNESS IN THE RIGHT AS GOD GIVES US TO SEE THE RIGHT.—Lincoln. EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. VOL. XI. WAYNESBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1868. NO. 35.

Terms of Advertising.

ADVERTISING inserted at 50 per square... for the first insertion, and 25 cents per square...

Poetry.

ROMPING WITH A GIRL. Of all the love vouchsafed to man... In life's tempestuous whirl...

Original.

ADDRESS TO THE TEACHERS OF THE STATE OF CUMBERLAND TOWNSHIP, GREENCO, PA.

Teachers, Ladies and Gentlemen.—In the presentation of some thoughts for your consideration...

But assuming without argument, that the more thorough the education, moral and scientific...

The importance of your vocation, all admit, it is evidenced by those institutions that dot our land...

We are fast becoming a literary people. The late war gave an impetus to newspaper literature...

Mind, in its infancy, has been compared to a sheet of blank white paper, ready to receive impressions...

How many of us, in passing along the shores of time's great boundary...

But, in my mind, no figure conveys a stronger impression than that of the potter's or modeller's clay...

LEAF-YEAR DIALOGUE.—"Miss, will you take my arm?" "Yes, sir, and you too?"

LEAF-YEAR DIALOGUE.—"Miss, will you take my arm?" "Yes, sir, and you too?"

LEAF-YEAR DIALOGUE.—"Miss, will you take my arm?" "Yes, sir, and you too?"

Select Reading.

ANGLING FOR DOG.

Another time we were traveling on grounds we had no right to tramp over. The only excuse was like that of military necessity...

It was early in the morning. We had risen at 3, ridden ten miles, and struck the creek as the trout were ready for breakfast...

Charles Wesley compares our life to a dream and our time to a stream, gliding swiftly away...

As a stream, our lives glide swiftly away, some leaping from the mountain's side, in wild majestic grandeur...

But assuming without argument, that the more thorough the education, moral and scientific...

The importance of your vocation, all admit, it is evidenced by those institutions that dot our land...

We are fast becoming a literary people. The late war gave an impetus to newspaper literature...

Mind, in its infancy, has been compared to a sheet of blank white paper, ready to receive impressions...

How many of us, in passing along the shores of time's great boundary...

But, in my mind, no figure conveys a stronger impression than that of the potter's or modeller's clay...

LEAF-YEAR DIALOGUE.—"Miss, will you take my arm?" "Yes, sir, and you too?"

LEAF-YEAR DIALOGUE.—"Miss, will you take my arm?" "Yes, sir, and you too?"

LEAF-YEAR DIALOGUE.—"Miss, will you take my arm?" "Yes, sir, and you too?"

Horrible Murder.

Casey, the Irish Witness against Shugart, the Democratic Senator, Brutally Murdered—Democratic Love for the Irish Illustrated.

The Republican Journal gives the following account of the murder of a man named Casey. Two men were arrested on the 3rd inst., charged with the murder. Casey was a witness against Shugart, the Democratic Senator from the Clearfield district.

Casey was one of the number of Irish railroad laborers who fraudulently voted at Phillipsburg, Centre county, on the 2nd Tuesday of October, 1867.

Notwithstanding the facts relating to the assault upon Casey, and the great probability of his dying from the injuries received...

Johnston's power not being likely to suffice, they now seek and expect the aid of a majority of the Justices of the Supreme Court...

It is false that the Republicans are seeking to prolong military rule at the South. On the contrary, they are trying to hasten the suppression of that rule by governments elected by the loyal people...

We seek to educate and elevate all the people of the South. They would keep the blacks in ignorance, and make that ignorance a pretext for their disfranchisement...

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

Short Notice.

The Boys in Blue.

A grave, momentous issue now divides the American People: On the one side, it is insisted that all those who participated in the late rebellion...

At an adjourned conference of Union Soldiers and Sailors, held, in pursuance to published call, at Washington, D. C., on Wednesday, January 8, 1868...

Each State shall be entitled to twenty delegates at large, and twenty delegates for each Congressional district...

The disordered state of public affairs; the restoration of rebels to power; the designing efforts to repudiate our national obligations...

Let us stand shoulder to shoulder to protect the nation's honor and maintain the cardinal principles of our Government—Liberty, Justice and Equality.

By order of the Conference. Brig. Gen. T. T. CRITTENDEN, Chairman. WILL A. SHORT, Secretary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16, 1868. THE ADMISSION OF ALABAMA.

The people of Alabama rebelled, they raised large armies—they made war—they contended for years for the privilege of destroying the Union...

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

Horrible Murder.

Casey, the Irish Witness against Shugart, the Democratic Senator, Brutally Murdered—Democratic Love for the Irish Illustrated.

The Republican Journal gives the following account of the murder of a man named Casey. Two men were arrested on the 3rd inst., charged with the murder. Casey was a witness against Shugart, the Democratic Senator from the Clearfield district.

Casey was one of the number of Irish railroad laborers who fraudulently voted at Phillipsburg, Centre county, on the 2nd Tuesday of October, 1867.

Notwithstanding the facts relating to the assault upon Casey, and the great probability of his dying from the injuries received...

Johnston's power not being likely to suffice, they now seek and expect the aid of a majority of the Justices of the Supreme Court...

It is false that the Republicans are seeking to prolong military rule at the South. On the contrary, they are trying to hasten the suppression of that rule by governments elected by the loyal people...

We seek to educate and elevate all the people of the South. They would keep the blacks in ignorance, and make that ignorance a pretext for their disfranchisement...

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

That Casey was murdered, there is no denying—for he is dead! That somebody is amenable for the crime, is just as true!

Short Notice.

The Boys in Blue.

A grave, momentous issue now divides the American People: On the one side, it is insisted that all those who participated in the late rebellion...

At an adjourned conference of Union Soldiers and Sailors, held, in pursuance to published call, at Washington, D. C., on Wednesday, January 8, 1868...

Each State shall be entitled to twenty delegates at large, and twenty delegates for each Congressional district...

The disordered state of public affairs; the restoration of rebels to power; the designing efforts to repudiate our national obligations...

Let us stand shoulder to shoulder to protect the nation's honor and maintain the cardinal principles of our Government—Liberty, Justice and Equality.

By order of the Conference. Brig. Gen. T. T. CRITTENDEN, Chairman. WILL A. SHORT, Secretary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16, 1868. THE ADMISSION OF ALABAMA.

The people of Alabama rebelled, they raised large armies—they made war—they contended for years for the privilege of destroying the Union...

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

Short Notice.

The Boys in Blue.

A grave, momentous issue now divides the American People: On the one side, it is insisted that all those who participated in the late rebellion...

At an adjourned conference of Union Soldiers and Sailors, held, in pursuance to published call, at Washington, D. C., on Wednesday, January 8, 1868...

Each State shall be entitled to twenty delegates at large, and twenty delegates for each Congressional district...

The disordered state of public affairs; the restoration of rebels to power; the designing efforts to repudiate our national obligations...

Let us stand shoulder to shoulder to protect the nation's honor and maintain the cardinal principles of our Government—Liberty, Justice and Equality.

By order of the Conference. Brig. Gen. T. T. CRITTENDEN, Chairman. WILL A. SHORT, Secretary.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16, 1868. THE ADMISSION OF ALABAMA.

The people of Alabama rebelled, they raised large armies—they made war—they contended for years for the privilege of destroying the Union...

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?

But the fault is ours, we are told. Why did we give them the power to block the wheels of Government?