Tippah County Democratic Executive Committee.

Meets 1st and 3rd Mondays in every month. MEMBERS: C. J. Frederick, chairman; R. F. Ford and L. P. Smith Secretaries; F. A. Wolff M. J. Bennett, N. L. Marmon, M. B. Lowrey, W. L. McBrayer, W. H. Wigington, J. F. Morris, W. C. Falkner, W. A. Boyd, L. J. Nance, Dr Jno. Y. Murry, T. O Willis, Tho. White, A. A. Wall, C. M. Thurmond.

J. B. Yellowly, of Madison, was nominated for Congress by the Republican convention of the Seventh congressional (Barksdale's) district, which met at Jackson on the 20th inst. The nomination was first tendered to James Hill, colored, but he refused to accept it.

Dana, of the New York Sun, in supporting Ben Butler, who does not stand the ghost of a chance of being elected, is indirectly aiding in the election of Blaine, or in other words is using his powerful influence "to keep the rascals in instead of turning them out."

The tariff is a tax. A man who votes for a high tariff votes for high taxes. The tariff tax is many times greater than the State and county tax and every man, woman and child in the land pays it. State and county taxes may be avoided, but no man can eat, wear clothes or live in a house without paying the tariff tax. The state and counties do not tax minors. The tariff begins to tax the child before it is born, taxes it through life, taxes the tools its grave is dug with, taxes burial robes, and taxes the coffin it is buried in. In youth and old age men may escape other taxes, but the tariff, never. Who that is a friend to his fellow man would heap burthens of taxation upon the shoulders of poor old men and women as they are tottering to the grave under the weight of years and adversity? Who, for the sake of a few capitalists who have invested their money in mines and manufactures, would make the road to success harder for the aspiring youth of the present and future generations by increasing the burthens of taxation? The rich, the poor, the lame, the halt, the blind, the infant in its cradle and the decrepit old man and woman on the verge of the grave, all, all are taxed, by a protective tariff to fill the coffers of rich corporations. Do you want that system continued? If so vote for Chalmers, he is a recent convert and enthusiastic for protection. If not, vote for Morgan.—Batesville Panolian.

Wednesday we went to Iuka and heard a sermon by Rev. Sam Jones. We estimated the congregation at a thousand. The attention was perfect and the effect, as usual, electrical. The people seemed to be getting deeply interested in the meeting, except some of Springs visiters at the hotel who persisted in continuing their nightly dances. The necessity of holding the meetings in the open air was not favorable, yet there was every prospect for good results.—Corinth Herald.

In the Shaw trial at Pontotoc last week a severance was granted and after several days spent in the trial of Dick Shaw the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."—Corinth Herald.

THE DEBT OF MISSISSIPPI.

We are informed by a gentleman who has seen the editorial in Thursday's Picayune, that Gov. Lowry's administration has paid the entire debt of Mississippi this year, and that State now has no debt; consequently our fear that Lowry has undone Stone's good work was unnecessary. His explanation is to the effect that the debt now standing against the State is merely nominal, being permanent funds, of which the interests are fixed charges on the treasury. The balance of the payable debt (after subtracting the permanent funds from the total indebtedness of the State) on the first day of January, 1884, was only $500,714 66; and after deducting $168,989 60, the cash balance in the treasury on that date, the then payable debt of the State over and above her present means to pay, was $331,725 06. This amount, we are told, has since been paid, leaving no debt. The explanation of the current issue of bonds is also given, as follows: The State having recently run short of cash for current expenses, owing to a change in the date for tax settlements from May to December, bonds are issuing to supply the need; these bonds, we further hear, are to be paid as soon as the taxes are due, which is Dec. 15, 1884.

This is a splendid state of affairs. As we had no fault to find, except the supposed running behind in the fiscal management, we are glad to have that ground of censure removed. The only other States we know of which are out of debt are Colorado, Illinois, Vermont and West Virginia.—[New Orleans Picayune.

Chalmers has announced his allegiance to the Republican party during this campaign. We suppose he takes no thought for the next, but will let it and a possibility of making another change take care of itself. If there is anything that shows the ignorance and want of manhood in the voters in some portions of Mississippi, it is the fact that Chalmers' name is ever mentioned as a political possibility.—How either Republicans, Greenbackers or Democrats can vote for so complete a demagogue is a mystery to us.—[Winston Signal.

Arrangements are being made in various parts of Scotland for giving girls in the last years of their stay at school practical instruction in cookery. At present there are thirty-six schools in Scotland in which cookery is taught.

Thanksgiving.

On Sunday night a Mass Thanksgiving meeting was held in the court house and talks made by either the pastor or a representative of the different churches of the town. A general good feeling prevailed; in fact, it was a time of general rejoicing over the blessings of the three weeks revival in which so many professed conversion and the religious condition of the town was so much improved. Much good has been done and it will no doubt be lasting and perpetuate itself in the ages to come.—Corinth Herald.

Witnesses summoned to Circuit Court must personally claim their attendance either in open court or within five days after the court adjourns.—The state pays its own witnesses whether it gains or loses its case, and witnesses can demand their pay each day of the party—plaintiff or defendant summoning them; and if not paid they can not be forced to remain longer. The summons compels them to attend, but when they demand their pay and don't get it, they are liable to no damage if they go home. Witnesses before the grand jury get no pay.—Corinth Herald.

Method for Putting up Fruit for New Orleans Exposition.

For sound hard fruit—Apples, Pears, Cherries, Plums, etc., take ⅓ alcohol and ⅔ pure water. For soft fruit—Peaches, strawberries, etc., take ½ alcohol and ½ pure water, put in jars keeping the jars well filled with the fruit and fluid, and under close cover, set away in a dark, cool place, and examine frequently, removing any specimens which have become defective. Jars will be furnished to collectors as soon as we can possibly get them; in the meantime, use any jars you may have on hand, in order that no valuable specimens be lost. Purchase alcohol from local druggists on best terms you can, and send voucher to me at Madison Station, Miss., and the same will be paid.

H. E. McKAY, Chief Collector.

If Chalmers is NOT a Republican, why did he belittle and harshly criticise the Cleveland and Hendricks electors of this State, and eulogize in splendid style the Blaine and Logan electors, in his speech at the West Jackson Engine House?—Trees in this country are judged by the fruit they bear.—Jackson New Mississippian.

The Men's Prayer Meeting at the Methodist Church Monday night was largely attended, and the young converts participated in the exercise with a good will, working without balking just as though well used to the harness. The revelation here is so marked that even the most skeptical can only look upon it with wonder.—Corinth Herald.

Chalmers has had a hard time over in Tippah county this week. Hon. C. J. Frederick and Dr. J. Y. Murry cleaned him up Friday night and turned the meeting into a democratic love feast and wound up with three cheers for Cleveland, Hendricks and Morgan. The General met Judge Morgan at Harmony, in Tippah county, Saturday and proceeded to make the same erroneous statements that he made at the colored Sunday school picnic in our town on Thursday, in regard to the actions of the Mississippi legislature, etc. The General spoke an hour and half in a feeble, uncertain way, which failed to provoke any enthusiasm from his colored followers. Judge Morgan's speech showed the General how ignorant he was and gave him a castigation that he will never forget. The General in his rejoinder apologized for his ignorance and misrepresentations to the amusement of all present. The General claims to be a democrat yet will vote for Blaine and Logan, and Jas. R. Lynch says that he (Chalmers) makes a better republican speech than he (Lynch) does. How can either democrat, republican or greenbacker support such a democrat?—Tate County Record.
