SALE OF TROTTERS.

Poindexter Sold for $6,250, the Top Price of the Day.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 21.—This was the second day of Woodard & Shanklin's sale of trotting stock and prices again ruled high. 96 head were sold for a total of $24,[illegible]. The highest price was paid for Poindexter, a four-year-old colt of Alcyone and Clayborne by Clayton. Poindexter is one of the finest individuals to be found, and excited sharp competition. He was knocked down to Jakes Dodge of Paris for $6,250, but it is generally believed the horse actually belongs to Thomas W. Lawson of Boston, whose agent, Herbert Gray, was here last week. Dwight Sidney from Dodge paying $500 for him, and he came again, purchased recently in New York for $1,000, that sale.
