SOUTH BREEZE HAD ALL THE HARD LUCK.

Small Jack Was Lucky to Beat J. C. Cahn's Filly in the Third Race.

THE MONK CANTERED HOME.

Crack 2-Year-Old Easily Disposed of Skillman and Gotobed—The Sprite Outclassed Her Field.

H. J. Grothe's The Monk, one of the best 2-year-olds developed on the Southern circuit this spring, made his debut here in the fourth race at the Fair Grounds yesterday. Brewer Schorr's Skillman and Frank Fogg's Gotobed, two 2-year-olds, were the only other starters in the race, which proved a soft spot for Mr. Grothe's colt. On the strength of the snake-horse form he displayed at Memphis and Nashville this spring The Monk commanded liberal support in the betting, notwithstanding his short price. His performance justified the confidence of his backers.

Skillman tried to run him into the ground, but the 2-year-old turned the tables on the Schorr horse. Instead of running The Monk off his feet, Skillman killed himself in the effort, kicking up so fast in the stretch that Gotobed nearly nipped the place from him. When Skillman dropped out of it The Monk had things all his own way, winning in a common canter by four lengths. The struggle for the place between Skillman and Gotobed was very close, the Schorr horse just lasting long enough to get the decision by a neck.

The Monk is a black colt by Lord Esterling—Doubt. He formerly belonged to Tom Bayer, who sold him to Mr. Grothe at Nashville for $3,500, after he had finished second to Tommy Griffin's Knight Banneret in the Turf Congress Stakes. The Monk also finished second to Thrive in the Turf Congress Stakes at Memphis. Such good ones as The Rush, Florizar, F. W. Brode and Alice Turner finished behind him in this event. Unfortunately for his owner The Monk has no stake engagements at the Fair Grounds.

J. C. Cahn is playing in hard luck these days. Many close observers thought that his fine colt Thrive should have beaten Yellow Tail in the Inaugural and his fast filly South Breeze should have won her last two races. The first time she started here South Breeze finished a strong third, after monopolizing all the hard luck of the race. Yesterday she ran an impressive second to Small Jack under the same circumstances. Hinkey, who rode the filly yesterday, succeeded in getting her off absolutely last. It looked as though she was out of it as soon as the barrier went up, but Hinkey started after the bunch with South Breeze and the filly closed ground with every jump. Small Jack, who broke in front, led all the way, but he just had enough left to win by a length from South Breeze. Fred Hessig was a bad third. Judge Otero, a good-looking colt by Foxs—Juju W., from the Burnett stable, showed a lot of early speed, but tired at the end as though he was a trifle short.

A very poor lot of platers performed in the opening event. The winner, Tom Gilmore, was much the best horse and won as he pleased from Ruby Riley and Miss Loretta. Camrobert, who was backed some, ran fourth.

A small field of maiden 3-year-olds went to the post in the second. James Griffin & Co.'s The Sprite, a chestnut filly, by Leviathan—The Wraith, outclassed the rest and won as she pleased by a big margin. Benny Sullivan's recent purchase, Glen Lake, was second, but he was lucky to get that position, as Baffled would have surely finished in front of him had it not been for a piece of misfortune that befell her at the start. She fell got off on the clubhouse turn, and there was some crowding. Baffled being thrown off her stride. She got going again on the back stretch, but had to make up a lot of lost ground. Doctor Cave, who had been well played, acted badly at the post and was all worn out before the race was started.

Viet Fance beat J. D. Lucas's Hi-Noc-Ker in the fifth. The winner had all the good luck of the race, while Hi-Noc-Ker had a stormy passage. The first two had the race to themselves, Bertha Nell, who ran third, having been beaten off five lengths.

Captain C. M. Burrow's consistent little mare, Harris Floyd, won the last race by a length from the California mare, imp. Clonsilla, who was a good horse at Pelican last winter. Mystery, who has developed into quite a race horse since he came into the possession of Patrick Ahearn, showed a daring flash of speed and set a fast pace for a half mile. Iron Chancellor and Harris Floyd then moved up and led the field into the stretch. Imp. Clonsilla also became prominent at this stage of the race. When it came to the pinch, Iron Chancellor refused to stand the gaff and dropped back. Mystery hung pretty well, but Harris Floyd was the best he could make. Harry Floyd won by a length, with imp. Clonsilla two lengths before Ahearn's horse.

Barney Schreiber reports that Astolat, dam of Miss Marion, has just foaled a fine colt by Balgowan. Mr. Schreiber also states that the Messrs Cahn have sent Eclipsa, dam of Thrive and Crocket, the famous race mare, to his farm to be bred to Balgowan.

Charley Vandusen is riding free lance, but he does not lack for first-class engagements. Good jockeys were never so scarce in the West as they are now, and Van is accordingly in demand. As has already been announced, he is under contract to ride one of Mr. H. J. Scoggan's pair, either Pforiger or Highland Lad, whichever he may elect, in the Latonia, St. Louis and American (Washington Park) Derbies. He is also under engagement to ride Pink Coat in the Turf Congress Handicap at Latonia next Wednesday, and yesterday he entered into a contract with Messrs. Woodford & Buckner to ride their great 5-year-old in the Club Members' Handicap, the big event of the St. Louis meeting, to be run next Saturday. In all probability he will have the mount on Pink Coat in the Wheeler Handicap at Washington Park also. Van will take the son of Leonatus in his record-breaking race at Louisville, and he says he is the best horse he ever threw a leg over.

Talbot Bros. will go East with their crack handicap horse, John Bright, who has to his credit, among other good races, the Latonia Derby of 1898 and last year's Club Members' Handicap. The big son of Sir Dixon and Brightlight is engaged in the Suburban Handicap, and unless he goes wrong in the meantime he is sure to be a strider with the cracks of the country in the big Eastern event to be decided three weeks from to-day. He is also engaged in the Brighton Cup. What other horses they will take East with them the Messrs. Talbot have not yet decided.

The wonderful success of American riders in England has fired the ambition of Jockey Archie McIntyre and J. Morgan, the young Indian lad, who rode for Marcus Daly last season. These boys have decided to go to England and take a chance, so to speak. They will have to freelance it and take not luck, but they believe they will succeed. Both are fairly good riders and better than the average English jockey.

It is good news to learn that Bellario, the good colt who broke down in the National Stallion Stakes and then finished so gamely, is in a fair way to recover and is responding nicely to treatment. It would be a regrettable misfortune if he should have been a pity to have lost Bellario altogether, for he is one of the few good youngsters in the East this season.

J. J. McCafferty has two jockeys attached to him at the present time—Gilmore, the regular stable jockey, and Wedderstrand, one of the best light-weight riders in the country. The latter's engagement to the stockyards owner is but temporary. It is for the present week only. Wedderstrand, as is well known, is under contract to Mrs. H. B. Brown, whose horses have been shipped East.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Governor Roosevelt has appointed August Belmont and Elwin R. Morgan of this city and John Sanford of Amsterdam as members of the New York Racing Commission. The appointments are for a term of five years.

James R. Keene's crack 2-year-old colt, Chacornac, which was injured while running in the Withers Stakes, was out Thursday for the first time since the accident. No attempt was made to run him. He was just jogged along.

Charley Kuhn has signed to ride for the Clarkey Baldwin stable until November 30. As Kuhn is a good rider of 3-year-olds it looks as if Trainer Spiers had made a good selection.

On account of his in-and-out running Judge Hamilton announced Monk Wade's entry would not be received again at Lakeside. In the meantime the horse had been sold by W. J. Schand & Co., to B. Wallenstein.

Johnny Vetter, the horseman, who owned Jolly Roger and other good ones, has sold all his horses, and would go into the haberdashery business.

The stables of M. J. Kittleman, P. J. Miles and James Arthur will race here during the Hawthorne meeting.

HEAVY TRACK FOR BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

Raffaelo May Make Things Interesting for Ethelbert and Jean Beraud.

BELMONT'S HORSE FAVORITE.

James R. Keene Has Cabled a Big Commission on His Three-Year-Old Petruchio, Who Ran So Well in the Belmont.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, May 25.—On the eve of the running of the fourteenth renewal of the Brooklyn Handicap at Gravesend the task of selecting a winner is rendered more difficult than usual by the condition of the track. It rained hard here for several hours this morning, and although clear weather is promised for to-morrow, the track at best will be coppy. So that the calculations of those wise ones who selected Ethelbert in advance as a sure winner of the Brooklyn Handicap are somewhat in the air. This is the status of the race from a betting standpoint, as outlined to-night at the Bookmakers' Club:

Ethelbert	2 to 1	Imp.	20 to 1
Jean Beraud	4 to 1	Prince Michael	20 to 1
Raffaelo	5 to 1	Parmesan	20 to 1
Batten	8 to 1	Herbert	20 to 1
Kinley Mack	8 to 1	Lethario	20 to 1
Ben	8 to 1	Knight of the Garter	30 to 1
Lord Nelson	8 to 1	Satsuma	30 to 1
Approval	10 to 1	Latson	40 to 1
Torpedo	12 to 1	Strathcona	40 to 1
The Kentucky Prince	15 to 1

These odds are rather out of proportion to the merits of the horses, and the figures will be revised as the track to-morrow, but the quotations serve to show the doubt surrounding the outcome to-night. Ethelbert has been touted so much that the public cannot get away from him, and the Belmont Horse will probably go to the post a strong favorite, despite the conditions of weather and track, and the fact that Ethelbert has never done much in the mud.

Jean Beraud is decidedly handicapped by the heavy track, but the Whitney people are confident he will go the route, and they believe he will win. Veteran race-goers, however, look elsewhere for the winner. They see in Raffaelo a strong candidate. Raffaelo has worked well in heavy going and is to carry but 113 pounds. With Jenkins on his back to-morrow, the professional element hopes that Raffaelo will be in the money. A small fortune will also be wagered on Wait Not. This colt does not stack with Ethelbert, but, at the weights, he will certainly have "a look-in," and his owner, John B. Carr of this city, has advised his friends to play Wait Not across the board.

Batten, Kinley Mack, The Kentuckian and Knight of the Garter also have followers, and James R. Keene is said to have cabled over a heavy commission to be wagered on his colt, Petruchio. Mr. Keene's golding is a 3-year-old, and will 124 pounds on his back, ran the Belmont course at Saratoga Park Thursday in 2:42¾, which is equivalent to 2:08¾ for the mile and a quarter course, to be run in the Brooklyn Handicap. The question, therefore, arises if Petruchio, carrying 121 pounds, run a mile and a quarter at Gravesend, with thirty-three pounds of weight off? This is an interesting proposition, it is said that a 3-year-old never won the Brooklyn Handicap. It used to be said also that a mare had never turned the trick, but Imp showed last year the fallacy of this reasoning by carrying off the Brooklyn Handicap in 2:08 for Mr. Dwyer. Mr. Keene is interested in wagering a few thousand dollars on his candidate, if for no other than sentimental reasons, for Petruchio is in rare form and may surprise the natives to-morrow.

Imp. is generally conceded to be overweighted. The heavy track materially reduces her chances. She also has the additional handicap of Chacornac, who has been engaged to ride her instead of Pete Clay, the regular stable jockey. Chacornac is riding in very bad form and probably does not understand Imp. as well as Pete Clay, who is piloting the Ohio mare home to-morrow through the mud.

The long shots are Strathcona, Latson, Lethario, Prince Michael, Satsuma, Knight of the Garter and Herbert. These horses will, of course, find backers, and Knight of the Garter is favored by the fact that he ran a good race of last year. He is a son of the Knight of Ellerslie, and all of the Ellerslie horses are good in the mud.

The track employes were busy to-night in spreading out the track at Gravesend, and it is expected to improve the condition of the track by to-morrow. It is apparent, however, that the track will be slow and that the chances of the horses carrying top weight will be materially reduced.
