CHICAGO NEW YORK BOSTON

AMERICAN STOCKS SLIGHTLY HIGHER.

NEW YORK MARKET DULL BUT STRONG.

Sugar Showed Fresh Weakness on Selling—Third Avenue Better—Railroads Firm.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Feb. 5.—With a very limited business doing, the London market was steady and fairly firm to-day. American stocks closed at an advance of ½ per cent. Consols were fractionally better on the day. The absence of any definite war news had a tendency to make the market dull. Berlin was a buyer of American stocks. Foreign bourses were inclined to be heavy. London discount was ⅛ per cent easier, at 2½. Money had apparently ceased to be a factor in the market movement.

The market here was dull but strong. Sugar showed fresh weakness on selling both from known bear interests and from general outside operators. Speculation as to the dividend likely to be paid next month was rather gloomy, but so little information on the situation is ever vouchsafed to the public that the topic is hardly worth discussing.

Third Avenue looked a little better on rumors that the expert's report on the financial condition of the company would, upon the whole, be favorable. It would ascribe the indebtedness to legitimate expenditure, and indicate a fair method of funding it. The good buying in the grangers stocks noticable last week was continued, the inactive stocks participating in the advance. There was some notable inside buying in Union Pacific, and a favorable working arrangement with the Northern Pacific Company was believed to be maturing. Could interests extended their influence to this stock and continued to buy Missouri and Southern Pacific. London sold some 4,000 shares on balance, Norfolk common in particular.

The market closed firm, and as far as railroad stocks were concerned, at the best. The notably good buying of Norfolk and Western was maintained to the close, and all Pacific stocks advanced, but more particularly Union Pacific, which was well bought by strong interests. The higher priced stocks were somewhat neglected, with the exception of St. Paul, which advanced in sympathy with the other Grangers. The near prospect of the passing of the currency bill and the excellent railroad earnings shown all around caused better outside buying. Steel stocks were bought during the day, especially by the inside interests associated with Tennessee Coal and Iron. Sugar held better at the finish, after being weak. Traction stocks were somewhat neglected, but the improvement in Third Avenue outlook helped them.
