1860—1900

The secret formula of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey was discovered in 1860 by one of the world's most famous chemists, and, strange to say, no other living man has ever discovered how to produce a pure malt whiskey. This great whiskey has saved the lives of thousands of people who were apparently doomed by that dreaded of all diseases—consumption. For forty years Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has stood the most critical test of doctors and chemists, and is to-day recognized and indorsed by the best authorities in the medical profession as the greatest known stimulant and tonic, on account of its absolute purity and medicinal properties. Duffy's is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey manufactured in the world. It is used and prescribed as a medicine, and is the only whiskey stamped as such by the U. S. Government.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Surgeon Under Arrest Owing to His Cook's Death.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Middletown, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Doctor William T. Jones, formerly a Surgeon in the United States Navy, is under arrest at Pine Bush, in the Catskills, charged with the killing of Charles Lewis, his colored driver and cook. Lewis was found dead yesterday afternoon in the kitchen of Doctor Jones's residence with a bullet hole in his head.

The case was thought at first to be one of suicide, but later suspicions were aroused that the man had been killed, and Coroner Decker to-day after a searching examination, lasting all night, ordered the arrest of Doctor Jones, who will be arraigned in this city tomorrow.

Doctor Jones was discharged two years ago. He served on the Maine during the war with Spain, and engaged Lewis to keep house for him and a time most of all work upon his return to Pine Bush. Both men were incorrigible quarrelsome. Lewis had an encounter with a neighbor lately, and Doctor Jones said he was in fear for bulldozing. On Tuesday, Doctor Jones stated to friends in the village that he would "kill that nigger" if he did not stop his drinking. He invited one man to "come over and see me kill a nigger." These circumstances were related to the Coroner.

Lewis was shot just over the left eye, the orbital plate of the frontal bone being fractured. Doctor Jones told the Coroner that he found Lewis in the kitchen and that the negro said that he had attempted to take his own life. It is the opinion of physicians, however, that a person injured as Lewis was would be unable to articulate. Public sentiment in Pine Bush is against Doctor Jones.

FRANCHISE AWARDED.

St. Louis County Transit Company the Successful Applicant.

The franchise asked for by the St. Louis County Transit Company for permission to construct and operate a railroad connecting from St. Louis and Clayton to Des Peres and Manchester was practically granted by the St. Louis County Court yesterday. The actual order was withheld until next Monday in order to give the promoters an opportunity to make some minor changes in their petition regarding the exact line of the route and to make arrangements for the compensation to be paid to the county, which will be fixed by the court.

The largest part of the money to cover private rights of way which have already been obtained by the promoters of the road through their attorney, Judge George W. Wolff. It will begin with either single or double tracks at the east line of the town of Manchester and the Manchester road, thence running on the south side of the Manchester road to an eastwardly and northeasterly direction to a point in the Manchester road about 27 feet west of the Kellen road, thence along the Manchester road for a short distance north to a point 200 feet east of the North and South road, over Carondelet avenue to Meramec avenue, in the town of Clayton. Another route starts from a point east of the North and South road and north of the Manchester road northeast to the intersection of Park avenue and the Hanley road, and east Park avenue to the city limits of St. Louis.

The road is to be operated by electricity or some other mechanical power, excepting steam. Passengers, freight, express and mail will be carried. The fare is to be 5 cents from Manchester to Des Peres, 5 cents additional from Des Peres to a station that will be created on the North and South road, and an additional 5 cents to either Clayton or St. Louis. The franchise is for a period of fifty years.

MISSIONARIES ARE HARSHLY SCORED.

Malietoa Tanus, the Samoan Chief, Complains of Their Methods With His People.

GET MONEY IN EVERY WAY.

Charge Them for Bibles and Books—$125,000 Collected at One Meeting—Protest to the Powers.

London, Jan. 12.—Malietoa Tanus, in a letter to the London Times published here to-day, inclosing copies of the protests he addressed to the United States, Great Britain and Germany against the Samoan treaties, characterizes the partition of Samoa as a gross violation of the treaties and as a crime against the law of nations only equal to the dismemberment of Poland, Denmark and France.

He thinks that if it is for the great Powers to promote wars and annexations to distract the minds of the peoples, then The Hague Conference was the greatest farce of the century. The writer also asserts that the civilization introduced by the great Powers in their annexations in the South seas, Africa and elsewhere, is inferior to the primitive state of the countries stolen, leading to war through breach of faith on the part of the government officials and to the decimating of the people by contagious diseases and spirituous liquors.

He continues:

"The missionaries who graced our country with their holy or unholy presence introduced the same religious differences and hatreds against each other as pertained at the hour in civilized States. The missionaries live in palatial concrete houses, with all the luxuries their countries can afford, and charge us for Bibles and prayer books which, we understand, are sent as free offerings."

Malietoa Tanus further charges the missionaries with extracting all the money possible from them, in return for which they only received a Bible, a prayer book, or a "Pilgrim's Progress." He instances the Wesleyan missionaries with collecting $27,000 sterling at a single meeting at Tonga, adding:

"The missionaries aroused a great spirit of emulation, telling the natives that the largest givers would be the most acceptable in the sight of God, thus reversing the spirit of the widow's mite."

The Samoan chief concludes:

"These be thy gods, O Israel.

"Tualoalai, Samoa."

ABOLISHES BULL-FIGHTING.

Court of Cassation Makes the Brutal Entertainment Illegal.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

Paris, Friday, Jan. 12.—(Copyright, 1900, by James Gordon Bennett.)—The Court of Cassation has handed down a decision making bull fighting illegal in France, the question arising out of the acquittal of M. Arza of Roubaix, together with the matadors named Mazzantini, Guerito and Mazon.

These four were released by a Justice of the Peace, but the Court of Cassation now declares that the permission of the Mayor of the municipality is not sufficient, since it is contrary to the law.

Bulls for fighting purposes are now judicially declared domestic animals, and as such come under the law.

This decision strengthens the society recently formed to abolish bull fighting in France. It may even render the work of the society unnecessary.

ART COMMITTEES.

Names Announced to Select Paintings for Paris Exposition.

Paris, Jan. 12.—John B. Cauldwell, director of the arts of the American section of the Paris Exposition, has appointed the following jury to select paintings for the exposition: E. A. Abbey, J. W. Alexander, W. T. Dannat, Alexander Harrison, Carl Melchers, F. D. Millet, J. S. Sargent and Jules Stewart.

On account of the limited space, the works submitted must be of moderate size, high merit and produced by an American since May, 1898.

The Sculpture Committee is composed of P. W. Barnett, Frederick MacMonnies, A. P. Proctor and A. St. Augaine.

The Painting Committee on Installation will be selected later.

CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES.

Temporary Suspension of Duties on Coal Asked in France.

Paris, Jan. 12.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day M. Breton, Socialist, moved a temporary suspension of the duties on imports of coal, in view of the economic crisis due to the shortage in the supply. He pointed out that the protectionists, M. Méline had not hesitated two years ago to suspend the duties on wheat in an analogous case. M. Caillaux moved that the proposal be referred to the Customs Committee, which was agreed to.

M. Breton then moved to suspend the duties on imported iron and steel.

This motion was also referred to the Customs Committee.

AS A SANITARY MEASURE.

France May Stop Expectorating in the Street.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

Paris, Jan. 12.—(Copyright, 1900, by James Gordon Bennett.)—A new bill will be introduced in the Chamber, forbidding expectorating in the street.

Last night, as if to support the bill, Doctor Bronardel, dean of the Faculty of Medicine, lectured before the Société Des Amis d'Université. M. Casimir-Perier was in the chair. The doctor stated that tuberculosis killed each year in France 15,000 persons.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES.

Belgian Railway Grant in China May Cause Trouble.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 12.—The Chinese Government having granted a charter to the Belgian Railway syndicate, notwithstanding a promise of compliance with the requests of Great Britain and Italy not to do so, the British and Italian representatives have entered a formal protest and have demanded that the charter be rescinded, while representatives of France and Belgium just as vigorously demand that there be no modification of the charter.

PRESENTED TO M. ZOLA.

Handsome Mark of Esteem From His Admirers.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

Paris, Friday, Jan. 12.—(Copyright, 1900, by James Gordon Bennett.)—Admirers of M. Zola in Antwerp have sent him a copy of his letter, "I accuse," and the judgment of the Court of Cassation, handsomely bound, as a mark of homage.

It appears that the book is an exact copy of the model of a rare volume in the Musée Artistique, at Antwerp. M. Zola was much touched by this new mark of esteem.

Bombay, Jan. 12.—The number of deaths here, largely from the bubonic plague, jumped up to-day from 582 to 376. The normal death rate is 75.

VENEZUELAN REVOLT.

Instead of Being Suppressed It Is Gaining Force.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

Port of Spain, Trinidad, Friday, Jan. 12.—(Copyright, 1900, by James Gordon Bennett.)—It is announced here, upon apparently good authority that, notwithstanding the official statement of the Venezuelan Government that the revolution in that country is at an end, the insurrection is still active.

It is declared that two days after the Government had announced the revolution crushed, General Hernandez inflicted a severe defeat upon the Government troops at El Nabe.

The same authority says that the rebels took many prisoners, captured 500 Mauser rifles, sixty-eight cases of cartridges, many flags, seven cannon and three Maxims, while the government's loss in killed was heavy.

Reports yesterday from the east coast of Venezuela say that the revolutionists successfully attacked the Government forces, which retired. Seven of the Government troops were killed and ten were wounded. Among those killed was Dominico Nevi, brother of the revolutionary leader.

GREETING TO HIS PEOPLE.

King Oscar Talks of Swedes and Norwegians in America.

Stockholm, Jan. 12.—King Oscar, in the course of a private audience recently granted a correspondent of the Associated Press, dictated the following message to Scandinavians in the United States:

"Tell those of my two peoples who have taken up their abode in the United States and their descendants that I follow their path with love and interest, and that I feel their joys and their sorrows as if they were my own.

"I am glad to hear that the Swedish and Norwegians are among the most respected citizens of your great country. May it always go well with them." His Majesty, who talked in a charming manner of events in the United States and elsewhere, seemed greatly interested in hearing of the evidences of prosperity in America, showed himself well informed regarding the American problems in the Philippines, and expressed a fervent wish that the war there, as well as the war in South Africa, might soon be over.

He refrained from expressing any opinion on the subject of the troubles in Sweden and Norway.

GERMAN EAST AFRICA.

The Last Census Shows a Population of 6,000,000.

Berlin, Jan. 12.—A memorial describing the development of German East Africa in 1899 has reached the Reichstag. It shows that the census revealed a population of 6,000,000.

Today United States Ambassador White attended the festivities in honor of Herr Louis Knaus, being himself an old friend of the painter. An exhibition of Knaus canvases was opened this morning. The artist received congratulatory dispatches from all parts of Europe, chief of them coming from France, and the Russian Art Academy wired that it had conferred a diploma upon him. A luncheon in honor of Herr Knaus was given this afternoon at the Ravene Gallery, and this evening there was a notable reception at the Kunstlerhaus, the costumes worn being from some of the more celebrated paintings of the guest of the occasion.

NEW MILITARY MANEUVERS.

Germany Will Transport Troops and Imitate an Invasion.

Berlin, Jan. 12.—The German military maneuvers this year will involve the spring transportation of a large force, composed of infantry, cavalry and artillery, which will land at some point and imitate a sea-line invasion. The transports will be convoyed by warships. This will be the first experiment of the kind in the history of German tactics.

A widespread scandal has resulted from the discovery that, owing to the connivance of officials in the Berlin stock yards, large quantities of condemned tuberculosis beef have been smuggled through and sold to a large restaurant and to several big sausage makers. An official investigation has been ordered.

EPIDEMIC OF INFLUENZA.

United States Consul General Mason Is Confined to His Bed.

Berlin, Jan. 12.—An epidemic of influenza has broken out in Berlin and scores of deaths are already reported. United States Consul General Mason is confined to his bed with a serious attack.

DIED IN PARIS.

Paris, Jan. 12.—Spotted Tail, the well-known Sioux chief, who has been here exhibiting, died of heart disease yesterday, 89 years of age.

PULLMAN INHERITANCE TAX.

Supreme Court Decides Upon Amount to Be Paid in New York.

New York, Jan. 12.—The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to-day handed down a decision written by Justice Patterson regarding the inheritance tax to be paid on that portion of the estate of the late George M. Pullman of Illinois actually within the State of New York. In bonds, stocks and on deposits in a trust company this property amounted to $746,761, and the Surrogate held that the whole of it was subject to the transfer tax. Some of the heirs appealed, claiming that as Mr. Pullman owed more than $800,000 to persons and corporations in New York, none of the property found in it should be assessed. The Appellate Division holds, however, that an indebtedness was general against the whole of the estate, the assets of which were three times the liabilities. Of the amount owed here, only $38,000 was secured by stocks and bonds actually in this State. These particular stocks and bonds are specially pledged, and the pledgees are liable to resort to them. The Court modifies the order by deducting the sum of $38,000 from the amount to be taxed, and as so modified affirms the order, without costs to either party.

DECREASE IN BUILDING.

Last Year's Record Was Eclipsed by That of 1898.

Building Commissioner Stevens has issued a statement showing the value of building improvements in St. Louis for the year 1899, as compared with the improvements for 1898. The total shows a decrease of $10,796 for the year.

In 1898 1,861 permits were issued for brick buildings, valued at $7,479,525, while in 1899 1,559 permits were issued for brick structures, valued at $7,067,467. In 1898 permits were issued for 785 frame buildings, costing $852,382, while in the year just closed 861 permits were issued for frame structures, valued at $847,872.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.

Mrs. Bamberger Released—Chris Schawacker as Bondsman.

Mrs. Henrietta Bamberger, the midwife, was admitted to bail yesterday, with Chris Schawacker as her security. Judge Spencer had fixed her bond in the murder case against her at $15,000 and $1,000 in each of the three manslaughter cases pending in his court, making the total bond amount to $18,000, as Mrs. Bamberger was already under bond in the Speerl case, which is pending in Judge Fisher's court. As soon as Mrs. Bamberger was released she went into jail, where she had been a prisoner several weeks before she was sent to the City Hospital, and got some of her old clothing. She was looking much improved in health.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE NEWEST BOOKS.

The many friends and admirers of the late Dwight L. Moody will be glad to hear that the writing of his biography has been placed in safe hands; indeed part of it has already been compiled or written. The biographer is the son of the late evangelist, Mr. William Revell Moody, who for the last five or six years has been collecting and editing material concerning his father, the work so far having been performed under the latter's personal direction. Still, the mass of letters, journals and diaries to be examined is enormous. Everything dealing with the subject must be carefully looked over, and its value determined, in order that the work may be as comprehensive as possible. Mr. Moody is at work upon the biography at East Northfield, Mass. It is expected that the work will appear some time next autumn.

The Century Company has just issued a new and revised edition of James Bryce's "Impressions of South Africa," containing a new chapter of sixty pages, bringing the work down to date and fully discussing the reasons for the present state of war in the Transvaal. It contains also appendices in which the conventions of 1881 and 1884 made between the South African Republic and Great Britain are printed in full.

Mr. Ernest Seton-Thompson's "Biography of a Grizzly" will soon be issued in book form by The Century Company.

It is a comparatively long time since there has been a work of fiction from Maxwell Gray, author of "The Silence of Dean Maitland," and much interest is expressed in her forthcoming work, "The World's Mercy," which is to be published shortly in Appleton's well-known Town and Country Library.

D. Appleton & Co's January announcements include "The Passing of the Empires" (Egypt, Assyria, Babylonia, Persia and Media, 850 B. C. to 330 B. C.), by Professor G. Maspero, translated by M. L. McClure and edited by the Reverend Professor A. H. Sayce, with maps and numerous illustrations, uniform with "The Dawn of Civilization" and "The Struggle of the Nations"; "The Principles of Taxation," by the late David A. Wells; "History of the People of the United States" (vol. v), by Professor J. B. McMaster; "The International Geography," by the Right Honorable James Bryce, Professor Fridtjof Nansen, Professor W. M. Davis, Sir W. M. Conway and others, with many illustrations; "The Comparative Physiology and Morphology of Animals," by Professor Joseph Le Conte, illustrated; "The Story of Eclipses," by G. F. Chambers; "The World's Mercy," a new volume of fiction, by Maxwell Gray; "Gerthowen," a Welsh Idyl, by Allen Raine; "The Gentleman Pensioner," a historical romance, by Albert Lee; "Dryden's Palamon and Arcite," edited by George M. Marshall, and "George Eliot's Silas Marner," edited by Richard Jones; two forthcoming books in the series of "Twentieth Century Text-Books": "The Secondary School System of Germany," by P. H. Bolton, Ph. D., a new volume in the International Education Series, "Stories From the Arabian Nights," by Adam Singleton, and "Some Great Astronomers," by Edward S. Holden; two new volumes in Appleton's Home-Reading Books series, and "Calculus," by J. W. A. Young and C. E. Linebarger.

"La Lettre d'Amour" is said to be one of the best love stories Richard Harding Davis has written. The scene is laid in London and the characters are a beautiful American girl, her mother, a wealthy young Harvard man and a violinist of the Hungarian Orchestra. The illustrations are by Howard Chandler Christy. "La Lettre d'Amour" is the leading story in the midwinter fiction number of the Saturday Evening Post.

Charles Scribner's Sons will shortly publish a significant volume from the pen of George Santayana of Harvard University, author of "The Sense of Beauty." It is entitled "Interpretations of Poetry and Religion," and is a collection of essays, in which the author sets forth a new standard by which poetry may be judged. They include critical estimates of Browning, Whitman, Emerson, "The Poetry of Dialectics," "The Dissolution of Paganism," etc.

A volume of sketches by Alfred Henry Lewis, called "Sand-Burrs," will soon be published by the Frederick A. Stokes Company. This house will bring out on February 1 a new novel by Robert Chambers, the scene of which is laid in Western New York, entitled "The Cambric Mask."

"Jackie Meredith" is selling in its two hundred and third thousand. The publishers, Dodd, Mead & Co., announce a new book by Jerome K. Jerome for early publication. It is devoted as a companion volume to "Three Men in a Boat," and will be called "Three Men on a Bicycle."

The fifth volume of the "History of the People of the United States," by Professor John Bach McMaster, will come from the press of D. Appleton & Co. before the end of the present month. The book will cover the periods of the administrations of John Quincy Adams and Andrew Jackson, and will describe the development of the democratic spirit, the manifestations of new interest in social problems, and the various conditions and plans presented between 1825 and 1837. Many of the more important movements of the present day, which had their beginnings at that period, are explained by the author from their inception; peculiar interest attaches to the various banking and financial experiments proposed, to the humanitarian and Socialistic movements, and the improvements in the conditions of city life.

The delayed work on taxation, "The Principles of Taxation," by the late David A. Wells, will very likely come from the press of D. Appleton & Co. some time in the present month. It will be recalled that most of the material to appear in the book has already been read in separate articles in Appleton's Popular Science Monthly.

Charles Scribner's Sons are about to publish a new book of essays by Miss Aline Gorren, which will be called "Anglo-Saxons and Others." Miss Gorren considers the question of race superiority as manifested in the so-called Anglo-Saxon nations, its causes, the likelihood of permanence, and its effect upon English and American character. The main feature of the book is the note of warning which the author utters, the weakness of the race being analyzed with perfect candor.

In William Andrews's work, the "Diuturnal Theory of the Earth," the author sets forth his belief that the earth turns like a corkscrew. It seems that this theory does not involve any negations of discoveries heretofore made. The author was an American, born in 1798, and died in 1887. His theory is that the spiral revolution affects the crust of the earth, and that the crust of the earth moves as would the skin of an orange were it twisted spirally, independently of the inner pulp.

James C. Fernald, author of "The New Womanhood," has just published, through the Funk & Wagnalls Company, a book called "True Motherhood."

Born in an Express Car.

Yesterday afternoon a solid express carload of tailor-made clothing, from M. Born & Co., Chicago's Greatest Tailors, reached St. Louis. This car is in charge of M. GREEK CHURCH CELEBRATION.

Opening of the Russian New Year Observed in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 12.—The celebration of the feast of the New Year, according to the orthodox Greek Church, the first ever held in this city, is in progress to-day. It began last night, this being the last day of the Russian year, and will end to-morrow at midnight, the close of New Year's Day. The scene of the festivities is in the residence of Captain J. Trebecoitz, and the guest of honor is Alexander Holovitzy, the Russian Archbishop of the Greek Church in America, who arrived here from Russia yesterday. All the members of the Russian Naval Commission, who are here selecting the work on the Czar's warships at Cramps' shipyards participated.

The Archbishop left here for Washington to-day to attend the feast given by the Russian Ambassador.

DOES THIS INTEREST YOU?

Quincy, Ill., Sept. 11, 1899.

B. S. Bills, Mgr., Ozone Medicine Co., Davenport, Ia.

Dear Sir—Your favor of Sept. 8th rec'd; glad to hear from you; glad you send the Ozone—was almost out. Also note what you say of the St. Louis doctor's cures of blindness, rheumatism, etc. They were indeed great cures. Guess I must tell you some things I am doing with Ozone Mineral Tablets.

H. H. Henderson, Soldiers' Home, rheumatism, had been in Chicago doctoring sixteen months. Seven months in hospital here. Could only manage to move with two crutches, pushing his feet along. He now walks from the Soldiers' Home to St. James Hotel with only a cane; round trip, four miles.

Another old soldier, by the name of L. Lawhead, cottage 12, left side paralyzed, arm and leg perfectly helpless and apparently lifeless. He also comes down to the St. James to see me with only the aid of his cane.

Mrs. R. Stallen, 1618 N. 4th st., cancer of stomach, so pronounced by eminent physicians. Says something has ailed her stomach for 24 years; stomach enlarged; in constant pain. She is now free from all pain, cancer all gone, eats anything, and says Ozone and Mineral Tablets are the greatest medicine on earth.

Mrs. S. W. Bowen, 212 Lind st.—She has doctored with the best physicians for 12 years. No relief. The doctors said it was stomach, liver and kidneys, and urine was turning to sugar. She commenced taking Ozone and Tablets the 6th of July. The other day her husband was in to see me and said she felt as well now as when she was a girl.

Now I will give you one THAT NO DOCTOR, no medicine on God's earth, could cure, except Ozone Mineral Tablets and chiropractic.

Mrs. Mattie Williams, 719 N. 6th st., has been an invalid for 4 years; for 2 years she has been unable to move her legs or even her toes; could not open or shut her hands; her knees were as large as my head; in constant pain. She had running sores on her neck from ear to ear, five had running sores on her breast and front part of body. Eight weeks ago yesterday she took the first dose of Ozone and Tablets. The sores are now all healed except one small place on neck and one on the breast, and these will be well in another week. She now moves her limbs easily, opens and shuts her hands with ease, she is in no pain, sleeps good, eats good.

I could write you several pages of people I have cured since coming here. These I have given you were all pronounced incurable. These are the kind I am looking for. Ozone Tablets and chiropractic get up the required action, stimulate those nerves that have laid dormant so long. The liver, the kidneys, are working again, helping nature, and they get well AS IF BY MAGIC. Excuse this long letter. Yours truly,

HOMER WILLIAMS, M. D.

DETAINED AT QUARANTINE.

Steamer Strabo From Santos Has Reached New York.

New York, Jan. 12.—The Lamport and Holt Line steamer Strabo, loaded with coffee, which sailed from Santos December 19, arrived at Quarantine to-day. She remained at Santos for thirty days, during which time and during the voyage to this port there was not a case of sickness among her crew. She will be detained at Quarantine for disinfection. The consular bills of health of the Strebo report thirty-eight cases of plague and ten deaths from that disease at the port of Santos.

The British bark Lancefield, which arrived last night from Santos in ballast, is also detained at Quarantine for disinfection. All on board are well.

The End of the Nineteenth Century

witnesses the unprecedented success of G. H. Mumm's Extra Dry; imports in 1899 being 100,301 cases, or 72,495 cases more than of any other brand. These facts speak, not misleading figures bid at auction sales.

ENTERTAINED BY YALE MEN.

Professor and Mrs. Hadley Spent Friday in Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 12.—Professor Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale University, and Mrs. Hadley were entertained by the Yale men of Kansas City to-day. Professor Hadley delivered an address to the students of Central High School this morning, and this afternoon a reception in honor of Professor and Mrs. Hadley was held at the Crane House. The local Yale Alumni Association gave a banquet this evening in honor of the visiting president, after which Professor and Mrs. Hadley departed for St. Louis.

TROUBLES ADJUSTED.

Pan-American Exportation Company Will Employ Union Labor.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 12.—At a meeting of the United Trades and Labor Council last evening the trouble between organized labor and the Pan-American Exposition Company was amicably settled, and the resolution adopted by the American Federation of Labor in its convention in Detroit recently declaring the exposition unfair, was annulled. Union wages will prevail and a tacit agreement was reached that union labor should be given the preference.
