REPUBLICANS START TO THE LOVE FEAST.

St. Louisans Go to Kansas City in a Well Stocked Private Car.

THEIR KNIVES SHARPENED.

Prospect of a Bitter Fight Between the Bosses and the Younger Element—New Machine Planned.

Some two score Republicans embarked from Union Station last night to participate in what of the Midland Hotel in Kansas City in which some Liberty baseline will be a long mind that will connect the warring Republicans factions throughout the State in bonds of eternal friendship, though others expect it to widen the breach that now exists.

A communication was sent out from Kansas City on January 29 inviting some 200 Republicans from all parts of the State to attend a banquet in Kansas City in which the Republican leaders in the western part of the State were heavily represented. The level of the invitation is as follows:

"Believing that this preliminary meeting should be confined to form an organization of the Republicans of Republicans of the State of a purely social character for mutual congratulation in order to promote the best interests of the party in this State and for that purpose over an annual banquet.

"It is not our purpose to take any action in Kansas City against anything or anything in connection with the desire of meeting the Democrats from their conventions, nor is it our purpose to discuss Mr. Bryan, Mr. Stevenson, Mr. Harris, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hanna
