ANDES CAME AGAIN UNDER THE WHIP.

Jim Arthur's Horse Ran a Creditable Race With Weight Up at New Orleans.

MITCHELL ON THREE WINNERS.

Right Bower Smothered His Field —Elsmore Beat Koenig by a Narrow Margin—Statira Finally Scored.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New Orleans, La., March 2.—Lame little Andes, who has time and again this winter proved that he can run with the best of them, never ran a better or a gamer race than he did this afternoon in the mile handicap, the feature of the card. Giving lumps of weight away to such good ones as the Morris colt, Prince of Verona and Doctor Vaughn, he carried his pounds like a thoroughbred and standing a drive of three furlongs, beat the Prince a head on the post. Andes got away in front, but, making a clipping pace with that weight was used a little too much and the Prince and Forbush passed him. In the stretch the Morris colt had two lengths the best of it, but Mitchell, setting down Andes, the little fellow responded and won out. Both horse and rider were cheered on their return.

Right Bower, a 2-year-old, who has shown good form for the last two starts, was plunged on in the first as a real good thing. The general public would have nothing but him, and, although the ring was swamped with his money, there was little change in the price at post. Up to the head of the stretch it looked as if Right Bower would not finish in the money, as he was four lengths back of the leaders. Once straight Frost let him down and smothering his field, won as he pleased by two lengths. Barney F. got the place by a neck.

Fifteen starters in the seventh, maiden 2-year-olds, with fourteen of them tipped, John G. Ford received the bulk of the play, but Wax was the goods. After Ford had piloted the field for three furlongs, Wax went to the front and, stretch-gaging the field, won as he pleased from Palmer. Ford failed to get a portion of the money.

As the betting indicated, the third was between Koenig and Elsmore. Both were at 13 to 5, opening and closing, and the play was divided between them. Elsmore got away better than Koenig and had a comfortable lead of two lengths for six furlongs, when Koenig, reversing the form then raced head and head all the way home, Elsmore getting the decision in the last jump.

Allie Hale was the first choice of the bunch of nonwinners that made up the field in the fifth. There was a mad plunge on Egans, as well as on Statira and Gleaton end. After Ran Gee had shot his bolt, Statira went to the front and won as she pleased. The favorite was second.

Cortalis, backed down from 1ers to eights, won the last race by a nose from Agitator, the favorite. Sir Blaze was on top of them at the finish. Jockey Mitchell was again in form to-day, landing three winners in succession.

ALL KINDS OF BAD HORSES.

Charlie Haughton Has Gathered a Drove for Gleason to Subdue.

Professor Gleason, the horse-tamer, has recovered from his recent illness and will be on hand at the West End Coliseum to-morrow evening for the purpose of subduing wild, vicious and bizarre horses. Engage in the large number of unmanageable steeds he has for sale. Professor Captain Beaver, the Texan, and Professor Gleason, will be handling horses in the arena at the same time. The interior of the West End Coliseum has been entirely changed for the coming sign.

The first horse on the programme will be the Fetterlite fighter, John Goodie, who has a reputation for everything undesirable in the wicked line. The next horse will be the South St. Louis terror that attacked Thomas Lawler of No. 901 South Jefferson avenue last Monday and made an attempt to eat Lawler's face off. The trouble occurred in the livery stable on South Jefferson near Geyer avenue. Lawler was removed to the hospital against arrangements made by him for Horse face Professor Gleason will work at the West End Coliseum. William Crundell, with the Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods Company, has arrangements for a vicious steed to be brought in from Webster Groves for to-morrow night's performance. Mr. Arnold, with the G. Cramer Dry Plate Company, will be on hand with an animal which he thinks will give Gleason a run for his money.

BOOKS HIT HARD.

Charlie Ellison and Pittsburg Phil Picked the Winners.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 2.—The students of form had their innings to-day with the bookies.

Charlie Ellison, went down the line with a bunch of money on his favorites in nine races and picked eight winners successfully. To-night he is $600 to the good.

Pittsburg Phil played only one race, picking Corkalis, at 10 to 1, and put a $6,500 crimp in the rolls of the bookmakers. Harry Green of Spokane, beat Tascart and all other dope followers are celebrating to-night.

"BOARD OF TRADE" SMITH.

He Expects to Win Three Derbies With Lieutenant Gibson.

"Board of Trade" C. H. Smith, the Chicago turfman, states that his good colt Lieutenant Gibson, the slashing son of G. W. Johnson, will make his first appearance this year in the Kentucky Derby at Louisville. Lieutenant Gibson will also start in the Clark Stakes, Latonia Derby, Hinsdale Stakes and American Derby at Washington Park. His owner has contracted for Jockey J. Boland's services for this year. Boland is the star race rider at New Orleans this winter. He will ride Lieutenant Gibson in all his stake engagements. Charles H. Hughes is training Lieutenant Gibson for Mr. Smith.

Dan Honig has brought out many jockeys, but it is not widely known that he gave Fred Taral, the greatest rider of his time, his first start in life. "I didn't give Taral the first mount," remarked the St. Louis turfman, at Frisco recently, "but I claim the credit of helping him on his feet. About 1891 I was at Latonia to race, and there I ran across him. He had had a few mounts, but nobody thought he could ride a flick. I took a personal liking to Taral. In fact, nobody could dislike him. He was so good-natured and willing to do anything you asked him. I gave Fred a chance to ride some of my horses, and I owned some horses that could win on any track. Taral did well with me, and when it came time to go East Johnny Campbell offered him a salary of $1,500. I had told Taral that I would give him $1,000. When he told me about Campbell's offer I said to him: 'Now, you sign with him. He has a larger stable and you will have greater opportunities to make money. But Taral said he would work for me for $1,000 if I would only say the word. I urged him to go where he could do the best and he went. Taral was as honest as the day was long. He would no more place a horse or ride one in a race for work than he would think of cutting his throat. He could associate with bookmakers or pimpers without fear of any bad things being said. The public had absolute confidence in Taral, and he never, for one moment, abused it. If ever a sense of honor sat in a saddle he was one. I hear Taral has a nice home, is comfortably well off, and I am glad of it."

The Turf, Field and Farm of New York has issued a handsomely illustrated historical edition of American horses and representative horsemen. The volume is of 220 pages and contains a fund of information on all subjects connected with the different sports.

Gold d'Or, the speedy son of Golden Garter and Bella Donna, ran a fast race at the Fair Grounds yesterday. With ninety-four pounds up, he broke third in a field of seven which started for the six-furlong handicap, and racing out by himself was first at the furlong in :12, at the quarter in :23¾, at the three furlongs in :36¾, at the half in :46¾ and the five furlongs in :59¾. Of course, such a pace as this pimped out the leader, as well as the sprinters who were trying to keep up with him. Diana Porso, Hinstine and Maggie Davis were "all out" half a furlong from home, but as they took thirteen seconds to run the last furlong of the six, that game, stout and speedy colt, Andes, in spite of his top weight, was so dangerously close at the finish that Gold d'Or just managed to stanger over the line a winner by a neck. As this wonderfully fast half mile was run in a six-furlong race, it does not constitute even a track record, but as a matter of fact the conditions were not any more favorable for fast time than they would have been had the race been at four furlongs instead of six. It was a flat-footed start from the barrier, and the bar colt was third instead of first in the break. Besides this, after having run the half mile at this heart-breaking pace, he went on and finished out the five furlongs in :59¾, which is within a quarter of a second of the world's record as far as elliptical tracks are concerned. The half mile in :46¾ is only three-quarters of a second slower than the world's record of :46, made by Geraldine over the straight-away telegraph slide at Morris Park.—New Orleans Exchange.

HEIDRICK MAY NOT REPORT TO TEBEAU.

Star Right Fielder Says That Business Matters May Keep Him Out of Baseball.

TEBEAU IS NOT WORRIED.

Merry Oliver Says Emmet Will Be in St. Louis on March 8—Rip Egan Decided Not to Join the Mound City Troupe.

Writing to a friend in St. Louis, Emmet Heidrick, the plumbing supply broker of the St. Louis baseball club, intimates that he may not go South with Tebeau's team on March 9. This does not mean that Heidrick will not play ball with St. Louis in 1900, though he does not say whether he will or not. As he has had some difference with Mr. Robinson on the question of salary, it might be inferred that he will not play. Upon receipt of the intelligence that Heidrick would not report to St. Louis on March 8, The Republic sent from the following telegram:

J. E. Heidrick, Milwaukee, Wis.: Will you report to Tebeau training trip on March 8, and will you play with St. Louis team this year?

To this Mr. Heidrick sent the following reply:

Milwaukee, Wis., March 2.

Merely confirm tell you. no means decided regarding playing. J. E. HEIDRICK.

The reason Oliver has a very hard head. He does not commit himself, but takes refuge in business matters subterfuge. By "business matters" he may mean that Ed Linden's executive duties require the personal attention and that he may not play ball. Or he may mean that he has had to have his own salary before he reports. In any case it is a very good excuse. If he refers to his father's interests, he kind of hands Mr. Robinson a little a. If he refers to his own salary difficulty, he points out that he will have the money he wants. Above all he does not say that he will not play ball or make any foolish threats. It is a very handsome or tenuous. He is a sage lad, is Emmet Heidrick, and a fine young player. He will get what is coming to him. If he does he will play ball. If not he will manage his lumber camp and Tebeau will be in Hades' own hole. From Hot Springs the lessons Mr. Tebeau learns that Heidrick will be in St. Louis on March 8. Mr. Tebeau also explains that Rip Egan, his distinguished fellow-townsman, to whom he offered a chance to try for his team, will not go into training with the club. He states that he offered Egan a chance, but the pitcher was undecided and would not give him a definite answer. Now Tebeau has given up hope of getting him.

HUSTLING FOR PLAYERS.

Wagner Says a Ten-Club Circuit Is Virtually Assured.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, D. C., March 2.—That there will be ten clubs in the National League the coming season is virtually assured. Washington and Baltimore will remain, leaving Cleveland and Louisville as the exiles. J. Earl Wagner, who spent yesterday and the morning in the city, returned to his home in Pittsburg, and he is now hustling to secure players to strengthen the Senators for the campaign. He says he needs another pitcher, two infielders and two outfielders. He has secured signatures to contracts from Teachers Wadding, McFarlan, Kean and Meyer. Others expected to sign are Catcher Farrell, James Padden and First Baseman McGann. Outfielders Clifford and Stenzel have not signed yet. A short stop, third baseman and right fielder are also needed. He has two men in mind for a first third base and manage and captain the club. That appears to be the intention of the Wagners at present, as Earl Wagner said this morning that he had a deal on for Patsy Donovan, but said he had offer of trade in night.

The Washington public had hoped that Donovan would be secured and Mr. Wagner's announcement will prove a great disappointment, as the popular Irishman has been with the club the big gap made by the sale of "Home Run Dickey" Freeman. The Washington players will report March 20 for practice, though Manager Rice has been ordered to be on hand earlier if he wishes. The team will go to some place in the South for their warmingup work. The Washington club will carry fourteen players.

BASEBALL WAR PROBABLE.

American League Will Invade the Chicago Territory.

Cleveland, O., March 2.—Dan Johnson, president of the American League, is still in the city. To-day he had a long interview with Frank La Shee Robison, trying to induce the latter to reconsider his determination not to leave the baseball grounds in this city to the American League. Not succeeding in this respect, Robison insisting that the grounds could not be used by an American League club if that organization placed one in Chicago, President Johnson said last night that the Chicago Cubs team would not change its plans. He was determined to place a club in Chicago. Comiskey's team is to be transferred from St. Paul to Chicago, and if the National League refuses to extend the League agreement to the new organization there will be war. It is intimated that the National League may try to organize a minor league to fight the American League. President Johnson is hopeful as to the future. He believes that the American League will have a successful season, because the people are with it.

MEETING CALLED.

National League Magnates Will Gather in Washington March 7.

Washington, D. C., March 2.—President Young has issued a call for a reconvening of the annual meeting of the National League and American Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, to be held at the Fifth Avenue Hotel next Wednesday, March 7, at 11 o'clock a. m. Mr. Young has promulgated the following contracts:

With Brooklyn—Daly, Dahlen, Yeager, Steelman, Kennedy, Kelley, Hill, Farrell, Donovan, Craver and Anderson.

With New York—Gleason.

RYAN AND ROOT.

Charlie Haughton Says the Match Is Worth a $5,000 Purse.

The report wired from Chicago yesterday morning that the West End Club of St. Louis had made an offer of a $5,000 purse for the match between Tommy Ryan and Jack Root created something of a sensation in athletic circles in this city. By many well-informed followers of the fistic game, the report was regarded as probably authentic, for the reason that a great deal of money has been expended in improving the new headquarters of the West End Club on Olive street, and that, notwithstanding the fact that everything has remained quiet about the clubhouse, the expenditures in the way of improvements are going right along.

When seen at the Hotel Rouler last evening Charles Haughton, president of the West End Club, stated that the rumor of a draft originated on account of negotiations he had under way with Lou Houseman when in Chicago prior to the removal of the club to its present quarters. Mr. Houseman, in addition to being the manager of Tattersall's, where all the big bouts are brought off in the Windy City, is also manager of Jack Root. Mr. Haughton said that he regarded the match worthy every cent of $5,000 and had at that time everything under way to bring the two men together in this city.

"Any match," said the St. Louis promoter, "in which Tommy Ryan will be called upon to fight and fight well is worth good money."

When asked about the revival of the boxing game in this city, Mr. Haughton had nothing to say, further than that the West End Club was doing along quietly getting up a home for high-class athletics, and that the club in all probability would remain in its present quarters for the next ten years.

McFADDEN WON.

Given a Decision Over Pat Sweeney in the Twenty-First Round.

New York, March 2.—George McFadden of this city was given the decision over Patsy Sweeney of Manchester, N. H., in the twenty-first round of what was to have been a twenty-five-round bout before the New Broadway Athletic Club tonight. Sweeney put up a game fight, but was outclassed.

Jim Hayward, colored, of Chicago, and Charley McNally of Providence, R. I., were matched to go twelve rounds at 128 pounds. The New England man was outclassed and the negro went all over his man in the first two rounds. In the third round McNally was left to the stomach and crossed his right over on the jaw, sending McNally down and out.

CHILDS DEFEATED BONNER.

Scored Two Clean Knock-Downs in a Six-Round Bout.

Chicago, March 2.—Frank Childs, the colored heavy weight of Chicago, was given the decision to-night over Jack Bonner of Pennsylvania, at the end of six rounds. Childs floored his man in the first round with a right to the jaw in the breakaway from a clinch, Bonner taking a nine count. But Childs did not follow his advantage, and, with the exception of the third and fifth rounds, not much hot work was done. Bonner was nearly floored again in the sixth, with an uppercut that landed squarely on his jaw, but was fighting hard at the call of time.

FIGHTERS PART COMPANY.

Jack McCormick Thrashed His Two Partners as a Wind-Up.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Ill., March 2.—Jack McCormick, the Philadelphia heavy weight, and his townsman, Ed Denfass, the middle weight, have parted company. The end of the fighting partnership between the pair came suddenly, although there had been murmurings of trouble ever since the night Root whipped Denfass, a match that the latter thought McCormick never should have made.

Denfass did not think so till after the fight. That brought about the trouble. McCormick was willing to go along and there was a chance for Denfass to make a number of other matches here. With Young Mile, the strong man, as third member of the party, McCormick and Denfass have been living at a North Side rendezvous. A couple of days ago Denfass announced to McCormick that he was going to quit. McCormick did not complain, but he did object when Denfass wanted to know if he could take all the training clothes that McCormick had purchased for the Root fiasco. One word brought on another, the fire was passed and then came the fireworks. Mile took Denfass's part. Chairs, tables, bottles, everything in the room, including the fighters, was flying through the air in a jiffy.

The little affair lasted about four minutes. The end came suddenly. Mile went through a door and down a long flight of stairs, propelled by a left right-hander from McCormick. Denfass landed in a snow bank just outside one of the windows of the room in which the battle royal was decided.

McCormick then announced that he was ready to fight any white man in the world.

HOGAN KNOCKED OUT.

Ed Dunkhorst Finished Him Up in the Sixth Round.

Peoria, Ill., March 2.—Big Ed Dunkhorst, the Scandinavian giant, knocked out Jack Hogan of Lima, O., in the sixth round of what was to be a ten-round contest, before the Soul City Athletic Club here to-night. Hogan, who was thirty pounds lighter than his opponent, held his own until after the third round, and then the heavy weight of the Sycamore man gradually weakened him. He went down in the sixth from a right swing in the ribs and a vicious right on the jaw. The gong saved him from being counted out, but he was unable to respond for the next round and was seconds throw up the sponge.

ANOTHER MATCH ARRANGED.

Lambert Hilyer and Walter Williams Will Meet in April.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Quincy, Ill., March 2.—Lambert Hilyer, the Macomb, Ill., light weight, who was knocked out in the third round by Walter Williams of this city before the Lemox Athletic Club last night, was to-day matched to fight Williams again in 6 rounds for $50.

Pugilistic Pointers.

Frank Patterson, the Brooklyn feather weight, whose jaw was broken in the fight with Billy Barnett on February 19, has decided to retire from the ring.

Mike Donovan's bout with Young Mahoney of Philadelphia at the Hercules Athletic Club in Brooklyn next Monday night will be watched with interest by the sporting men in view of the fact that Smith is now matched to box Walcott for the lightweight championship. Having beaten Choynski, it will form a good line for the sports. The three previous bouts resulted in one victory for Smith and two drawn battles. Mahoney is a strong proposition, having fought all the best light weights, and if Smith can defeat him there is a probability of a great deal of money going down on Smith's chance with Walcott.

Two jaw breakers will furnish the star bout at the Greenwood Athletic Club in Brooklyn Saturday night. Billy Smith, the feather weight, who is in contest with Frank Patterson some months ago, broke his jaw, and Kid Mills Barnett, who duplicated the trick on the same unfortunate fighter only a week ago.

Dan Creedon will meet Al Weinig, the boxer-wrestler, at the Hawthorne Athletic Club of Buffalo on March 9. Twenty-five pounds is Creedon's measure to beat. He has and has been hard at work preparing for the contest. He states that he is in better shape than he has been for some time. Creedon, who was a victim of Joe Walcott, believes that he still can beat him, and if he wins Weinig he hopes for another match with the colored wonder.

There is great joy among the sporting men in Pittsburg at the Governor Stone veto of the bill that punishes as to be allowed to go in that city. Although the contests will only be of ten rounds' duration, the sports are pleased, as neither will they be satisfied with the fighters will battle the harder for the decision.

Australian Jim Ryan, who went to England with Tommy Ryan and seconded the latter in his fight with Phil Chase on Monday night, is said to fight Bob Plumb, who has won many fights in England during the last few years. The battle will be for fifteen rounds, and will be fought at the National Sporting Club of London the latter part of next month.

Jack O'Brien, the New York light weight, is evidently not yet ready to agree to a date with Frank Erne for the light-weight championship, or anybody else. His manager, John T. Doughertty, writes from the great feather, who is at the Arkansas Hot Springs, which points to that direction. O'Brien writes that he will not enter the ring again until he feels like he did a year or two ago. Jack repeats his several times statement that he was not himself when he met Erne at Coney Island, and that he was compelled to ask for the postponement of the proposed match with the champion at the Broadway A. C. on February 12 because he was confident he could not do himself justice at that time.

Manhattan Bowling Club.

The Manhattan Bowling Club had a hot time last Thursday night. A supper was served after bowling and everything was lively from start to finish. One of their members, Mr. Charles Ebenger, won the gold medal, presented by the Apollo Building Association, for single high game, which was 85. This, of course, was the cause of all the disturbance in North St. Louis.
