RUSSELL R. MADE IT FOUR STRAIGHT.

Charlie Ellison's Terra Cotta Colt Seems to Be Unbeatable Right Now.

THEORY BEAT LORD NEVILLE.

Nose Finish Between the Pair, Gilmore Outriding Dominick—Pinochle Won the Handicap From Wounded Knee.

A very satisfactory lot of racing took place at the Fair Grounds yesterday. Well-backed horses scored in every event, and the public had much the best of the argument with the bookies. The best race on the card was the fourth, a free handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, which brought out a field of five. It proved to be a very warm betting proposition, every horse in the race having been backed more or less.

The winner turned up in Pinochle, who beat Louis Lemp's crack 3-year-old Wounded Knee by two lengths. Wounded Knee's good showing was the feature of the race. The 3-year-old son of Imp, Foul Shot and Valencia was giving away all kinds of weight to all his horses, and nothing but lack of condition prevented him from handing them a beating in the bargain.

It was Wounded Knee's second start of the meeting, and he was hardly ready for a grueling race at the distance. He led his field to the eighth pole, then tired badly; but when Pinochle closed on him, the game son of Foul Shot came again with the greatest determination, and Pinochle had to be ridden out to get away from him at the end.

Wounded Knee is a well-developed, racy looking thoroughbred, but he is still as green as a 2-year-old in the spring. Yesterday was the fifth time he ever went to the post in his life, and he has yet to learn how to run right. When he adapts himself to his business and gets onto the bang of running with the least exertion to himself, it will take a right shifty sort of horse to beat him.

As has already been stated in these columns, Wounded Knee is a Derby possibility of no mean caliber. This colt will have a big pull in the weights in that event, and the chances are that he will give a good account of himself in the stake.

Charlie Ellison's Russell R., the handiest horse developed at the present meeting, annexed another purse for his owner yesterday. Morris Volmer and Terra Incognita were both backed to beat him, but Terra Incognita failed to finish in the money, while even old Ransom took Morris Volmer's measure. Duke Melbourne, Captain Billy Williamson's recent purchase, led on sufferance until Russell R. got ready to take command of the procession. After that it was Russell R. all the way. Morris Volmer was second at the head of the stretch, but he was unable to stall off Ransom at the end and lost the place.

Abe Cahn won his first race of the meeting with Golden Harvest in the second event, a dash for maiden 2-year-old fillies. The Free Knight filly was much the best horse in the race and was an also pleased by three lengths from James Ghio's Sophie S., by Doctor Hasbrouck, imp. Tu Tu.

Sophie S. is the filly that captured the blue ribbon in the yearling thoroughbred filly competition at the St. Louis Fair last fall. She belonged to the late G. C. Moffitt at the time. Lakeview Belle, by Imp. Rossington—Linas, was backed for a good thing in this race, but her jockey, W. Dean, was caught in the gate just as the start was effected and was thrown from the saddle.

Dorothy Lee, by Doctor Hasbrouck—Lucille Manette, also started in this race and showed a lot of early speed, but stopped at the head of the stretch, as though she had shot. She was bred by the late C. C. Moffitt, and is now racing in the name of G. C. Baker, who is a son of Colonel H. R. Baker, who used to train for Mr. Moffitt.

For some reason or other Senator O'Brien's crazy filly, Lady Curzon, was made a favorite over Maydine in the third event, although the latter on her Louisville form seemed to hold everything in the race safe. The result was entirely satisfactory to Maydine's backers, as she rolled home two lengths before J. D. Lucas's speedy, but faint-hearted, Winnebejour, who made the running the first half mile. Charlie Ellison's Terra Cotta was third, three lengths in front of Lady Curzon, who got off some too well, after being considerably used up at the post.

Barrica, who ran second to Belle of Orleans in this year's Tennessee Oaks, was fifth, only a nose behind Lady Curzon. Barrica is now racing in the name of D. J. Sullivan, the old Twenty-fourth Ward statesman.

M. S. Hughes's Missouri-bred colt, Siddara, outclassed the big band of maiden 3-year-olds that opposed him in the fifth event and won off by himself. Dangerline, a handsome big colt by Dangerous, from the Schorr stable, chased a lot of ground in the stretch and beat out Decrys for the place one length. G. C. Bennett's Judge Otero, who was well backed on the strength of his fine burst of speed in his last race, finished fifth, a neck behind the third horse.

Lord Neville was a slight favorite over Dan Henig's mare, Theory, in the last race. The latter won by a nose, but Lord Neville was the best horse. Gilmore, on Theory, outrode Dominick at the finish. Leigh and Jordan's old cripple, Horseshoe Tobacco, had the foot of the party for a half mile, but stopped then as though he had been shot. Theory and Lord Neville came together at the eighth pole and had a duel through the stretch, which ended as described above.

HEAVY TRACK AT HAWTHORNE.

Great Head and Woodrice Were Among the Winners.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Ill., May 29.—Great Head, fresh from Southern victories, was the odds favorite to win today at Hawthorne. In the third race he took away his Russell and ran everything into submission before reaching the stretch with the exception of Mole, who collared him six jumps from the wire, but Great Head beat him out half a length.

Princess Tatyana in the first race parted company with the struggling bunch behind her and splashed home a favored winner.

Innovator, long overdue, scored for Louis Ezell in the second race, heading out the favorite, Braw Lad, by five lengths coming up.

Woodrice, a very consistent colt, contested home an easy winner in the fourth race.

A sensational finish occurred in the per race when Gold Heels and Kid Cox dashed past the wire apparently on even terms, but to those who were near the finishing line it was evident that the former crowed first by a neck.

Maccabee, an exploded phenomenon, went to the post favorite in the eleventh race today. The successful animal entered in Orlando, who beat Oxtard by a length at the wire, with Papa Harry third.

Not a favorite landed a purse during the day's sport, the money being divided among four outsiders and two second choices.

BEN FROST BEAT AGITATOR.

One Hundred to One Shot Went Through at the Latonia Track.

Cincinnati, O., May 29.—Ben Frost, at 100 to 1, gave the talent an awful shock by beating Agitator at Latonia to-day. Agitator was played for a good thing and got a running start on his field. After leading all the way to within a few yards of the wire he faltered and Ben Frost came through with a mighty rush and landed first money by a head. The track was still muddy, but is fast drying out. To-morrow the Turf Congress Handicap will be the feature. Weather fair. Attendance 2,000. The summaries:
