CARNEGIE COMPANY INCORPORATED.

Launched in New Jersey With a Capital of One Hundred and Sixty Millions.

STOCK IS ALL SUBSCRIBED.

Mr. Carnegie Retains More Than Fifty Per Cent of the Stock—List of the Subscribers and the Amounts.

Trenton, N. J., March 24.—The Carnegie Company, the formation of which has resulted from the conference of Andrew Carnegie and H. C. Frick to settle the business difference between them, was incorporated here to-day. The capital is $160,000,000, and the stock is all subscribed.

The principal subscribers and the number of shares of each are as follows:

| | Shares. |
|---|---|
| Andrew Carnegie, New York | [illegible] |

The Carnegie Company, under its charter, is authorized to promote, construct, provide, acquire, carry out, maintain, manage and develop, on lease or agreement, railroads, line lines, quays, wharves, docks, hydraulic works, gas works, gas wells, mills, dwellings for employes and other works. The company is given express power to acquire the existing Carnegie companies. The company is also authorized to deal in merchandise and personal property of every class.

PERFECT HARMONY PREVAILS.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 24.—The officials of the Carnegie Steel Company were today busily engaged with the attorneys interested in the private affairs of the company, reviewing the details of the consolidation. Absolute and perfect harmony, it is said, now prevails. The report that a meeting is to be held early next week to elect officers is denied. The matter has not been considered, as there is too much important work to be accomplished.

It may be two weeks before the meeting is held, and it will likely then take place in New Jersey.

The salient features of the charter of the new concern, which was prepared by James B. Dill, the New York corporation lawyer, follows:

"The objects are summed up in the proposition that the purpose of the company is 'to mine, prepare for market and transport coal, iron, steel, coke and all the products and by-products.'"

In connection with these objects the company is given power to carry mills, factories and furnaces, warehouses, shops and all the various plants which are now used by the combining companies.

The company has power to transport to the market its products over its own lines, both by rail and by water.

With a view to permit the present corporations to continue their individual existence, well drawn powers are given to the company to hold the stock and securities of other corporations, to guarantee, if necessary, the payment of dividends or interest on their stock or bonds.

Full power is given to do business outside of New Jersey, but the restrictions of other States must be complied with and the permission to go into other States is subject to the laws of the localities into which the company shall go.

The whole amount of the $160,000,000 capital stock has been subscribed, and the signers of the charter are made responsible to the world for the payment into the company of $160,000,000 in money or its equivalent.

The absence of differentiating provisions among the stockholders and all arrangements to perpetuate any one or more persons in power is noticeable. The directors are not classified, they serve for one year and no more, the election then goes back to the stockholders each year, and a majority of the stockholders elect the board.

There are no preferred stocks, no restrictions or differentiations among the stockholders, and the entire direction of the company is subject to the vote and will of the majority.

The stock has been placed at $1,000 a share, instead of $100 or less, as has been the rule with other corporations.

This was done, it is said, to prevent speculation in the stock.

The expressed views of Mr. Carnegie as to the rights of stockholders to information have been carried out practically in the certificate, instead of providing that the records of the company shall be in the hands of the directors, and the stockholders shall have no access to them, the charter provides that books and other records of the company shall be open to the stockholders.

With regard to liens and mortgages, instead of putting the whole power in the hands of the directors or the Executive Committee, no mortgage or lien may be created upon the property of the company without the consent of a majority of the directors of the whole company, and that if the mortgage or lien affects the plants of the company in their entirety, or if any mortgage is to be given which shall cover the property as a whole, it can only be by the recommendation of a majority of the Board of Directors, and also by the vote of the holders of a majority of the stock. After this, it is necessary to obtain the written consent of a majority of the stockholders to the document in question.

COL. C. K. HOLLIDAY DYING.

He Is Topeka's Oldest Citizen and a Santa Fe Director.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Topeka, Kas., March 24.—Colonel C. K. Holliday, a director of the Santa Fe Railroad, is dying here. He is 78 years of age. He is Topeka's oldest citizen and built the first division of the Santa Fe Railroad. Physicians say to-night that Colonel Holliday cannot live through the night. Colonel Holliday came to Topeka from New York over forty years ago. He was prominent in the early settlement of Kansas, and as a member of the Legislature, was chairman of the committee that selected the present site of the State capital. Colonel Holliday has been a director of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway since the organization of that corporation.

EXPECT TO RAISE FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

DEWEY RECEPTION COMMITTEES NOW COMPLETED.

Active Work Done Since the Meeting in Mayor Ziegenhein's Office.

Organization of the Dewey Reception committees was completed yesterday. Since the meeting at the Mayor's office on Thursday, much active work has been done, and those who have been prominent in the movement have been in frequent consultation.

It has been definitely decided that the Finance Committee will raise a minimum of $50,000 and it is believed that they will have little difficulty in raising $100,000, in order that the reception of the Admiral may be in every way adequate. It is necessary to raise a considerable sum immediately, in order that contracts may be let and the programme arranged. All subscriptions received will be on the understanding that the utmost economy will be exercised and any surplus will be returned pro rata to the subscribers.

Four committees were appointed yesterday—Executive, Finance, Entertainment and Transportation. Mr. O. L. Whitelaw, president of the Merchants' Exchange, has consented to act as chairman of the Committee on Reception, but this committee will not be formed at present. It will be a very large one, and members will be selected from the subscribers to the fund and from those who are personally acquainted with Admiral Dewey and the Manila Captains, several of whom are expected on May 1 and 2.

The committees are composed as follows:

Executive.

Festus J. Wade, chairman; H. Hunt, man; W. H. Woodward, vice H. E. Frank; Chas. Nagel, chairman; William A. Thomas, Major Henry Ziegenhein, Charles Bom, Emil Preetorius, C. A. ## ILLINOIS TEACHERS ADJOURN.

Officers Elected and Decatur Selected for the Next Meeting.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Champaign, Ill., March 24.—The fourteenth annual meeting of the Central Illinois Teachers' Association, which was opened in this city yesterday morning, adjourned at noon to-day. By this evening nearly all the visiting teachers had left the city.

The morning session was opened with closing by the Monmouth High School Quintet. The Committee on Resolutions made its report. The resolutions said it was gratifying that the State is taking so much interest in the normal schools and the State University at the present time, and pledging the association to do all within its power to aid this work. The committee felt that the schools of the State should be kept out of politics, and that the State Superintendent should not be made a new educational feature which are being adopted by the schools of the State. The Committee on Nominations made a report, and officers for the new year were elected as follows:

President, H. J. Barton, Champaign; vice president, E. R. Sturtevant, Monmouth; secretary, Mrs. Sykes, Monmouth; treasurer, A. J. Merrer, Peoria; railroad secretary, E. M. Jerrerds, Winchester; Executive Committee, H. L. Roberts, Farmington; E. A. Gardiner, Paston, and H. S. Magill, Jr., Springfield.

The first speaker was Honorable George Torrence, Superintendent of the Illinois State Reformatory, Pontiac. He spoke on "The Cigarette Habit in Boys." The speaker constructed his address on the main premise that the cigarette is one of the most baneful vices now affecting the youth of the country. He refuted the idea that cigarettes made of pure tobacco were not injurious to the youthful user. The new anti-cigarette law, which is based on the assumption of the value of alcohol as a stand was attacked very strongly. The speaker gave some astounding figures from the files of the reformatory concerning the number of youthful users of cigarettes.

The second address was by Charles W. French, principal of the Hyde Park High School, on "Democracy and the Public Schools." After this address the Monmouth High School Quintet made its final appearance. Richard G. Boone, Superintendent of Schools of Cincinnati, then followed with an address on "Education a Process of Growth."

The meeting closed with the reports of the Auditing and Financial committees. The expenses of the meeting here aggregated $[illegible] and over, and $[illegible] was taken. The membership to the association was increased from 67 to 122. The treasurer now has $[illegible] and the association is in good financial condition. The next meeting will be held in Decatur.

MR. SPRAGUE SAYS

At the Delicatessen quality and quantity are uniform, regardless of market prices.

Maplewood School Meeting.

An annual school meeting of the Valley School at Maplewood will be held on April 2. The object is the election of one school director, and to take a vote as to whether 45 cents on a valuation of $100 be levied for school purposes.

BURGLARS WERE BUSY.

Two Residences in Compton Heights Visited.

Two houses in Compton Heights were invaded by thieves on Thursday morning. Some time after midnight they broke into the home of Mrs. Ernest Fiedeman at No. 3532 Castleman avenue, and carried away silverware to the value of $100. Entrance was obtained by breaking a kitchen window. From the kitchen the burglars proceeded to the dining-room, where they pitched things about at will. No other portion of the house was disturbed, so it is supposed they confined their efforts to that department.

The house of Robert Collins at No. 3640 Russell avenue was ransacked from cellar to garret, but nothing of value was taken. The Collins family is in Hot Springs at present, and all of their silver is locked up in a safe deposit vault.

Burglars entered adjoining houses in Armstrong avenue on Wednesday night of last week. E. A. Goerlach of No. 1205 Armstrong avenue lost a purse containing $4 and some cents. From this house the thieves went into that of E. A. Witte, at No. 1203, where they obtained two dozen spoons. A week before the home of Mrs. L. B. Jones was looted and $100 worth of clothing carried away.

PIERRE C. MAFFITT COMING.

Funeral of C. C. Maffitt Delayed Pending His Arrival.

Charles Chouteau Maffitt's funeral will be delayed until his brother, Pierre Chouteau Maffitt, arrives from Monterey, Cal. A dispatch was received at the Maffitt home, No. 1727 Locust street, yesterday morning from Pierre Chouteau Maffitt, stating that he had started with his family for St. Louis.

Charles C. Maffitt was a devout Catholic. He attended the services at St. John's Catholic Church at Sixteenth and Pine streets, regularly. At the Maffitt home, yesterday, it was said that the funeral services would probably be conducted at the church by the pastor, the Reverend James T. Coffey.

Webster Groves Mass Meeting.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Webster Groves will be held in the Bristol building on March 26. The object is the nomination of one Alderman for each ward and two school directors at large to be voted on April 3.
