WABASH

New York

New Midnight Train.

Just two years ago the Wabash added the "Continental Limited" to its service between St. Louis and New York and Boston—it will be quicker than ever this year, but a new train will be added to our already superior service, which will make the Wabash pre-eminently the line for St. Louis' eastern travel. On June 3d, and daily thereafter, you can leave St. Louis at 11.30 p. m. via the Wabash, and arrive in New York at 7.30 the second morning, and at Boston 10.34 a. m.

CHURCH NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

Ten churches of the city have combined and secured the refreshment privileges of the Public Teachers' Annuity Fund picnic, which is to be held at the Fair Grounds next Saturday, June 8. It is for purpose of these churches to furnish dinner, lunches, sandwiches, ice cream, coffee, lemonade and other edibles at popular prices. The following is the list: Fountain Park, Hyde Park, Compton Hill and Church of the Redeemer Congregational churches, North Church, Church of the Covenant, Curby Memorial and Cook Avenue Presbyterian churches, Water Tower Baptist and St. Paul's Methodist. The ladies of these several churches are making extensive preparations to meet the wants of all who shall attend.

At the First Congregational Church tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock, the pulpit will be occupied by the Reverend H. H. Hall and there will be the usual music, service by the choir, under Professor Krueger's direction. The choir will also be assisted by the Elks' Male Quartet, composed of Messrs John A. Dower, Otto Wheeler, James J. Rohan and John A. Rohan. The following is the musical programme:

Organ Voluntary, "Serenade in G"..... Bailey
Anthem—I Will Magnify Thee ..... Hopkins
Male Quartet—Remember Now Thy Creator ..... Rhodes
Anthem—My Faith Looks Up to Thee ..... Lowrey
Male Quartet—The Heavens Proclaim ..... Beethoven
Organ Postlude ..... Bach

The Reverend H. F. Williams, formerly pastor of the Church of the Covenant, this city, but for the last year general synodical evangelist for the State of Texas will sail to-day on the Potsdam for England, where he will attend the World's Christian Endeavor Convention. Thence he will tour the Continent, and return in October next. Mr. Williams has closed a very successful tour of Texas in evangelistic work, and his resignation of the position of synodical evangelist was due to his ill health. It is his purpose to other evangelistic work after his return in the fall, making St. Louis headquarters for the South and West.

There will be services at the Temple, Beaumont and Locust streets, to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, and again in the evening, the Reverend L. C. Hall to preach. Mrs. Mary McGee Hall is absent from the city, holding a convention in Morris, Vermont. The Reverend Seth F. Rees of Providence, R. I., an evangelist of note, will begin a series of revival meetings at the Temple next Saturday, June 12.

The "railroad social" of the Central Christian Endeavor Division, which was postponed on account of the strike, will be held at the First Presbyterian Church Lindell. The committee has arranged the programme for the evening promises an enjoyable evening.

The Holy Ghost School will hold a picnic June 5 at Olenstein's Grove.

The Loyal Temperance Legion of Union Mission, Company F, will give an entertainment at the mission next Tuesday night, and the programme will include songs and recitations by the children, under the direction of Mrs. Lucy Culver, superintendent.

The members and friends of the Jennings M. E. Church gave its new pastor, the Reverend R. D. Snyder, a reception last night, and a number of tokens of friendship and appreciation were bestowed. The ladies of the church have also arranged for a lawn party on the church grounds next Tuesday.

The sixth district of the Prohibition Union of Christian Men will hold a gospel temperance meeting at the Christian Assembly Church, corner of Folsom and Tower Grove avenues, to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. There will be a number of brief addresses and some special business will be transacted.

The Reverend M. B. Gott, pastor of Union Mission, has returned from a ten days' series of revival meetings at the Union Mission, Kansas City, and states that more than forty persons professed conversion.

The Reverend Doctor Frank W. Sneed, pastor of the Washington and Compton Avenue Presbyterian Church, preaches the baccalaureate sermon at Westminster College to-morrow, and his pulpit will be supplied morning and evening by the Reverend H. M. Campbell, pastor of the Cote Brilliante Church.

The Reverend Doctor William M. Jones, pastor of Hyde Park Congregational Church, will preach the baccalaureate sermon at the Kidder Institute, Mo., tomorrow, and his pulpit will be supplied morning and evening by the Reverend Joe A. Wray of Kansas City. Doctor Jones is a trustee of the Kidder Institute.

To-morrow morning, in place of the regular services, the Church of the Unity will hold a joint flower service with the Sunday-school and W. D. Armstrong, organist, will render the following numbers: "Largo" from the second sonata, Beethoven; "Nocturne, Midsummer's Night Dream," Mendelssohn; "March Triumphal," Du Bois.

The Fountain Park Congregational church will hold its annual Sunday-school outing July 3, when a trip up the river will be taken. A special programme for the occasion is in course of preparation.

The Tyler Place Presbyterian Church and Sunday-school will hold their annual picnic at Tower Grove Park next Saturday, June 9.

The Pilgrim and First Congregational churches and the First Presbyterian Church and Sunday-schools will hold their annual picnic to-day. It will include a trip to Montesano on the City of Providence.

Evangelist Aura Smith will continue revival meetings in the gospel tent, corner of Twenty-second and Locust streets all next week.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

Topic; "Always Ready" (Luke xxi, 29—36: xii, 35—40).

The universal theme for conference at the meetings of the various denominational young people's societies next Sunday evening is "Always Ready," founded on two Scriptures: Luke xxi, 29—36, and xii, 35—40. The first passage named was spoken to certain disciples concerning the signs of his earthly coming, and has a double reference, first, as to the destruction of Jerusalem, and, secondarily to his second coming. The second passage relates exclusively to Christ's second coming, and, in addition, to a certain personal second coming not included in the first as set forth therein.

The one, therefore, relates in a particular manner to the destruction of Jerusalem, which occurred under Titus, A. D. 70. For, says the Master, "This generation shall not pass away until all these things be fulfilled." Jesus, however, gives the statement intentionally obscure, difficult to understand and designate what refers specially to this event and what to the second coming of Christ as ordinarily understood. It is also difficult to determine accurately in what sense these words may be understood as having reference to the personal coming of Christ, the Scriptures generally speaking it is said: "Of that day and hour knoweth no man, neither the angels in the Son, but the Father only." But of its suddenness and certainty, there can be no doubt.

The great thought in connection with both Scriptures is heavenly watchfulness and readiness for Christ's coming, whether personally, as in the hour of death, or collectively as when he comes in the clouds of heaven, with his angels and in mighty power and glory. "He ye therefore ready," says Christ, "for the Son of Man cometh at an hour when ye think not." "Watch ye, therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man." The practical question then is, in what does this readiness consist?

First, we suggest that it involves the question of personal relation to Christ by faith. Do we sustain this relation, and, if so, to what extent? Have we placed our future destiny in his hands and committed to him the keeping of our lives? Are we resting in him, casting all our cares and burdens upon him? Or, are we carrying our own personal spiritual insurance and shaping our destiny independent of him, who holds us as in the hollow of his hand? If so, then we are not ready for Christ's coming.

Second, there is what might be termed a subjective readiness which is of equal importance. This is brought out in the statement, "Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares." All this relates to the question of personal holiness of life, without which "no man shall see the Lord." Here is room for introspection, and a breathing of the prayer, "Cleanse thou me from secret faults; keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression."

Last thought in this connection is the importance of so arranging all business and social matters as to be ready to respond to the Master's summons at any time. Many well-meaning disciples of Christ are extremely negligent in this respect, and pass by and neglect to attend upon them without suitable spiritual training and mutual support. This is contrary to the principle announced by the apostle Paul, when he says: "He that provideth not for his own, and especially they of his own household, hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel." By proper attention to the above directions, we may ever be in readiness when the Master comes.
