RESCUED FROM DRINK.

Heroic Work of a Girl in Saving Her Brother From Drunkenness.

Put a Remedy in His Coffee and Without His Knowledge of the Secret Was Completely Cured.

The terrible evil of drunkenness has at last found a conqueror. Miss Mary Roberts of 1037 Golden Gate avenue, San Francisco, Cal., tells how she saved her brother from ruin, and her story sounds like a tale to every woman who would rescue a son, brother or husband from the scourge of drunkenness. She says:

"Yes, it is true that my brother is now a reformed man. For years he drank only occasionally, but at last he took to drink itself to be sober seemed a living death to him. After a spree he would tremble and shake and act as if he were going insane. He would then drink morning, but in a few days would start on again and I wouldn't see him for a week. I saw a notice in our home paper that there was a remedy called Golden Specific to be given secretly in tea, coffee or soft food and that they would send me a free trial. I wrote for it and gave it to my brother early one morning in a cup of coffee. He drank the coffee to the dregs and then I told him what I had done. He would then insist on my going with him to the Third Ward, Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Albany, Point Richmond, Vallejo, Benicia, Port Costa, Martinez, Port Costa, Crockett, Tacoma, Seattle, Portland, Astoria, Salem, Oregon City, Portland
