A Good Investment for a Small Sum of Money. In September, 1878, the Equitable Society of New York issued policy No. 84,527 on the life of a resident of Montreal. The policy was for $1,000, and the annual premium charged by the Society was $07.36.

Premiums were paid for fifteen years, amounting in all to $1,019.40. As the policy was a fifteen-year contract, on the expiration of the term, the holder had, a few days ago, the choice of several methods of settlement. He concluded, instead of taking cash, to convert the assurance into a policy for $1,000. He now has nothing more to pay, and his heirs will receive in cash $281 for every $100 paid by him in premiums.

If the policy had been for a larger amount, the results would have been correspondingly favorable.

THE MISSIONARY COUNCIL.

One of the Most Important Meetings of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

It was expected that the church commission appointed to discuss work among the colored people would meet at the Colonization Society building this morning, but as the members had not arrived, the meeting was postponed until this afternoon.

The meeting to-morrow. The General Missionary Council of the Episcopal Church which is to meet in this city, consists of all the bishops of the church, and sixty-seven clerical and sixty-seven lay delegates. It meets annually and is authorized by the General Convention to take all necessary action in regard to the work of the church.

The council will be presided over by the Right Rev. John Williams, D. D., Bishop of Connecticut, and presiding bishop of the House of Bishops.

The meeting of the council will be preceded by a meeting of the church commission for work among the colored people, which will be held in the offices of the commission in the Colonization building, 450 Pennsylvania avenue, on the day preceding the council.

HIS LORDSHIP'S STABLE.

A Look at Sackville West's Horses and Carriage.

On reading an advertisement to the effect that the contents of Lord Sackville's stable were on sale, a Baltimore American correspondent on Saturday visited his lordship's residence and was shown over the stable by Charles, the coachman.

Lord Sackville's stable is a decidedly meager one for a British Minister, consisting, as it does, of only a single pair of carriage horses.

Both these horses are for carriage work," said Charles, "but they will do equally well for riding. This horse is a little low in the forequarters, and neither of them is very good."
