Jewett that James Golden, who drove Con Withers and John Cheney, who drove Volo, in the 2:18 trot on Wednesday, and also J. B. McKenny, who drove Georne in the 2:19 pace on the same day, had been fined $100 each by the Judges and had been suspended from the track for the balance of the year. Summary:

CRICKET MATCH AT FOREST PARK.

Vice President's Team Defeated the President's Eleven.

The cricket match played yesterday between teams of the President and Vice President of the St. Louis C. C. was close and at times exciting, and the result was in doubt until the last wicket fell. The Vice President's side won by the small margin of three runs, and it can attribute its victory to the careful batting of Joe Fletcher, who made 27 runs, but out. For the President's side H. A. Canfield batted well for his sixteen and F. H. Worden also pushed double figures. Ratcliff and Duckworth carried off the bowling honors for their respective sides.

On Thursday there will be a match between the English and Albioners, and the game will be called at 2:30 sharp. Score:

Interesting Billiard Match.

EXCITING FINISH BETWEEN JUMPERS.

Titus and Eva Moe Had a Spirited Contest in the Kinloch Hurdle Race.

HUNGARIAN WAS A SURPRISE.

"Doc" Street's Hanover Gelding Outsprinted Alice Turner and Miss Mae Day—Meddlesome Scored Again.

Titus and Eva Moe had a fighting finish in the hurdle race at Kinloch Park yesterday. Titus was the favorite in the betting, but he was lucky to win from the filly. Had it not been for an accident, Eva Moe probably would have scored. She raced hard and head with Titus to the last jump. As the filly went over the last obstacle, both her stirrup-straps broke and her rider had to do a bareback act home. Handicapped as he was, the boy rode Eva Moe with the greatest determination, and Titus had to be ridden out to the last ounce to beat her at the end. Mr. Bratton's jumper, Padrere, threw his rider early in the race. Yarbua had early speed and cut some figure in the race for awhile, but fell out of it completely at the end.

Several thousand people went to the track expecting to see the ponies race over a track ankle-deep in mud and slush, but they were treated to an agreeable surprise. The track received a thorough drenching Friday, but the water went through the sandy soil as though it was a sieve, and after the sun beat down on it for two or three hours it had dried out surprisingly well.

It was a great day for favorites, but the result of the sprint handicap upset the calculations of the form players. Miss Mae Day and the Missouri-bred filly, Alice Turner, carried the coin of the talent, but the winner turned up in Hungarian. The latter is a recent arrival from the Canadian circuit and belongs to "Doc" Street. The Miss Mae Day party backed their filly as though it was all over but the shouting. Chris Schwacker and "Doc" Kinder led the plunge on the Hermitcee filly. Who Was backed from 8 to 5 to 6 odds in at post time. The race was interesting until Coburn turned Hungarian loose, when the Hanover gelding drew away from his field and galloped home two lengths before Alice Turner. Miss Mae Day was lucky to land third.

George C. Bennett, the Memphis turfman, captured two of the purses with El Caney and Up It Goes, and they proved to be the opening event. It was at one and one-half miles, and five horses went to the post. El Caney and Jimp appeared to outclass the other three and the bulk of the money bet on the race went in on the pair. Jimp, however, was not right and finished a dismal last. None of the other three horses in the race were able to make El Caney get up in respectable gallop. He came home under wraps with Up Five in the place.

Orleans and Gudarman hooked up in the second, and a spirited betting argument was followed by a pretty horse race. The Kentucklans to a man backed the son of imp. Odd Fellow, while Captain Bob Rhea, the Arkansas horseman, and his friends went to Orleans with a vengeance. After the numbers were hung up Bob and his colleagues were very confident, Gudarman made a game struggle, but Orleans was the best horse. She beat him two open lengths and was going away from the Kentucky colt at the end. Barney Schreiber's Aeropelia, a half sister to that good race horse Tayon, showed quite a flash of early speed in this race, and will doubtless be heard from before the meeting closes.

Delphideo was probably the best horse in the third race, but he monopolized all the hard luck and finished second to W. R. Gates, who was cleverly piloted by Dominick. With anything like an even break Delphideo probably would have taken the Gates horse's measure.

Mr. Bratton's confident gelding Meddlesome disposed of Guide Rock, Tom Gilmore and other fair platers in the closing race. The Smallman party brought their horse was about due and backed him heavily, but the son of Tenton ran another one of his bad races, finishing back in the ruck. He evidently does not like the Kinloch Park track. This seems to be about the only explanation for his unsatisfactory races recently. The summaries:

First race, one mile and a half—El Caney, 97 (Gaudalle), 7 to 10, first; Up Five, 93 (Coburn), 6 to 1, second; Joe Bird, 98 (Burns), 3 to 1, third. Time, 2:40. Jimp and Hinge of Day also ran.

GRAVESEND MEETING ENDED.

Jockey Henry Piloted Three Winners at the Brooklyn Track.

New York, Sept. 29.—It was a characteristic gateway day at the Gravesend race track to-day. Not a single favorite was first to the wire, one after another going down in startling succession. The weather was dull and cloudy, but no rain fell, and as a good card was offered a big colony crowd was on hand to see the curtain ring down on the fall meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club. The feature of the day was Jockey Henry's clever work. He rode three winners and one placed horse.

Two stakes were decided, the Oriental and Prospect handicaps. Imp was scratched from the Oriental and Jack Point was then made a hot favorite, with Gonfalon next in demand. Charentus, the outsider in the betting, upset calculations. Well handled by Burns, he made all the running and won easily from Gonfalon, who closed fast, after dropping out of it on the far turn, and beat Jack Point for the place. Beau Gallant won the Prospect Handicap, largely through Henry's riding. He was slow to begin, getting away near to last, but gradually improved his position, and at the end won cleverly from Water Color, who made most of the running. Autolight was third. It was not a true-run race, as far as Elines and Dublin were concerned. The former was practically left at the post and then finished fourth, and Dublin was crowded out of it on the far turn when running with the leaders.

First race, about six furlongs—Telamon, 98 (Burns), 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Joe Frey, 112 (Burns), 3 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Redpath, 119 (Turner), 12 to 5 and even, third. Time, 1:16 4-5. Sparrow Wing, The Rooster, The Roar, Blackness, Mauette, Pilon d'Or and Magic Light also ran.

Second race, mile and a furlong—Alstice, 98 (Burns), 2 to 1 and 6 to 5, won; The Amazon, 107 (Shaw), 13 to 10 and 1 to 2, second; Greenback, 110 (Burns), 8 to 5 and 1 to 2, third. Time, 1:55 3-5. The Chamberlain and Half Time also ran.

Third race, Prospect Handicap, about six furlongs—Beau Gallant, 118 (Henry), 4 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Water Color, 115 (Littlefield), 16 to 5 and 6 to 5, second; Autolight, 99 (Williams), 10 to 1 and 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:14. Blues, Dexter Parlon, Lady Schorr, Dublin, King Lief, Dolcell, Bedock and Silverdale also ran.

Fourth race, Oriental Handicap, mile and a quarter—Charentus, 99 (Burns), 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Gonfalon, 100 (Henry), 16 to 5 and 6 to 5, second; Jack Point, 108 (Tarsh), 8 to 5 and 7 to 10, third. Time, 2:06 3-5. Andromeda and Pink Coat also ran.

Fifth race, five and one-half furlongs—Balloon, 99 (Shaw), 3 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Cherished, 108 (McCue), 7 to 1 and 5 to 2, second; Queen Carmite, 91 (Weiderstrandt), 12 to 1 and 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:09. Princess Evelyn, Dangerfield, Maiden, The Golden Prince, The Brothers, Estalada, Dactyle, Glint, Predrich and Arden also ran.

Sixth race, mile and a sixteenth—Wonder Boy, 94 (Henry), 7 to 2 and 6 to 5, won; Cyrano, 95 (McCue), 20 to 1 and 6 to 1, second; Wildfire, 98 (Burns), 7 to 5 and 2 to 1, third. Time, 1:48 1-5. Compensation, Bettie Gray, Star Chamber, Tea Candles, Rulford, Kirkwood and Hottenhoeven also ran.

ACCIDENT AT HAWTHORNE.

Several Horses Went Down in the Jumping Event.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 29.—Four horses fell in a bunch at the eleventh jump in Hawthorne's steeplechase this afternoon, seriously injuring Jockey Egerson and slightly wounding W. Johnson.

There were eight starters in the race, and, although it was over the full course, the field was closely bunched at the eleventh jump, when High Admiral fell Sallust, Zarafilla and Rocky Rube all stumbled over him, and the horses and jockeys were mixed up in endless confusion. Egerson, who had the mount on Zarafilla, and W. Johnson, on High Admiral, lay so ill that C. Johnson, on Sallust, was only slightly injured and was able to walk away. Egerson and Johnson had to be carried to the jockeys' dressing-room. Johnson soon recovered, and, although badly bruised, had no serious injuries. Egerson was unconscious for nearly an hour, and seemed in great agony. Physicians who examined him said that he may be internal injuries, but anticipated no serious results.

After the fall, Corrigan, who was leading, had but little trouble in disposing of his field. Mr. Dunlap lost Donation five lengths for the place.

Misfortune befell Icon in the second race, after he had been backed from 5 to 1 down to 3 at post time. The colt led after passing the quarter and had to be pulled up to a walk. The accident probably prevented a big killing, as the colt was the heaviest played 2-year-old in the field of eight. Handyman won the race easily. Weather clear and track heavy. Summaries:

First race, six furlongs—Coal Dumper, 99 (Burns), 3 to 1 and 1 to 2, won; Ben Davis, 99 (Kennedy), 4 to 1, second; Alex Scott, 99 (Rogers), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:18¾. Lancelin, Roster Card, Pauline J., Sir Frank Venzi also ran.

Second race, one mile—Handyman, 99 (Walker), 4 to 1, won; Icon, 99 (Littlefield), 3 to 1, second; Rosen, 99 (J. Martin), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:46. Fairymound, Hermione, William Ave and El Jack also ran. Icon lost.

Third race, one mile—Full Course, 99 (Burns), 7 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Mr. Dunlap, 97 (Rogers), 4 to 1, second; Donation, 94 (Pickens), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:46¾. Lost Fellow, High Admiral, Sallust, Zafarilla and Rocky Rube left at the eleventh jump.

Fourth race, five and a half furlongs—Lemuel, 92 (Tally), 2 to 1, won; Dreamlike, 92 (J. Martin), 4 to 1, second; Hunter Conway, 107 (Burns), 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:09. Lord Badge, Ed Leigh, Tolu Dare, Blue Lily, Dr. Kinsel and Lord Wolseley left at the post.

Fifth race, selling, mile and an eighth—Handyman, 99 (Walker), 3 to 1, won; The Ladies, 99 (Burns), 4 to 1, second; Sebastian, 99 (Wolff), 40 to 1, third. Time, 1:54. Our Nellie, Prosecutor and Flagstaff also ran.

Sixth race, selling, mile and a half—Joe Rodgers, 94 (Wolff), 4 to 1, won; Sadie Lewis, 94 (Burns), 7 to 2 and 6 to 5, second; Judge Parker, 94 (Kane), 7 to 1, third. Time, 2:40. Senator Tillman and F. Gomez also ran.

WHITNEY BUYS BALLYHOO.

Fifty Thousand Dollars for Dam of Bally Hoo Bey.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 29.—W. C. Whitney has purchased of John E. Madden the great thoroughbred broodmare Ballyhoo, dam of Bally Hoo Bey, winner of the Futurity. Madden sought the mare of J. Will Forsythe on the day previous to the race, and it is said Whitney paid $50,000 for her. Madden got her for $16,000. Whitney has also purchased of Major E. J. Thomas the mares Eardala and Wenona and also the great young mare Mamie Hinsyar. All of these mares cost a stiff sum, and it is reported that it is Mr. Whitney's object to get control of the female line of the old Mamie Gray family. It is learned here that John E. Madden has refused his Hanover-Correction colt at $50,000. This is the colt for which he paid $25,000 in June at the auction sale of the McGrathiana yearling produce in New York. The price has created a sensation in turf circles, but Madden contends that if the colt is worth a dollar he is worth $50,000.

Richard Dwyer of Chicago has been officially added entry to Tuxedo track during the meeting after meeting.

Sam Leggett will go to San Francisco next month and ride and race horses there during the winter. In the spring he intends to go to Kentucky for the Derby.

John Madden has purchased Golden Age from Henry C. Morris for $4,000. He also secured the blood mares Belinda and Wilonia, from William Lakeland, Chamber of Beauty. They will be used to breed.

The Schorr family thoroughly enjoyed racing. They are at the track every day—father, mother, son and daughter. They take a genuine and keen interest in the sport, and when Tommy shows hands a winner they are in ecstasies. They are a Jew family, and the wholesome joy they extract from racing is good to look at.

Peter Wimmer, trainer for Hunter & Larkin, says that he will not have Kirby Mack again the season, as the horse is sore after his long campaign. Kinsor Mack is to be turned out in Kentucky, his departure will eliminate an important factor from the chief long-distance stakes this fall.

The only happening out of the ordinary at Gravesend Friday was the purchase of the 2-year-old Elizabeth M., by W. C. Whitney, for $2,000. After the second race he had her examined by Doctor Sheppard, and on the receipt of his report the deal was closed. Mr. Whitney said he would start her in the Matron Stakes at Morris Park and then ship her to England.

At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club, Jockey K. Mitchell was restored to good standing, and it was ordered that the suspension of Jockey John Hudson be not continued after the Brooklyn Jockey Club meeting.

The law of supply and demand will no doubt put good jockeys at a high premium next season. It has been stated that Sullivan's retainer is the biggest ever paid to a rider. If the writer is not mistaken, Henry Griffin received the largest retainer ever paid to a jockey. That was $6,000, which August Belmont paid him. To a man with a good stable of thoroughbreds or a man who is a heavy speculator, a good capable rider is half the game. Many are the races that are won by the inferior horses, simply because they have been ridden by superior jockeys. There is no question but that jockeys make a great difference in horses. Handicappers learn this through comparison of horses with various riders up.

FATALLY SHOT HIS FRIEND'S ASSAILANT.

James Murphy Put Bullet in the Head of Roger Molloy, Who Had Slashed J. R. Montague.

CONFLICTING STORIES TOLD.

One Witness Said That Molloy Was Called Outdoors and Fired Upon—Murphy Pleaded Self-Defense.

Roger Molloy, 23 years old, a stove mounter in the employ of the Bridge & Beach Stove Company, was shot in the head and probably fatally wounded at 12 o'clock last night at No. 39 South Broadway, by James Murphy, who recently arrived in St. Louis from Carthage, Mo.

The rooming-house in which the shooting occurred is conducted by Mrs. Molloy, the mother of the wounded man. Murphy was one of the boarders in the house, as was John F. Montague, a switchman, who was involved with Molloy in the trouble which preceded the shooting.

There is some difference of opinion as to the cause of the shooting. Murphy claims it grew out of a controversy between Molloy and Montague, over a card bill, while witnesses claim that a woman was at the bottom of the trouble.

Molloy is a small man, Montague a giant in stature. According to the story of all concerned, Montague and Molloy had a quarrel in the house, in the course of which Molloy drew a knife, with which he attacked Montague. A running fight ensued from the second story of the house to the street, in which Montague was severely slashed, receiving a cut about six inches long in the back and another in the left shoulder.

By the time Montague reached the street he was weak from the loss of blood, and fell to the pavement. A crowd had gathered and an ambulance was summoned to take him to the City Dispensary.

Just after Montague was taken away the trouble between Murphy and Molloy began, and the latter was shot, the bullet entering the head between the eyes. Another ambulance was summoned immediately after the shooting, and Molloy was taken to the City Dispensary, where his wound was pronounced fatal by Doctor Voerster. Murphy was arrested and taken to the Central Station, where he was locked up.

Murphy said: "The trouble arose over a card bill. Molloy demanded money of Montague, and, failing to get the full amount, attacked him. I took Montague's revolver from him in the course of the fight. Afterward Molloy attacked me with a knife, and I shot him in self-defense."

Al Wickner of No. 86 South Broadway, said: "I saw the shooting and the fight that preceded it. After Montague had been cut he and Murphy stood on the corner of Broadway and Cerre street, where some words were exchanged, and Montague gave Murphy his revolver. A little after that a small boy went to the house at No. 39 South Broadway to tell Molloy to come out. Murphy stood behind the door and just as Molloy came out he fired at him."

Montague said: "The fight originated over a woman with whom I saw Molloy upstairs. I don't know who the woman was, but he was evidently mad that I should have caught him with her."

At the dispensary Murphy admitted it was Montague's revolver with which the shooting had been done. This Montague denied, and when confronted by Murphy told him to "hold his tongue and say nothing."

TWO WORLD'S RECORDS BROKEN.

Maxwell Long Ran 440 Yards in 47 4-5 Seconds at New York.

New York, Sept. 29.—The annual fall games of the N. Y. A. C. were held to-day at the club's summer home, Travers Island, on the Sound, in the presence of about 1,000 spectators. The weather was raw and unfavorable to clever performances on the track and field. Notwithstanding this, two world's records were broken.

The first of them will long be remembered in athletic history. It was the 440 yards run, handicap, in which Maxwell, W. Long of Columbia University covered the distance in the remarkable time of 47 4-5 seconds.

These figures eclipse all former records, amateur and professional, on a circular track. The best previous record was 48¾ seconds, made by the late L. E. Meyers at Stanton, Pa., on October 13, 1899. The present English record is 46 seconds, held jointly by H. C. L. Tindall and F. C. Bredin.

Wendell Baker of Harvard holds a straightaway exhibition record of 47¼, made at Beacon Park, Boston, in 1897, but, as the best record for a circular path is 50 seconds, the former one has never been seriously accepted by athletic authorities. Long's performance is still further enhanced when it is considered that he ran from scratch in a handicap race and had to run rather wide at one of the turns. He won by eighteen yards.

The other world's record occurred in the hammer-throwing event, in which John Flanagan of the N. Y. A. C. was the performer. He sent the missile 90 feet 4 inches, beating the former record of 187 feet 8 inches, made by himself on the same grounds two years ago.

In the pole vaulting event Horgan, holder of the English record, failed in his attempt to beat the American record of 11 feet, his best effort being 11 feet 4 inches.

The swimming championships of the Amateur Athletic Union were held in conjunction with the meet, and E. C. Schaefer of the University of Pennsylvania carried off the 100-yard, 220-yard and 440-yard events. In the 100 yards he lowered the American record of 1 minute 8¾ seconds to 1 minute 1¾ seconds. Doctor W. G. Douglas, the old-time champion, carried off the half-mile in capital style, and his victory created great enthusiasm among aquatic enthusiasts.

JIM CORBETT IS OVERDUE.

Steamer Campania From Liverpool Twenty-Four Hours Late.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Sept. 29.—On board the Campania, now twenty-four hours overdue, is James J. Corbett, once champion heavyweight pugilist of the world. Waiting anxiously for the arrival of Corbett are many persons who have varied reasons for desiring conversation with him.

Mrs. Corbett, who has entered suit for divorce from her husband, rarely knows in her own mind whether she is glad or sorry that he is soon to be back in New York. She insists that she will not be dissuaded from pressing her case to its conclusion, but, on the other hand, she admits that she still loves the man from whom she is seeking divorce.

One of the first who will greet Corbett will be a clerk from the office of A. H. Hummel, who will serve upon him papers in Mrs. Corbett's action for divorce. The big pugilist has called in advance that he is coming back to New York to effect a reconciliation with his wife.

Corbett will receive a warm greeting from his friends, who still have faith in him, and who take no stock in the stories of Mrs. Corbett and Mrs. McCoy that the recent set-to in Madison Square Garden was "fixed."

NIGHTINGALE IS DEAD.

Half Sister of Crescenus Dropped Dead in Her Stall.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 29.—A Sentinel special from Berlin, Wis., says:

Nightingale, the famous mare, with a record of 2:10, was found dead in her stall at Riverside Stock Farm to-day. She was 17 years old, and was a half-sister of Crescenus, the famous stallion which won the $30,000 stakes at Readville this week.

GIVEN A FLAG BY LADIES.

Bryan Club Holds a Notable Evening Reception in Girard.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Girard, Ill., Sept. 29.—The opera-house of this city was crowded to its utmost capacity to-night. The political issues of the day were ably discussed by E. C. Knotts of this city.

Mr. Knotts is acknowledged over this section by Republicans as one of the best campaign speakers in the State, and his speech to-night fully sustained his reputation. He held the closest attention of his large audience, which was composed largely of Republicans, and his denunciations of imperialism and trusts were frequently interrupted by applause.

Mr. Knotts spoke fully two hours. After the address a beautiful silk flag was presented to the Bryan and Adelaide Club of the Democratic party, Miss F. G. Wood, wife of Girard's Mayor, making the presentation speech.

This has been the most enthusiastic political demonstration yet held in this section and as an evening rally fully proves that a whole day rally, which will soon be held here, will be a notable event.
