MOUND CITY WON BY LOVING CUP.

G. W. Miller's Mare Defeated Triaditza in the Fair Grounds Stake Event.

WINNEBEJOUR DID NOT LAST.

J. D. Lucas Attempted a Big Coup With the Gelding, but Easter Card Upset His Plan—The Conqueror Won.

Loving Cup, owned by G. W. Miller of Collinsville, Ill., captured the Mound City Stakes, worth $1,200 to the winner, at the Fair Grounds yesterday, defeating the heavily backed Triaditza in a fighting finish by the narrow margin of half a length. Triaditza was the post favorite, while Loving Cup was the longest shot in the race. Found and Verify were the only other starters.

Triaditza worked five-eighths of a mile the other day in 1:01 and a fraction, and her owner, Tom Nepper, thought the filly had a cinch on the big end of the stake. He instructed Jockey Dominick to make every post a winning one, and the boy rode to orders. He took Triaditza to the front as soon as the barrier shot up, but Found moved up with her and the pair ran the first half mile like a team.

The track was in poor shape for fast running, but that did not prevent Triaditza and Found from stepping the first half mile in the stake in the phenomenally fast time of :48 and a fraction. Neither horse could stand that sort of a gait very long, and both hung out signals of distress in the stretch. Loving Cup and Verify moved up at this stage of the contest, but Verify weakened when it came to the final test and dropped back. Loving Cup came through the stretch like a whirlwind. She finished with great determination and got the decision by half a length. Found collapsed at the sixteenth pole and Triaditza secured second money by one and a half lengths.

Loving Cup, winner of the stake, is a 5-year-old bay mare by Belvidere—Lizette. As a yearling she belonged to Abe Cahn, but she failed to work fast enough to suit Abe, who sold her to her present owner for a small sum. While Loving Cup was lucky to win yesterday's big event, the fact that she ran like a good, game horse must not be overlooked. Had it not been for the foolish manner in which Triaditza and Found raced their heads off on the back stretch, both doubtless would have beaten Loving Cup, but that's poor consolation for the owners and backers of the two horses that finished immediately behind the winner.

Pat Tomlinson's much-touted filly, Queen Dixon, after many efforts finally succeeded in winning a race. She was a starter in the first race and disposed of a very ordinary field of fillies in handy fashion. The best of the bunch that ran behind Queen Dixon was James Griffin's Hanover filly, Sculptress. She beat the others as easily as Queen Dixon won. Queen Dixon will be remembered as the filly that worked so well as a yearling at the Fair Grounds last fall. She is credited with having stopped a quarter in :23 flat as a yearling, but she has failed to exhibit any such speed as that in her races this spring. Her owner is in hopes that she will do better here than she did on the Southern circuit.

Ramiro II, who was a good race horse at a very remote period in his career on the turf, was a strong favorite for the second event, but he failed to make good, finishing an indifferent third to Connie Lee and Billy Boardman's old Kolling. Connie Lee, who was third to Leo Planter and Celtic Bard on Thursday, ran another good race yesterday. He had the speed of his party and galloped in front from start to finish. Ransom was the contending horse most of the way. It was his first start this season, and he was hard up to a grueling race. Gomez was in his own way.

Joseph D. Lucas, the Master of Goodwood, attempted a big coup with his filly Winnebejour in the third event, but Senator O'Brien's Easter Card upset his plans. Winnebejour was backed from 50's down to 10 to 1. The gelding had speed to burn, but incinerated it early. McGinn was unable to place the gelding, who rushed to the front at the start, and tried to race his field into the ground. He could not shake off Easter Card, however, and when it came to the pinch, Winnebejour was not there. Harry Floyd, who was the best horse in the race, got off badly and never got through her field until it was too late to figure in the distribution of the big end of the purse.

There was speed galore in the fifth. Dave Waldo and Tulla Fonso were backed to beat Pat Tomlinson's fast black horse, The Conqueror, but the fast son of Sir Dixon had things all his own way in the race, winning in a common canter by five lengths. Tulla Fonso was off none too well, but Dave Waldo had no excuses.

Leigh & Jordan's Deceiver colt, Morris Vollmer, beat Theory and The Light in the closing event. Theory, Cathedral and Leo Planter carried the bulk of the money bet on the race. Cathedral was off well and led his field to the head of the stretch. Leo Planter got off badly and never cut any figure in the race.

BENNETT BY A NECK.

Tommy Burns Had to Ride the Farmer Out to Win.

Louisville, Ky., May 18.—The Juvenile Stakes, for 2-year-olds, to-day dwindled to a three-horse race, but furnished one of the prettiest contests of the meeting. Farmer Bennett, Queen Carnival and Menace finished as named, all lapped on each other and all driving to the limit. Burns had to do his hardest riding to land Farmer Bennett winner by a neck.

In the second race, Nettie Regent was played strong for a good thing, being backed from 3 to 1 to 4 to 1. She only failed to deliver the goods by being almost left at the post, for she showed she was the best one in the race by coming all around her field and running third. The good thing in the last race was Maydine, a shifty little 3-year-old filly, belonging to President and Presiding Judge W. F. Schulte of the Louisville Jockey Club. Besides being a hot one, the tip had the merit of going through, and Maydine, backed from 30 to 1 to 6 to 1, won handily in the fast time of 1:13⅖ for the six furlongs.

Skillman and Farmer Bennett were the only winning favorites. In the last race, Roland, on Teucer, was kicked on the leg by Gibraltar and was so painfully hurt that he will very likely not be in the saddle again for several days.

The Summaries.

First race, four and a half furlongs—Lonzlio, 110 (Howell), 4 to 5 and 1 to 5, won; The Butler, 112 (T. Burns), 7 to 5 and 2 to 5, second; Beau, 99 (Wedderstrandt), 10 to 1, third. Time, :55¾. Irving Mayer, Norvin Harris, Nanthos and Paradigo Wion also ran.

Second race, seven furlongs—Isabinda, 109 (Boland), 4 to 1 and 6 to 5, won; Honeywood, 94 (Wedderstrandt), 10 to 1 and 4 to 1, second; Nettie Regent, 94 (Hill), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:28. Belle of Orleans, Tim Gainey, Nina B. L., King Idylls, Sarilla, Dieudonne and My Butterfly also ran.

Third race, six furlongs—Funela, 106 (Garshberg), 6 to 5 and 1 to 2, won; Charlie O'Brien, 96 (Murphy), even and out, second; Agnolia, 97 (Davis), 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:13¾. Scrivener, Emma and Philipetta also ran.

Fourth race, five furlongs, the Juvenile Stakes—Farmer Bennett, 104 (T. Burns), 3 to 2 and out, won; Queen Carnival, 101 (Howell), 6 to 1 and 4 to 5, second; Menace, 98 (Wedderstrandt), 2 to 1 and 2 to 5, third. Time, 1:02.

Fifth race, one mile, selling—Skillman, 107 (Boland), 4 to 5 and 2 to 5, won; Semper Idem, 95 (Murphy), 6 to 1, 2 to 5 and 1 to 5, second; Eittolla, 93 (Howell), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:41¼. Trebor, Sound Money, Tolstoi and Windward also ran.

Fifth race, six furlongs—Maydine, 98 (Hay), 6 to 1 and 2 to 5, won; Teucer, 108 (Rolands), 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, second; Gibraltar, 102 (Howell), 7 to 5, third. Time, 1:13⅖. Little Venetia, Binoculars, Hurricane, Nactur and Mollie Newman also ran.

YANKEE RIDERS INVINCIBLE.

Reiff Brothers and Sloan Swept the Card at Gatwick.

London, May 18.—American jockeys had winning mounts in five events at the opening races of the Gatwick summer meeting to-day, and of these the Reiff brothers had three. Richard Croker's Scotchman II, with L. Reiff up, won the Champney Plate, and the same jockey rode Golden Horse Shoe to victory in the May Blossom Handicap. The Alexandra Handicap was won by Lutetia, ridden by J. Reiff. Sloan was in the saddle on the Stole colt, which won the Worth Stakes of 1,000 sovereigns. Half Caste, ridden by J. Reiff, won the Audown selling handicap.

The race for the Mart Plate resulted in a dead heat for first place between Mr. Croker's Ellora Violet, with L. Reiff up, and Royal River. The stakes were divided.

Start fair. Won eased up; second same. Winner Tomlinson & Woodford's b. f., by Sir Dixon—Lady Beth. Queen Dixon had the speed of her party and stepped her gait, leaving much the best of the rest; she fell off of it at the start, but showed strong. Fire Fly, a little trick, showed speed. It was a poor lot.

Time—:25¾, :50, 1:03.

CREEDON A NOVICE BEFORE KID McCOY.

Clever Hoosier Lad Slammed the Big Australian at Will.

END CAME IN SIXTH ROUND.

After a Few Stiff Jolts to the Head the Kid Hooked Left to Jaw and All Was Over.

New York, May 18.—Charles (Kid) McCoy easily defeated Australian Dan Creedon at the Broadway Athletic Club to-night before one of the largest crowds that has ever assembled in the club. Thirty-four seconds of the sixth round was all the time needed to turn the trick, and McCoy could have brought the fight to a speedier conclusion had he been so disposed.

Creedon made a poor showing. At no time did he land a blow that hurt McCoy.

The opening bout between Tommy Feltz of Brooklyn and Harry Bresnick of New York, scheduled as a twelve-round fight at 135 pounds, was a short affair, ending in the second round in favor of Feltz. The referee declared Bresnick outclassed.

Creedon was the first to enter the ring, accompanied by Dal Hawkins, Benny Murphy and Joe Caine. A few minutes later the Kid came through the ropes with his brother, Homer, Billy Muldoon, Joe Palvey and Jimmy Deforest as seconds. Both looked to be in good shape and after receiving their instructions from the referee they got to business.

When the bell sounded the Kid started in with clever feinting and foot work. He had a smile on his face, but Creedon looked serious and was the first to land with a good left to the wind. McCoy danced away and came back with several jabs to the face and body and then crossed his right to the head.

Creedon was inclined to mix things in the second round and twice landed his left to the head. McCoy jabbed and tried hard to reach the jaw with his right, but Dan held a high guard and, although the Kid reached the stomach with the left hand, he was still there at the bell, but tired.

Creedon Knocked Down.

In the third round, McCoy began jabbing his right to the wind, but was blocked when he tried for the jaw. Dan kept going, but was unable to land a punch until later in the round, when he reached the body with a light right. A left hook on the eye brought the blood and sent Creedon on his back, but he managed to get to his feet and stay the round.

McCoy did not seem inclined to rush matters in the fourth, and Dan finally cornered him and swung a hard left to the body. McCoy returned a left hook to Dan's injured eye and backed away when Dan rushed. Creedon was very tired at the bell.

McCoy came to him for the sixth with the evident intention of finishing it, and jabbing his left to the face, followed with his right to the head. He then forced Dan around the ring, but Dan sent him away with a right swing to the neck. McCoy was right back with a right to the body, and then hooked his left to the jaw, sending Dan to the floor. Creedon's second, seeing he was defeated, threw up the sponge, and McCoy was declared the winner.

LIEUTENANT GIBSON'S CHALLENGE.

His Owner Will Back Him to Beat Any Horse in the World for $50,000.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Louisville, Ky., May 18.—Charles Head Smith of Chicago, owner of Lieutenant Gibson, last night deposited with the sporting editor of the Courier Journal a certified check for $5,000 as a forfeit for $50,000 that Lieutenant Gibson can beat any horse in the world, weight for age, at a mile and a half, the race to take place after Gibson's stake engagements at Saratoga at the track offering the largest purse. Mr. Smith said that he bars no horse in the world.

CORRIGAN HORSES OFF.

In the bunch are Golden Rule, Doctor Sheppard, Geyser, Forgeron, St. Cassian, Cronus, Father York, Aloisio, Fireball, M. F. Tarpey, Tarsus and Cumnita. Father York, M. F. Tarpey and Tarsus are promising 2-year-olds. Corrigan will make his headquarters at the American Hotel, Jamaica, and will be ready for England on the Minnehaha, May 26.

Big Money for Trotters.

Dubuque, Ia., May 18.—The Natural Driving Club has offered a purse of $5,000 in its negative rate of pacers for the meeting of August 20-24. The entries close June 15 and August 15.

Track Talk.

—The feature of the racing card to-day is the Debutante Stakes, for 2-year-old fillies, at five and one-half furlongs. Among the starters will be Miss Bennett, Lady Schorr and other good ones.

—Jockey Tommy Burns left Thursday night for Louisville to do the riding for the Schorr stable there. Burns will return along with that part of the stable when the Louisville meeting closes.

BIG FIELD MEET TO-DAY.

Missouri and St. Louis Will Clash at Athletic Park.

The St. Louis University and the Missouri State University will meet at Athletic Park this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the first dual athletic meet ever held by colleges in St. Louis.

The meeting is creating quite a stir in college athletic circles, as the St. Louis University team won the Intercollegiate championship of the State at Columbia last Friday, defeating teams from the State University, Kirkwood and Warrensburg, and establishing several new records for State colleges.

Trainer Martin Delaney has succeeded in gathering together the strongest team that ever represented St. Louis college, and one of the strongest teams to be found in any Western college to-day. Its work at Columbia last Saturday was a revelation to its many friends, but brilliant as the Columbia showing was, it will probably surpass that to-day.

Coach Stagg, the M. S. U. coach, was taken by surprise last Saturday, and has worked hard with his team during the past week, and promises to make matters very interesting for the St. Louis boys to-day.

He will bring down a team of sixteen men, accompanied by a large crowd of rooters, and is confident of winning last Saturday's result. The events will be as follows:

One hundred-yard run, 220-yard run, 440-yard run, 880-yard run, one-mile run, 120-yard hurdle, 220-yard hurdle, high jump, broad jump, 16-pound hammer throw, putting 16-pound shot, pole vault.

St. Louis University should win the 100, 220 and 440-yard run, and the 120 and 220-yard hurdle, while Columbia should win the shot-put, high jump, broad jump and mile run. The 880-yard run, the hammer throw and the pole vault will be very close, with the chances favoring St. Louis, as she won the two former events at Columbia last Friday, while the pole vault resulted in a tie.

On the whole the meet should be the most interesting and exciting ever held in St. Louis, and the result will be in doubt until the last event is finished.

Driving Club Matinee.

The second Driving Club matinee will be held this afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock, over the Forest Park course. There will be four exhibition races, two classified trots, free-for-all trot, and 2:45 pace, half-mile heats, two in three. If the weather is favorable, a large attendance will be on hand. The entries:

First race, 2:40 exhibition pace: Sensation, b. g., W. G. Everede; Fannie Kimball, g. f., Louis Spellbrink; Royal Plunkie, ch. m., H. Heibert.

Second race, free-for-all exhibition trot: Alpha William, b. m., Colman Stock Farm; Susan Glenn, br. g., Edw. Cornet; A. W. Harper, b. g., Glen Welsh.

Third race, classified exhibition trot: Norman J., b. g., P. H. Callahan; Doctor Lane, ch. g., Edw. Cornet; Cotsuing, ch. f., Laurits Petersen; Mary S., b. f., M. B. Schaefer; Mat Young, b. g., W. G. Gadsby.

Fourth race, classified exhibition trot: Monnitta, b. m., Colman Stock Farm; Al Smith, br. g., Louis Spellbrink; Bellora, blk. m., W. H. Ritter.
