GREAT INLAND THOROUGHFARE

CONVENIENCE TO TRAVELERS.
THE undersigned has now stocked and in full operation a line of FOUR HORSE MAIL COACHES running daily from Desoto, on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, via Prairie Line, to Paulding. At Paulding connects with a line of TWO HORSE MAIL COACHES, which runs tri-weekly from Paulding via Garlandsville, Southern Railroad and Decatur to Union, connecting with the Southern Railroad near Doublin, and the Daily Stage Line from Montgomery, Ala., to Morton, on the Southern Road. The Two Horse Stages leave Paulding for Union on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, time enough to connect with the Stage the same day. The Cars on the Southern Road are now running to Newton Station where they connect with this line.
The stock on this line are equal to any in the country, the Coaches comfortable, and the drivers careful and accommodating. Passengers may rely on the connections being made.
We have a LIVERY STABLE now in operation at Newton Station and at Paulding. Any person desiring it can be furnished with conveyances to any point in the surrounding country.
