THURSDAY, NOV., 29 1860.

Louis Sherman.

The notorious man whose name heads this item, came to this section of country some six or eight years ago.—His first stopping place was, if we mistake not, Boalsburg. His appearance and general behavior, at that time, caused some sly whisperings and suspicious glances. After staying about that place for some time, he won the affections of an accomplished and beautiful lady whom he married. Some time after this he came to this town where he spent a few months and succeeded in influencing a young girl to leave her home. We are told that he accompanied her to the city of Philadelphia, where he deserted her leaving her a defenceless girl in a strange city. For this offence a warrant for his arrest was issued, but he succeeded in making his escape. We next hear of him in Illinois where, a year or two since he robbed a bank, for which offence he was sent to the Penitentiary of that State. He made his escape from this Institution, some time since and returned to the Western part of this county. Here he committed some thefts and an attempt was made to arrest him, but for a time he escaped the hands of justice. During the latter part of July the store of Mr. Hahn near Boalsburg was entered and a large amount of goods taken therefrom. Upon examination of the premises, in the morning it was found that the entrance had been effected by the back door, and that the goods had been carried through the adjoining orchard to a wagon in the woods near by.—The wagon, we are told was traced to Stone valley and there all traces were lost and the pursuit given up. Two weeks ago, a warrant was issued for the arrest of Sherman On last Saturday evening a week a party of six or seven men left Pine Grove for Stone Valley, the residence of Sherman. They arrived some time in the night and placed themselves in ambush near the house. At day-break they observed Sherman at the door where he remained a moment and then returned. The party surrounded the house and sent a committee to wait upon the gentleman and inform of the object of their visit. When they came to the door found it barred and they were politely informed that an attempt to enter would be resisted with arms. An entrance was soon effected and search made. After the house had been searched, in vain, the carpet was raised and a trap-door was discovered near the fire. It was raised and there sat the object of the search. He was arrested and brought to this place where he was lodged in jail.

When it became known that he was arrested, Mr. Hahn, the proprietor of the store mentioned above, thought it likely that he was connected with the robbery of his store. Accordingly Mr. Hahn and some other gentlemen proceeded to the house of Sherman to search for them. The searched the house without finding the goods. They were about to depart when one of the men observed an opening in the ceiling. They searched it and found therein a large quantity of the stolen goods.

On last Saturday night, Sherman, with two o her prisoners, broke jail, and left for parts unknown. Up to the time of going to press, he has not been captured. It is a notorious fact, that a person can get out of this Bellefonte jail with very little trouble, it being not in order to keep a person confined. A new jail would add greatly to the credit of the county, as well as enable the Sheriff to keep persons who are placed in his charge.

Thanksgiving.

To-day the people of twenty States of the American Union are offering thanks to Almighty God, the bountiful giver of all good, for the manifold benefits and blessings which he has conferred upon them. Everybody who has any gratitude in his heart towards his maker, approves of this good old Yankee custom of devoting one day in each year to the worship of Almighty God. In the midst of the great political trouble which now almost rends the Union in twain, the people of the different States do not forget their benefactor, but with old fashioned Union spirit they engage unitedly in this worship. May it ever be so.

Protracted Meeting.

Rev. Sherlock is still carrying on the protracted effort at the Boiling Spring with considerable success. The only difficulty he encounters is the interruption of the meeting, almost every night, by a pack of unprincipled and unmannerly rowdies, who make it a point to be on hand for no other purpose but to interrupt the people in the worship of God. Persons who have no more principle than to behave in this way should be dealt with in the strictest manner. The meanest convicts in the darkest cells of the Eastern Penitentiary would be fit persons to compose the court and jury to try and convict such rascals.

"The Harp Man."

This musical gentleman has been in our village for about two weeks, discourcing music on his "ancient harp," and taking in the dimes of the music loving public. He amuses the juveniles greatly by eating the money he takes in.

Vocal Music.

There will be a meeting on monday evening next, the 3d inst., in the arbitration room of the Court House, for the purpose of forming a class in Vocal music to be under the direction of Mr. H. Burlew of Lock Haven. The Ladies and Gentlemen of Bellefonte are respectfully invited to attend.

Glass Blowing.

An old man named Porzel, has been stopping at the Conrad House for a week past, where he daily exhibets the mode of fancy glass blowing. We saw some articles of his manufacture, and must say that they are really beautiful.

November.

The present month is characterized by Virginia F. Townsend as "the eleventh chapter in the volume of the year. We turn to its pages with saddened hearts, for they are not full of the brightness of the songs of May; they do not spring with the beauty and vividness of June, and they are not written with the tropical glow and splendor of September. November has not been anointed with oil of gladness as her sisters. The glow and splendor of their inspirations have not descended on her, and she writes her story in low, pallid colors, and wierd clouds, and mournful night-winds breathe along it. Still, sometimes there flashes out a lyric, sweet and tender, like sunbeams lost out of the summer, or winds which have wandered away from May; and our hearts are stirred within us, and we love the pale-faced poet, November, with a yearning tenderness that we hardly gave to her glorious sisters. We are looking off to the close of the Book we have read in storm and sunshine, in days of glory and beauty, in nights of silence bordered with stars—read it amid all voices and changes—among the white wrappings of winter and the green borderings of spring—where the summer walks in the beauty of embroideries, and the autumn in the glory of her jewels. Full of sweetness, and wisdom, and graciousness, has been the volume God hath given into all hearts, for He who inspired it taught morning stars their songs of day, and laid the foundation of the earth, that it should not be removed."

Arnold & Wilson.

We invite the attention of the public to the card of this well known firm. The article they manufacture are superior to any of the kind we have ever seen in this country. Their enambled Mantles are beautiful. They are fully as durable—much cheaper, and handsomer than the finest Italian marble. Our people who intend building fine houses next spring, should go to Philadelphia, and buy their warming and Ventilating apparatuses, furnaces, boilers, and mantles, from Arnold and Wilson.

What constitutes True Happiness?

Not crowns and scepters; not princely halls and proud domains, nor all the pomp that wealth can give; no, none of these can give true happiness. But if you want to be truly happy just call at the Saloon of H. H. Stone on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop Streets, and try a dish of his Oysters,

They are the balm of every grief,
The hungry appetites relief.

Bellefonte Academy.

This well known Institution opened its winter session on last Monday. Mr. White, the gentlemanly Principal, is well qualified for the position he occupies. Affable in his manners, a ripe scholar, dignified, but not severe. He is just the man to have charge of our Academy. Parents, see to it that your home school is well patronized.

Hunting Season.

Hunting season is at hand and our sporting men are making good use of the time, and every day we see fine specimens of deer, and other game brought to town. Two weeks ago two gentlemen of this town Mr. Geo. Weaver and Henry Kabello, started out on a hunting expedition. They remained a week during which time, we are told they killed five deers and wounded two. That we call a good weeks work.

Oyster Saloon.

We would invite the attention of all persons who are fond of a good dish of Oysters, to the advertisement of Geo. Downing. His Saloon is in the basement story of Reynolds' new building, and he is always prepared to wait on those who favor him with a call. Stop in and try a dish of as prime, fat fellows as you ever sat down to.

Removal.

D. G. Bush has removed his Law-Office from the Arcade building to the South west corner of the Diamond, in the office formerly occupied by A. C. Tonner, where he can be found during business hours.

More Music.

Sam. the banjo man is in town this week, singing his songs and "picking on his ole banjo," to the amusement of large crowds which are always sure to surround him. He is a good singer, and beats the nation on the banjo.

Killed a Deer.

Mr. James Ward killed a fine deer a few days ago. And unlike many others he did not forget the printer, but sent us a large peice of venison. He has our thanks.

Court

Is in session this week. A great many persons are in town, and business is being done with dispatch.

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED

Blood Searcher!

A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

THIS medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous Formation,
Cutaneous Diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes,
Old, Stubborn Ulcers,	Scald Head,
Tetter Affections,	Rheumatic Disorders,
Dyspepsia,	Costiveness,
Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial Diseases,	General Debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach.

Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in an impure state of Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of Aug., 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorsly that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford county, and by Dr. Newton of the Electric College in Cincinnatti, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Bleakney, of Eldertown, Armstrong county Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonsville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worse form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carltown, Cambria county, Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a cirbular to be had of any of the Agents.
