REAL ESTATE.

New Directors of the Exchange Will Meet and Organize To-Day.

The retiring directors of the Real Estate Exchange meet for the last time at 2:30 p. m. to-day, and, after winding up all unfinished business, will adjourn sine die.

At 3 o'clock the new board elected on Tuesday will get together for the purpose of organization. President Macbeth will occupy the big chair at the head of the table, and as soon as felicitations have been exchanged the choice of officers will be made. It is generally conceded that the gentlemen who filled the same position so acceptably under the retiring board will be promptly re-elected—Joseph P. Whyte as vice-president, William P. Lightholder as secretary and Russell A. Richardson as treasurer.

President Macbeth will leave for Dallas, Tex., in a few days, and the new committees will hardly be announced until his return.
