FUNERAL OF WILLIAM BOOTH.

Large Attendance of Real Estate Men Probable at Service To-Day.

The funeral of the late William Booth will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Jefferson avenue and Locust street. The pallbearers will be H. B. Leiderman, D. M. Houser, Judge H. A. Clover, M. L. Gray, Louis Konze, John M. Sellers, Doctor William C. Glasgow and J. J. Ledue.

The Real Estate Exchange will hold a special meeting at the end of the week, at which appropriate action will be taken. In the meantime it is probable that almost every prominent real estate office will be represented at the funeral to-day.

Election Excitement.

Two more candidates for directorships of the Real Estate Exchange were bulletined yesterday—J. M. Levi and C. H. Anderson. The latest time for filing petitions is 5 p. m. to-day, at which hour nominations will be declared closed. There are now twenty-six aspirants for the twelve positions on the board. Thus far Malcolm Macbeth has no opposition for the presidency. The election comes off one week from to-day, on April 7, from noon till 3 p. m.

Big Auction Ahead.

It is announced that the Charles Green Real Estate Company will hold a mammoth auction sale on the floor of the exchange on Saturday, April 28. Over fifty pieces of valuable realty, including some of the choicest downtown sites, will be disposed of. A complete pamphlet is being prepared in which the property will be carefully described and platted. The auction is likely to be one of the largest ever held here, and those who seek good investments will do well to look out for it.
