RAILROAD NEWS FROM ALL POINTS.

New York Traffic Managers Think the Grain Pool Has Been Unjustly Criticised.

HARRIOT'S DUTIES DEFINED.

Must Always Look After the Metropolis's Interests—J. P. Morgan's Denial—Illinois Central—Appointments — Notes.

New York, Sept. 24.—Traffic managers of railroads directly interested in the new grain pool whereby the grain carrying trade between Buffalo and New York is to be divided among the roads concerned, and by which rates are to be restored and maintained, believe that the arrangement should be given a practical test before it is criticised. As stated, members of the grain trade of the Produce Exchange do not take very kindly to the new traffic agreement.

Mr. Henry H. Kingston, general traffic manager of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, said yesterday: "I think the practical operation of the new plan will prove to the grain men that their fears are unfounded. One of the very reasons that the compact was made was to conserve the best interests of New York, other
