CHICAGO NOSED OUT OF CHAMPIONSHIP.

University of Michigan Track Team Won by Half a Point.

CALIFORNIA A CLOSE THIRD.

Notwithstanding Bad Going, Four Western Intercollegiate Records Were Broken—McLean Beaten.

Chicago, June 2.—The Western intercollegiate athletic championship was won by the University of Michigan track and field team on Ravenswood Field today after the most closely-contested meet in the history of the association. There was only half a point difference between the total scores of Michigan and Chicago when the last event had been decided, with California but 1½ points behind Chicago and it took the last event, the 120-yard hurdle, in which the athletes of these three institutions fought for supremacy, to decide the championship. The points scored were as follows:

Michigan, 42; Chicago, 40½; California, 38; Wisconsin, 21; Notre Dame 17; Northwestern, 6; Knox College, 4½; Minnesota, 3; Nebraska, 2.

Teams from nineteen Western colleges and universities competed in the sixteen track and field events carded, and though the cinder paths were anything but fast, and a cold north wind put the thinly clad varsity athletes at a disadvantage, yet four Western intercollegiate records were broken, including one track and three field events.

One of these, big Flaw, the Californian who recently in the East on a private trial broke the world's record for the hammer throw, easily established new Western records for the hammer throw and shot put.

Dvorak of Michigan established a new record in the pole vault, and Hesselgrave, without being pressed, clipped five seconds off the mile-walk record, in the other track events, however, the time was slow.

The meet was not without surprises. Hahn of Wisconsin, who was expected to win the mile run, was run off his feet on the home lap by Baker of Northwestern and finished a good third, Mooney of Chicago defeated McLean, the crack Michigan cinder, in the 120-yard hurdle, after a hard struggle, and later, in the half mile, Mooney ran Tempel of Michigan to a standstill and finally breasted the tape a winner by inches from Baker of Michigan, whom he sprinted for a hundred yards.

The Results.

CHICAGO WHIST CHAMPIONS.

Windy City Players Captured the Interstate Loving Cup.

Chicago, Ill., June 2.—The interstate whist carnival, held under the auspices of the Chicago Whist Association, closed tonight after three days' play. Interest in today's play centered in the work of the Chicago Whist Club in the finals matched for the silver loving cup, contested for seven clubs.

It was won after an exciting two days' struggle by the Chicago Whist Club, with a final score of 28 points as against 26 for the Hamilton club, the nearest competitor. The other five clubs engaged in the match finished in the following order: Detroit Whist Club, 25; City club of Austin, 22; Lincoln Whist Club, 20; Commercial Club of Sioux Falls, 20, and the Lakeside Whist Club, 16.

The third and final round in the club pair match, resulted in a victory for the American Whist Club pair, M. M. Cohen and H. E. Wilson, with a total of 231. W. S. Tisdale and E. A. Rothgeb of the Hamilton Whist Club finished second, with 227 points, and C. F. Wilson and W. A. P. Montgomery of Indianapolis, third, with a total of 20.

TENPIN TOURNAMENT.

Billy Yorger Is Giving Kuppinger a Hard Rub for Honors.

St. Louis will be represented in the International Bowling Tournament at New York City, July 17. George Kuppinger has already forwarded the entrance fees to Mr. Sam Karpf, secretary of the International Tournament, and it is now an assured fact that the St. Louis tenpin bowlers will participate in the big event.

The International Bowling Tournament, which will be held at Chase Hall, Sixty-ninth Park, New York, July 17 to 22, under the auspices of the United Bowling Clubs of New York, will be one of the greatest attractions of its kind ever held in America. The most important events will be the contests for the tenpin team championship of the world, and the individual championship of the world. Bowling teams from all parts of the globe will participate in these events, either exhibition games in which teams from foreign countries will take part are bowling on the green, bagle bowling, English four pin, Swedish three pin and Scottish game of bowls. There will be ladies prize bowling, cocked hat games, shooting contests, athletic sports of every description and amusements of all sorts.

Interest in the individual tournament now on in this city is growing more pointed from day to day, and from the records, the selection of a formidable aggregation of bowlers to represent St. Louis at the International Tournament will be a good one, and one which will compare favorably with any team in the country. The records of the local individual tournament, to date, are as follows:

Boston, Mass., June 2.—Boston won from St. Louis this afternoon in one of the hardest and filthiest fought games of the season, a game in which the players of both teams lost no opportunity to let each other know that they did not intend that the other side should win.

The score, 17 to 16, shows that there have fought those two nervous teams must have been, but the side comments, reaching from the bench, Umpire Emslie's temporary paralysis of nerve, when he put McGraw out of the game, and the way the players acted toward each other, made up a sort of a game, the ball game that was worth going miles to see, even if it did contain some great playing.

McGraw was disposed to fight every inch of ground from the start, and the reason why he was put out of the game was his repeated kicking on Emslie's decision in the third, when he said that Burkett was out at first. Burkett had hit a grounder to Long, who threw very high to Tenney. The latter had to leap high to get it, and when he came down Burkett was on first.

Emslie claimed that Tenney touched Burkett, but the decision was so at so that Burkett was entitled to the benefit of the doubt in any event, and it certainly seemed as though Burkett was safe. Emslie did not give the visitors any of the best of it at any time. McGraw kept kicking. First he was fined, then Emslie ordered him out of the game, and when McGraw began to speak his mind more freely, he was ordered to leave the grounds, which he did.

The loss of McGraw proved an to be the worst possible thing that could have happened for St. Louis, for Orth, who took his place, was not equal to several disputed situations that followed, and Dillard at short was none too strong. This made the left-hand side of the infield very weak, and many a run Jones allowed signed for "Doing" Wallace, who is at his home in Bristol, Pa., left the team a bad set. The weakness at third and short had a great deal to do with St. Louis's defeat, but the fact that Powell was slaughtered in the fifth and sixth gave Boston a start that put them in the running for victory.

When the sixth was over and Powell had retired in favor of Jones, Boston was one run to the good. Then began a tilt for victory, first one side and then the other gaining the lead or tying the score. Finally St. Louis land on Lewis heavily and batted in five runs, which, at that period, looked like an overwhelming lead. But in the ninth Boston got after Jones and the weakness of short and third let St. Louis before the visitors, stocked up startlingly, and the result was that the tie at the end the score.

In the ninth St. Louis would have scored but for a lucky play. Men were on third and second, and one out, when a hot line fly was hit in Tenney's direction. He stabbed it and doubled up the man on second, making a double play.

In Boston's ninth Tenney was hit by a pitched ball by Hughey, who replaced Jones. He reached third on Stahl's sacrifice and Long's out at first. Then Freeman hit a hard ball to the left of Kelster, and the abbreviated second baseman could not get to it, so Tenney scored the winning run.

The crowd was very impartial. Both teams got all that was coming to them in the way of applause. There was a great uproar when McGraw was ordered to leave the grounds, and a policeman was called in to enforce the mandate.

Donlin was the star of the game and he received a great ovation at the hands of the crowd. He made five hits with a total of twelve bases, including two singles, two doubles and a home run out of the lower tier at bat and all the applause he received was earned. His batting was the best feature of the game. The strangest feature was the complete ineffectiveness of all the seven pitchers called upon. Powell did not have a thing to the line of mysteriousness, Jones was hit hard by Donlin and Hughey looks far to be the worst of the other two. Powell was knocked out of the box, and so was Lewis. Pittsburger pitched one inning and had to be replaced by Willis, as Philly batted for him in the ninth. Willis had nothing at all, and Boston was lucky to get out of that tenth inning as it did.

Manager Tebeau was as earnest and hard-working as any of his players, although he never left the bench. He was in the game all the time, with instructions, and made things of board. It was a hard game for St. Louis to lose, as they played the best all-round game.

Some of the players will go down to Providence on Sunday and play the game at Rocky Point. Tenney is most of Boston at the Weber & Heals' show. The score:

TEBEAU IS INTERVIEWED.

Praises George Cuppy and Blames the Crowds of St. Louis.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Boston, Mass., June 2.—"We don't intend to get licked again here," said Mr. Tebeau today. "We ought to take three of the games. You have a good club here, but not as good a club this year as ours. We have as good as any other team and you will find us fighting at the top when the finish comes. The injury to Wallace which may keep him out for a month handicaps us now, but even at that I think we can do better than an even break with Boston."

Speaking of Cuppy, who has recently come to Boston from St. Louis, George has done so well in the two games he has played for Boston that it looks as though St. Louis let a good man go.

"Cuppy," said Mr. Tebeau, "why Cuppy is all right, one of the best men in the business, and the St. Louis management knows it just as well as anybody. For some reason the St. Louis crowds scored on him and would yell, 'Take him out!' whenever he had given two men their bases. It got so that it would not be policy to put him in a game as he was of no use to us. Boston will get a lot of good work from him. He is a good man.

"Speaking of the League race this year, it is going to be a hard one, and the club that wins the pennant will have an awful tussel with the other seven. It is a long race, and we have as good a chance as any of them. Brooklyn is always in it. Philadelphia is a good club and Boston is coming. When the Bostons were at St. Louis last week their heads were down on their chests, for they had been being right along and were out of spirits. They played a great game against us the last day they were there. Now that they have found Cincinnati easy, they have picked up courage and are playing a good game. It takes nothing but a few defeats to start a team right. I am glad of it, too," added Mr. Tebeau with a smile and wink. "For what good it would do us to beat a crippled team."

NO CONTEST AT BROOKLYN.

Rain Put an End to a Brilliant Pitching Exhibition.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 2.—The last half of the fifth inning was being played today, with Chicago runless in both and third and one out, when a terrific cloudburst had a short to the game. Darkness had a hand in the game, too, and Umpire Snyder had to call the game off with Dolan. Umpire Snyder deserved a compliment. His playing was an exhibition of brilliant pitching by Mercer and Callahan. Score:

Drunkards Easily Cured.

Mrs. Howard Tarleton Wants Every Lady Reader of This Paper to Know How She Saved Her Son.

Used an Odorless and Tasteless Remedy in His Food, Quickly Curing Him Without His Knowledge.

Trial Package of This Remedy Will Be Mailed Free to Show How Easy It Is to Cure Drunkards.

Every woman in this broad land is given an inspiration in the words of Mrs. Howard Tarleton, whose address is Box 506, Lebanon, Ohio, that must result in the greatest temperance crusade ever started. She cured her son of drunkenness after he had become a sot, a common loafer, and now he is a returned, upright citizen, rejoicing with his mother in the wonderful result and the marvelous relief that brought about this grand change in his life.

"Yes, I cured my son of drunkenness," said Mrs. Tarleton when interviewed about it. "Although I am his mother and proud of him, I must say he was a wayward man for a good many years. He was what the newspapers call a bum, or a saloon loafer,
