TRADING IN THE HANDS OF PROFESSIONALS.

BUYING OF GRANGERS IN A LIFELESS MARKET.

Closed Steady, With the Same Absence of Interest Prevailing During the Day.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, March 16.—The London market was heavy and inclined to react to-day. American stocks finishing dull with little business doing. Consols were ½ per cent lower on the day, on the tight money situation of the money market, which also caused ½ per cent decline in French rente. The Berlin discount rate was harder, and some outflow of gold in that direction from London seemed not improbable.

The New York market was more inactive than for a long time past, and the trading was for the most part entirely in the hands of the professional element. Pending further official information, Third Avenue held steady, but such reports as have been issued give anything but an accurate idea of the position of the road. The further report of the receiver will be awaited with interest.

In a lifeless market there continued to be good buying of the grainger stocks, and the reports of the winter wheat crop were of an encouraging nature. The bank statement and the money position had a tendency to keep the market dull, and there can be very little doubt that the showing will be pretty bad. Most estimates consider that the surplus reserve will be wiped out. The premium on bonds, however, under the new refunding scheme, may materially offset this in the near future, and it may as if the situation had been discounted.

The close was steady, with pretty much the same absence of interest noticeable during the early part of the day. Third Avenue advanced on the appointment of a permanent receiver, but the movement in the stock was apparently entirely controlled by the bull clique in it. The market presented scarcely any feature of interest, and the volume of trading average half a dozen securities was very small.

The yarn about the refunding of the Burlington 7 per cent bonds is flat, and it seems much more probable that further refunding will take place before Monday during the day rolled at 6½ per cent.
